

-- BANTA, J-Z --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Jacob Banta inherited property (1/3 of 370 acres) from his father, whose homestead was located at 211 Pascack Road, Hillsdale, NJ. Judging by his inventory, he was probably a weaver as well as a farmer. He was likely the Jacob Banta who served as freeholder from Harrington Twp. 1803-05.¹

In his will, dated 14 Jan 1831, probated 18 Oct 1831 (Bergen Co. D-151; Inv. D-213), Jacob Banta, of the Township of Herrington, mentioned wife Hester, dau. Margaret and son-in-law John N. Hopper.¹

John was a carpenter and tanner.

After the birth of his eldest son, John removed from the English Neighborhood to Pascack, Bergen Co., NJ. He was deacon of the nearby Paramus Church in 1756; elder, and delegate to the Classis in 1790. He may have built the "Hendrick Banta House" at 211 Pascack Road in Woodcliff Lake; the house was later associated with his son, Henry (Erskine's map marks the house Henry Banta's).

He served in the Bergen County Militia, probably during the French & Indian War, attaining the rank of Captain.

On 11 July 1777 "Captain John Banta of Pascack" was among a group of county residents accused of being "disaffected" to the war in progress with England, and ordered arrested and sent to jail at Morristown. On 2 Aug he appeared before the court and after being examined, agreed to take the necessary oaths and gave his bond for £300 as security.

In 1791 Jan sold his half of the farm at Spring Valley, Bergen Co., NJ, inherited from his father, to his brother Hendrick. Jan then moved to the vicinity of the Ponds, where he had bought another farm 1 May 1790. This farm he sold 1 May 1800, and moved to New York City, where on 1 June 1801 he bought the house at 17 Bowery Lane, where he kept a grocery. He sold this house in 1803 and bought, 3 June 1803 on the west side of Second St. (now Forsythe St.) where he continued the grocery business until his death.

Samuel Banta served as a private in Captain Newkirk's Company during the Revolutionary War, and was wounded at Fort Lee, NJ. He made his will 21 Nov 1821 (probated 1 Apr 1826; filed Hackensack).

The Blauvelt Genealogy, the Banta Genealogy and the DAR Patriot Index are in error in marrying this Samuel Banta to Elizabeth Blauvelt or Elizabeth Blauvelt Eckerson.

On 13 November 1800, Samuel and Elizabeth Banta, farmer, of Franklin Township, conveyed to Abraham A. Quackenbush, taylor, of the same place, for $1250., 61.33 acres...on a map made in 1767 by George Ryerson, Jonathan Hempton and Benjamin Morgan and returned to Robert Morris, who sold 10 Jan 1797 to Cornelius and Mary Demarest, who sold 8 July 1799 to said Samuel Banta. Signed Samuel Banta (his mark), Elizabeth Banta (her mark). Witnessed by David Ackerman, Abraham Westervelt.¹

On 15 November 1800, Abraham Banta of Bergen County, conveyed to Abraham A. Quackenbush, for $1, his interest in the previously described property. Signed Abraham Banta (his mark). Witnessed by Anne Westervelt, Abraham Westervelt.¹

In the marriage record they were "Wiert Banta, y.m. and Mary DeMaree, d. of David, both born and living at Ackinsack." Wiert was a weaver.

Wiert Banta probably built about 1706 the "Banta-Coe House" at what is today 884 Lone Pine Lane in Teaneck, Bergen Co., NJ. The house was mentioned in a 1717 Road Return, and in a will of 1744. Abraham Banta lived in the house during the Revolution.

In his will, dated 20 Jan 1732, probated 16 June 1733 (Lib. B., p. 441) Wiert Banta, of Hackensack, Bergen Co., weaver, mentioned wife Marie, Executrix. Children: Wiert (eldest son), David, Hendrick, Jacob (youngest son), Rachel and Ledia. Brother, Hendrick Banta and brother in law John Zaborowsky, both of Hackensack, "tutors and administrators of all my minorene children as also executors and assistants of my said wife." Youngest child not yet 13. Land and tenements on the Hackensack (where I live) and land on the "great swamp," meadows on the west side of Hackensack River. Wit: David Demarest, Sr., Joost Vredenburgh, Johannes Bougart, Robert Livesey, Jacob Banta.¹

Wiert was a Tory marauder and spy. Adrian C. Leiby in The Huguenot Settlement of Schraalenburgh, p. 41, writes: "Wiert C. Banta, born and raised in Sluckup (northeastern Paramus) and a member of a family who had been active in the Schraalenburgh patriot church, was another gang leader, one of the most daring marauders and spies who ever served the British."

Wiert C. Banta was a Loyalist and held a commission as Lieutenant in Capt. Peter Earl's company of King's Militia Volunteers. He served under Lieut.-Col. Abram Van Buskirk and on 23 Mar 1779 in an engagement at Hoboken was wounded in the knee by a musket ball, which left him crippled for life (he apparently lost his leg from this wound). He removed to Shelburne, Nova Scotia, where he was living in Oct 1787. He later relocated to Ontario. His widow was living with a grandson, Weart Banta, in NYC, where she died in 1833.
