-- TITUS --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

d. 17 Jan 1730 age 86		d.

In his will, he wrote: ...24 day of February, 1727/8. I, Content Titus, of Newtown, in Queens County, on Nassau Island, being old and crazy, but of sound mind. I leave to my son Robert, all my real estate in Newtown, he paying out the legacies, and allowing grass and hay for 2 cows for Hannah. And all my wearing apparell, and all my tools for building, turning, and husbandry. Also 3 horses, 4 cows, and a negro man, Jack. I leave to my sons, Silas, John, and Timothy, 5 shillings each. I leave to my daughter Hannah, the use and whole command of my newest house, during her single state, and then to my son Robert. Also 2 negro girls, and all household furniture, belonging to the Great room, in the new house, and the rest of the movable estate. And she is to have 1/3 of the crop of every sort, and grass and hay for her cows, and if she dies unmarried, then to my daughters, Phebe and Abigail. I leave to my daughters, Phebe and Abigail, each a negro girl and boy and £20, having heretofore dealt out household goods to them. I make my son Robert, and my daughter Hannah, executors. Witnesses, Moore Woodard, Charles Wright, Samuel Pumroy. Proved, January 31, 17 29/30. Hannah Titus resigns as executor, "being very weak, and indisposed in body, and incapable of going abroad, without great danger to Life." [NOTE.--The term "crazy" at that time meant general debility of body, but not mental alienation.--W. S. P.]

In his will, he wrote: ...I, Edmond Titus, of Wheatly, in the bounds of Oyster Bay, in Queens County, yeoman, being this 5 day of the 3d month, called March, in the year 1754, in a feeble condition of body, and willing to set my house in order before my final change." I leave to my wife Sarah one of the choicest of my beds, with full furniture, and one of the choicest of my horses, and her riding saddle, and my cupboard and oval table, and my Great Bible, and all bed linnen. I will that all my lands and meadows, both divided and undivided, lying in the Town of Hempstead, be sold by my executors, and the money to go towards payment of debts. My executors are to set apart so much of my household goods and utensils of husbandry as they shall find expedient for my wife and family to keep house with, and the rest to be sold. My will and desire is that my wife is to have liberty to carry on farming for the support of herself and family so long as my wife shall think it profitable, and my executors may sell lands at discretion. My 4 daughters, Sarah, Martha, Mary, and Hannah, shall each have so much money as to be equal to what I have given to my eldest daughter, Phebe Pryer, and when my youngest daughter is of age or married, then the estate to be divided between my wife and my 5 daughters. Titus, Robert

son of	England	dau. of
b. 1600 England		b. 1604
d.		d. 24 March 1678/9

They came to New England on the "Hopewell" in 1635. "Robert Titus embarked from London, England 3 April 1635, the following is the entry in the passenger list, preserved in the Public Record Office in London. "Theis under written mane are to be transported to New England, imbarqued in ye Hopewell, Mr. W, Bundick. The p'ties have brought certificate from he Minister and Justices of Peace that they are no Subsedy men, they have taken the oath of Alleg. & Supremacie: Robert Titus, Husbandman of St. Katherins. aged 35; Hannah Titus, uxor 31; Jo. Titus, age 8; Edmond Titus age 5.

They arrived in Boston in a few weeks following, and soon were granted land in the present town of Brooklline, near Muddy River, adjoining Boston. Here the family remained two or three years, when they removed to the town of Weymouth, some nine miles to the southeast. Their land is described in the records of the town of Weymouth, and was located in the present village of North Weymouth, and is not far from the unfortunate settlement which Capt.Weston made in Sep 1622. In the spring of 1644 Robert, in company with someforty families, removed with the minister of the Weymouth parish, Rev Samuel Newman, to the town of Rehoboth just east of Providence, Rhode Island. He was Commissioner for the ct of Plymouth from Rehoboth the years 1648-9 and1650 and 1654. He had some trouble with the authorities because he harbored Abney Ordway and family, they being of "evil fame" which the author supposes means they were Quakers. He soon after gave notice of his intention to leave the colony. He sold his property to Robert Jones of Nantucket, 23rd3rd month 1644 and we fix this as about the date of his migration to Long Island.According to Thompson, his Samuel, Abiel and Content, were freeholders inHuntington in 1666. John, the oldest son, remained in Rehoboth, NorthPurchase, now Attleboro, and Edmund came to Hempstead as early as 1650.

In her will, she wrote: ...I, Hannah Titus, Hunttington. Leaves to son Content Titus, house and land, and he is to pay to his brother John £10. To son Edmund a horse, and to son Samuel a cow. "To my son Samuel's wife my warming pan. To my son Abial's wife, my smoothing irons. To my son Content's wife, my skimmer. To my daughter Susannah, my serge hood." Dated May 14, 1672. Witness, Richard Williams, Thomas Skidmore. Inventory taken March 24, 167 8/9, £52 13s. 6d. Administration granted to son Content, March 1, 16 79/80.

He was part owner of a gristmill operated by horse power in New Utrecht in 1660.

3 Oct 1662 -- Fiscal Nicasius de Sille appears in Court with Jan van Cleef and Titus Cyre stating, that they bought Jacob van Couwenhoven's horse mill and that Titus Cyre sold his share to Jan van Cleef, who sold it to Albert Albertsen Lintwever [Terhune]; on which aforesaid horsemill he paid and disbursed above his just third part the sum of two hundred and ten guilders, and that he and Albert Albersen again sold the mill, as they bought it, according to agreement therefor, to Jacobus Backer, Govert Loockermans, Jacques Cosseau, and Hendrick van de Water, and that the aforesaid Albert Albertzen has given an assignment of four hundred guilders on the abovenamed van de Water, which remarking a fearing, that he should not get his own, he directed the Court Messenger to attach the money, which being done requests the attachment to be declared valid, until it shall be found to whom the most is belonging. The Worsh. Court declares the attachment valid.[1]
