

-- BARTHOLF, BERTHOLF --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Material on the Bertholf/Bartholf Family:

Bertholf, Ellsworth Price, Genealogy of the Bertholf or Bartholf family in Holland and America

The Bertholf family is originally from Aix-la-Chapelle (now called Aachen, Germany, on the border with Belgium). In fact, records indicate that a Werner Bertolff was one of the schepens (town leaders) of this city until his death in 1391. And tradition has it that the family name is connected to Saint Bertulf.

Reverend Guillian Bertholf came from Sluys in Holland to America in the year 1683 with his wife and located at Bergen, NJ.

In the marriage record they were both of Ramapo. They were members of the Wyckoff Ref Ch, according to a membership list made 1 April 1865. They were received into the church 15 May 1833.

They were listed in the 1850 Federal Census, New Jersey, Bergen Co., Franklin Township, p. 24, enumerated 31 July 1850, Dwelling 44, Family 46 (all b. NJ) -- Albert Bartholf, 50, Farmer; Mary [Bartholf], 48; Rachel [Bartholf], 17; Benjamin [Bartholf], 14. They were listed just after the family of William & Margaret Courter, and just before the family of Henry Jr. & Mary Jane Winter.

They were listed in the 1860 Federal Census, New Jersey, Bergen Co., Franklin Township, Godwinvill P.O., p. 57, enumerated 2 Aug 1860, Dwelling 550, Family 612 (all b. NJ) -- Albert Bartholf, 60, Farmer; Mary [Bartholf], 58; Benjamin [Bartholf], 24, School Teacher; Peter [Bartholf], 21, Farm Laborer.

Albert Bartholf, 70, farmer, and Mary, 68, were listed in the 1870 Federal Census, living in Franklin Township, Bergen County, NJ (probably in or near Wyckoff). Listed with them was Mary Holdrum, 21, domestic servant.

Albert Bartholf, 80, Farmer, and Maria Bartholf, 78, his wife, were listed in the 1880 Federal Census, living in Franklin Township, Bergen County, NJ. Living with them was their grandson [son of their son Jacob], Albert J. Bartholf, 27, Blacksmith, and his wife, Elizabeth A. Bartholf, 26, along with their two children, (great-grandchildren of Albert & Maria): Jacob Bartholf, 4; and Mary C. Bartholf, 1.

Albert J. and Elizabeth Ann Bartholf were listed in the 1885 New Jersey State Census, living in Franklin Township, Bergen County, NJ. Listed with them were Jacob and Mary C.

Albert J. and Elizabeth A. Bartholf were listed in the 1905 New Jersey State Census, living in Franklin Township with their son, Jacob A. Bartholf and his family.

Curiously, Albert J. Bartholf may have been listed twice in the 1910 Federal Census. (1) Albert J. Bartholf, 57, Railroad Blacksmith, and his wife, Elizabeth A., 56, were listed in the 1910 Federal Census, living at 17 Center Street, Midland Park Borough, Bergen County, NJ, in a house they rented. (2) Albert J. Bartholf, 57, Railroad Blacksmith, and his wife, Elizabeth A., 56, were listed in the 1910 Federal Census, living in Franklin Township, Bergen County, NJ in a house they rented. Listed with them were: Jacob A. Bartholf, son, 34, married, Court Constable; Catherine L., 39, daughter-in-law (mother of 1 child, 1 then living); and Everett J. Commodore Bertholf was born in New York City on 7 April 1866. He entered the Revenue Cutter Service as a cadet on 14 September 1885. He graduated and was appointed a third lieutenant on 12 June 1889. He served through all grades of the Service, on ships stationed along various parts of the coast of the United States and Alaska.

His most noted service had been in connection with Alaska. In 1897 he led the relief party which made the famous over-land trip in mid-winter to Point Barrow. Congress voted him a gold medal for this relief of over two hundred American whalers in danger of starving when their vessels were crushed in the ice. In the winter of 1901, Bertholf made a trip across northern Siberia by sledge at the request of the Bureau of Education. The purpose of this mission was the purchase of a reindeer herd to be used by the Inuits of northern Alaska.

He was appointed Captain Commandant of the United States Revenue Cutter Service on 19 June 1911 and re-appointed to the same office in January 1915 when President Wilson joined the Revenue Cutter Service with the Life-Saving Service to form the U.S. Coast Guard. He served as one of the American delegates to the International Conference on Safety at Sea held in London in 1912. In addition to his duties as Captain Commandant of the Coast Guard, Bertholf also served as chairman of the Interdepartmental Board on International Ice Observation and Patrol in the North Atlantic and of the Board on Anchorage and Movements of Vessels.

During the First World War Captain Commandant Bertholf held the temporary rank of Commodore. Upon his retirement as Commandant of the Coast Guard on 30 June 1919, he became one of the vice presidents of the American Bureau of Shipping and was a most active, influential, and important factor in the affairs of that institution. He also made quite an extensive European tour to expand this American organization in foreign fields. He died at his residence at Bretton Hall Hotel in New York City on 11 November 1921.

I was a boatman on the Hudson River, then in 1781 left home for Boston, MA and enlisted in the Navy under Captn. Stevens. As a gunner on the (USS) Buccaneer, commanded by Captn. Fearson, we cruised the coast of France in the British (English) Channel. Taken prisoner by British Man of War, the Quebec and the Euridyee (Eurydice?) to Portsmouth, England, on board the De La Quite, which had been taken from the Spanish, to Gasset Prison, then to Fortune Prison until Apr 1783. Exchanged for prisoners and sent by carlet to Hauver De Grap in France. Toured France with John Dennis and a boy named Benjamin Cross/Crofs, when in Paris saw Dr.(Benjamin) Franklin and W. Laurence and showed them my papers (a pass in French for "Jean Bartolf", signed by Thomas Barclay, Consul General to the US Ambassador to France), they told me to deliver myself to the American officers at La Areuit, France. I then sailed back to America with Captn. Fearson on the (USS) Buccaneer, arrived home 13 Jun 1783 after more than 2 years absence. While on the (USS) Buccaneer, which was accompanied by the (USS) ships, Cicero and Revolution, all 24 gun ships, I served under Captn. Thompson, 1st Lt. Thomas, 2nd Lt. Perkins, James Conner, Nicholas Langford, Alvin Bulsly/Bussly, Clement Barnnett, Anthony Barnes, Peekham Howland, and Jonathan Thoris?, who was whipped for building an American ship in miniature. John F. Bartholf, a native of New York, was a Union Army captain, who became a prominent carpetbagger politician of old Manatee County, FL.

During the Civil War, he first served as a private from April to July 1861 in Company G, 12th Regiment, New York State Militia before volunteering at New York City in Co. D, 66 Regiment, New York Infantry, to which he was enrolled as 1st Lieutenant on September 19, 1861. He, thereafter, was transferred and promoted to Captain, Company F on July 1, 1862. On December 13, 1862 at the Battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia, he suffered a gunshot wound in the left thigh. After treatment at a field hospital at Falmouth, Virginia and Lincoln General Hospital, Washington, D. C., he was furloughed for thirty days on December 30, 1862. Capt. Bartholf was mustered out of Company F on October 5, 1863 to accept a transfer to Company I, 2nd Regiment, U. S. Colored Infantry, to which he was mustered in on October 20, 1863. Stationed at Fort Myers, Florida in the spring of 1864, he participated in a raid in Hernando County in July 1864. Present at Fort Myers on February 20, 1865 when Major William Footman's Cow Cavalry demanded the fort's surrender, Capt. Bartholf was designated as the officer to reject the ultimatum, and the Confederates, after a brief skirmish, withdrew. After the war, he was Provost Marshal of Tallahassee at the time the 2nd U. S. Colored Infantry was on duty there. He was mustered out with his company on January 5, 1866 at Key West, Florida.

Bartholf's main interest was politics. On June 20, 1866, he solicited unsuccessfully for an appointment as an agent of the Freedmen's Bureau. He expressed sympathy for the freedmen who "are necessarily exposed to much cruel persecution and wrong," for whom he expressed a willingness to establish a school as he had many years experience as a teacher. Bartholf, along with Enoch E. Mizell and John Lomans (black), served as a registrar for Manatee County for the elections in 1867. James D. Green, for whom Fort Green was named, had served as a captain in the 2nd Florida Cavalry, and, after the war served almost five years as Manatee County's Representative to the State Assembly, in which position he exerted considerable political power. In the summer of 1868, Green arranged to have Bartholf appointed clerk of the circuit court of Manatee County, and in 1869 Bartholf moved his family to Pine Level, the new county seat, where they became the first permanent settlers. Bartholf, with, at various times, Enoch E. Mizell and James T. Magbee concurring, recommended county officers to the governor, and, thereby controlled the county. Bartholf, besides his other duties, served as postmaster of Pine Level from June 1871 to December 1872, and, again, April 1874 to January 1875.

In 1869, a state law was enacted for tax supported public schools, and Bartholf secured the appointment as superintendent of public instruction for Manatee County, in which position he served until July 1876, while continuing as clerk of the circuit court. Bartholf was the father of public education in much of the Peace River Valley. Schools under his tenure, were opened at New Hope Church near Fort Hartsuff, Sweet Water near now Wauchula, Charlie Apopka near William Smith's, Fort Hartsuff, Fort Green, Joshua Creek, Fort Ogden, Pine Level, Fort Winder, and Hickory Bluff (Charlotte Harbor).

In 1876 he moved to Charlotte Harbor. There from December 6, 1876 to September 16, 1879, he was postmaster.

Bartholf and F. C. M. Boggess of Fort Ogden became partners in a land office. In 1881, they published South Florida The Italy of America, a 76-page pamphlet, which promoted the Charlotte Harbor, Caloosahatchee and Peace River country.

By 1883, the Bartholf family had moved to Manatee Village where he served as postmaster from May 2 to October 1883. About 1886, they moved to Jacksonville where Bartholf was stamp clerk of the city post office.

Bartholf had received a pension from his military service, and on December 23, 1892, Mary H. Bartholf applied for a pension as his widow. She gave her address as c/o John L. Bartholf, corner 2nd and Ashley Streets, Jacksonville, Florida. In continuing her claim on April 8, 1893, Charles and Sarah Daniels of Zolfo gave a supporting affidavit. Her application was subsequently approved.

They were listed in the 1870 Federal Census, Florida, Manatee Co., Township 37, Manatee P.O., p. 1, enumerated 1 July 1870, Dwelling 2, Family 2 -- Bartholf, John F., 37, Clerk in Circuit Court, b.
