

-- BAYARD --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

d. before 19 Feb 1706

He came to America with his widowed mother and her brother-in-law Governor Peter Stuyvesant on 11 May 1647.

Balthazar Bayard, en syn huysv. Marrtje Loockermans, were listed in the 1686 Domnie Selyns list of members of the NYC Ref Ch. They were living on Broadway. Listed before them were: ...Tryntje Bickers, h. v. Walter Heyers; de Hr. Francois Rombout, en syn h. Helena Teller; Isaac Stephensen, en syn h. Margareta van Veen; Lucas Andrieszen, en syn h. Aefje Laurence. Listed after them were: Mr. Gerrit van Tricht, en syn h. Maria van der Grift; Blandina Kierstede, h. v. Pieter Bayard; Rachel Kierstede; Jan Peeck en syn huysv. Lysbeth van Imburg; etc.<sup>1</sup>

In his will, he wrote: In the name of God, Amen, this 4th day of March, 1699. I, Balthazar Bayard, of the city of New York, brewer, being of perfect health. I leave to my wife, Maria Bayard, during her widowhood, the use and benefit of all my estate, and make her guardian of the children that shall be under age. Provided always that in case my wife shall see cause to change her condition by a second matrimony, she shall be obliged, before the solemnization of the same, to make choice of fit persons, out of my nearest relations in blood, to be guardians of the children, and to deliver up all the estate, and reserve the full dowry which is due to her by law. In consideration that my daughters, Ariantie Ver Planck and Anne Maria Jay, at the time of their marriage have received a portion of £100, each of my children shall have the same before any general division. After my wife's decease, I leave to my eldest son my dwelling house and brew house, and a piece of land thereto belonging, with other buildings "that shall be earth or nayle fastened thereupon," with all the appurtenances, including horses and beer casks, and he shall pay to my youngest son one half of the value of the same, at the appraisement of indifferent persons. And the youngest son shall allow to my eldest son as being the first born, £25. I leave to my two sons all my apparell and clothing, and to my daughters, after the death of my wife, "all her apparell and clothes, and the jewells of gold and silver that have been belonging to her body." I leave all the rest of my estate to my children, Ariantie, Anna Maria, Jacobus, Garrett and Judy. If my eldest son shall endeavor to vacate or contradict this my will, he shall be excluded from all benefit. Witnesses, J. Mineveille, Johannes Kip, Johannes Kierstede, Samuel Bayard. Proved before Lord Cornbury, February 19, 1705/6.

I also leave her my negro girl "Celia." I leave to my daughter Ann all those 30 lots, being part of my farm in the Bowery, in the Out Ward of New York, and distinguished on said map as Numbers 130 to 145 inclusive, 150 to 156 inclusive, 177 to 183 inclusive, To her and her heirs and assigns forever. I also leave her my negro wench "Eva." I leave to my daughter Hester (wife of John Van Cortlandt) all those 30 certain lots distinguished on said map as Numbers 22 to 25 inclusive, 50 to 53 inclusive, 70 to 77 inclusive, 188 to 193 inclusive, 218 to 221 inclusive, 240 to 243 inclusive. And whereas I have given the said lots to my son-in-law, John Van Cortlandt, and my daughter Hester by deed, I hereby confirm the same. And whereas I have given to my daughter Judith (wife of Jeremiah Van Rensselaer) all those certain 30 lots marked on said map as Numbers 54 to 61 inclusive, 86 to 90 inclusive, 113 to 117 inclusive, 184 to 187 inclusive, 222 to 224 inclusive, 226, and 236 to 299 inclusive. Now for a further assurance I hereby confirm the same. All the rest of my houses and lands in the Out Ward, except as given herein, and also except a lot of ground lying in the Bowery in the Out Ward and adjoining the lands of Elbert Haring and Robert Benson, late deceased, which I have given by deed of gift to my son Stephen, I leave to my son, Nicholas Bayard, to him and his heirs and assigns. I leave to my son Nicholas my dwelling house and lot of ground situate on the southwest side of Wall street, as the same is occupied by him. Also both my Sugar houses in New York, and the utensils thereto belonging, the stock of sugar excepted. I also leave him my coach house and the lots whereon the said houses and buildings stand, and all my lots on the north side of Wall street. But he is not to have the said lots unless he doth within one year pay to my executors £1,500 for my dwelling house and £1,500 for the Sugar houses, Store house, Coach house and lots thereto belonging. I also leave to my son Nicholas my negro man "Robin." All the linnen which I had by my last wife in marriage, which may be known by the marks thereon, I leave to the children of my last wife, viz., Elizabeth, Ann, and Stephen. The rest of my household stuff I leave to my 4 children, Nicholas, Elizabeth, Ann, and Stephen. I have provided for my two daughters, Hester Van Cortlandt and Judith Van Rensselaer, with outsets at their marriage. The portions of my estate left to my children, Elizabeth, Ann, and Stephen, are to be under the management of my executors. All my debts to be paid out of the estate left to my children. I make my son Nicholas, and my sons-in-law, John Van Cortlandt and Jeremiah Van Rensselaer, and my brother, Samuel Bayard, and my nephew, William Bayard, executors. Dated September 18, 1762. Witnesses, Barent L. V. Beverhardt, Joshua Duley, Whitehead Hicks. Proved, December 30, 1765. Sir Henry Moore, Baronet, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Province of New York, To all, etc. Know ye that on the 30 day of December, 1765, before Goldsbrow Banyer the will of Nicholas Bayard was proved.

[NOTE.--Nicholas Bayard was the owner of the greater part of the "Bayard Farm," which forms so important a part of the lower part of the city of New York. It lay on both sides of Broadway, the eastern part being the "Bowery" mentioned in the will. Elizabeth street, Hester street, and Ann street (now Grand street) were named after the daughters. Nicholas Bayard was son of Samuel Bayard and Margaret Van Cortlandt, and was baptized August 28, 1698. He married, 1st, Elizabeth Rynders, daughter of Barent and Hester Rynders, and granddaughter of the famous Jacob Leisler. The children by this marriage were Judith, Hester, and Nicholas, baptized June 13, 1733. He married, 2d, Margareta Van Beverhout, and had children Elizabeth, Ann, and Stephen, baptized July 16, 1760. The "New York Gazette" contained the following notice: "On Thursday last (November 21, 1765), after a short Indisposition, died, at his Seat in the Bowery, Nicholas Bayard, Esq., for many years an eminent Merchant of this City. His Funeral was attended on Saturday by a great number of Gentlemen, his Acquaintances, Relatives, Friends, Tenants, and Domestic, and his Remains deposited in the Family Vault. His Loss is most regretted by those who knew him most." His son, Nicholas Bayard, had five daughters, Mary, wife of William Houston (after whom Houston street was named. He died March 13, 1813, and his wife died before, August 7, 1806). Catharine, wife of Robert C. Johnson, Eliza, wife of John H. Mackintosh, Ann L., wife of Nicholas S. Bayard, and Margaret, wife of Gerard Rutgers. The two houses and lots on the south side of Wall street are now Nos. 37-43 Wall street. They were 62 feet wide. In 1772 Nicholas Bayard sold them to Philip Livingston and others, as assignees, for £3,000. They were described as bounded east by Cornelius Sebring, south by the Old Dutch Churchyard, and west by John Croke. These lots in 1797 were bought by William Jauncey, and remained in his family till recent years. In 1835 these lots were Nos. 20-22 Wall street.--W. S. P.]

In her will, she wrote: ...I, Margaritie Bayard, wife of Nicholas Bayard, of New York, merchant, do make this my will." "Whereas the above named Nicholas Bayard and Margaritie Bayard (then Margaritie Beverhout), on the 2d of December, 1755, being before agreed to enter the holy estate of marriage, the same was accordingly solemnized, but previous thereto, they, the said Nicholas Bayard and Peter Winne, of Albany, and the said Margaritie Beverhout, widow, of New York, by certain Articles of agreement, bearing the same date, it was agreed that if the intended marriage should take effect, it was agreed that Nicholas Bayard should be entitled to all of her real and personal estate, and the same was conveyed to Peter Winne, by Deed of Lease and Release. And it was further agreed that the said Margaritie should have full power to make her will, and to give to her children £2,400, being part of her personal estate, which he, the said Nicholas, agreed to confirm, by paying that sum, and did bind himself in the sum of £4,800." I therefore leave the said £2,400 as follows: To my son, Barent Langemaght Van Beverhout, £800, when of age; to my daughters, Mary Beverhout and Margaret Beverhout, £800 each, when of age. I make my sons-in-law (step sons), Claudian and Johanes Van Beverhout, "who are half brothers to my said children," and my good friend, Johanes Pannele, of New York, merchant, executors. Dated, May 26, 1758. Witnesses, John Stout, Philip Ver Planck, Jr., Simon Johnson. Proved, October 29, 1770. The executors being out of the Province, Letters of Administration are granted to Anne Burke, of New York, spinster. Confirmed by Gov. Dunmore, October 29, 1770.

Peter Bayard was a nephew of Peter Stuyvesant.

Petrus Bayard became a convert to the doctrines of the Labadists, and moved to their colony in MD and was prominent there. In his old age, he withdrew from the community and returned to NYC. His wife was well versed in the Indian tongue, and was frequently an interpreter. She lived on the north side of Exchange Place, a little east of Broadway in New York City. On Aug 10, 1700, she obtained a large tract (5 tracts, bought from the Indians) of land in what is now Rockland County, near the Gore Line, in the present town of Ramapo. She improved the land and settled there. Upon her death, it was passed to her children, Petrus and Sarah. A patent was never obtained for the land.

Blandina Kierstede, h. v. Pieter Bayard, was listed in the 1686 Dominie Selyns list of members of the NYC Ref Ch. She was living on Broadway. Listed before her were: ...Isaac Stephensen, en syn h. Margareta van Veen; Lucas Andrieszen, en syn h. Aefje Laurence; Balthazar Bayard, en syn huysv. Marritje Loockermans; Mr. Gerrit van Tricht, en syn h. Maria van der Grift. Listed after her were: Rachel Kierstede; Jan Peeck en syn huysv. Lysbeth van Imburg; Gysbert van Imburg.; Tryntie Adolphus, h. v. Thomas Hooker; etc.<sup>3</sup>

As a widow, after receiving an Indian deed on 10 August 1700, Blandina (Kiersted) Bayard established an Indian trading post in Mahwah, Bergen Co., NJ, later run by her dau-in-law Rachel Bayard and her nephew Lucas Kiersted. The land deeded to her was considered at that time to be in New York state, and measured about 12 miles by 16 miles. It included Mahwah, Oakland, and Campgaw and parts of New York State.

In her will, dated 25 Sep 1702, probated 16 April 1711, Blandina Bayard of the city of New York, widow, mentioned late husband Petrus Bayard; eldest son Samuel Bayard; dau. Sarah; son Petrus Bayard. She appointed son Petrus Bayard, her brother Lewis Kierstede, and her friend Hendrick Van Bomel executors. Witnesses were Cornelius Lodge, Jacobus Bayard, Jacob Bloom. Petrus Bayard and Lewis Kierstede both being dead without having proved the will, Letters of Administration were granted to Rachel, widow of Petrus Bayard, and to Abraham Goesbeck who married Sarah Bayard, daughter of Blandina Bayard. The will abstract: I, Blandina Bayard, of the city of New York, widow. I leave to my eldest son, Samuel Bayard, £25. To my daughter Sarah all my wearing apparell of woollen and linen, and one of my beds and furniture and £12 in money to make her a silver tankard when she is of age or married. Whereas by a certain deed of Partition, made on the 13 day of June, 1699, between my eldest son, Samuel Bayard, and his heirs and assigns and myself, whereby I do in conscience judge before God he has had a sufficient part of the estate of his father, Petrus Bayard, my late husband deceased, therefore I have thought best to give all my estate, both real and personal, to my dear and well beloved son, Petrus Bayard, and to my dear and well beloved daughter, Sarah Bayard. I appoint my son Petrus and my brother, Lewis Kierstede, and my friend, Hendrick Van Bomel, executors, with full power to sell. Dated September 25, 1702. Witnesses, Cornelius Lodge, Jacobus Bayard, Jacob Bloom. Proved, April 16, 1711. And Petrus Bayard and Lewis Kierstede both being dead without having proved the will, Letters of administration are granted to Rachel, widow of Petrus Bayard and to Abraham Goesbeck who married Sarah Bayard, daughter of Blandina Bayard.<sup>1</sup>

Samuel Bayard m. **-?-

Samuel Bayard was a New York merchant who acquired a right to a portion of 100,000-acre tract of land purchased in 1695 from the Indians by Lucas Van Tienhoven and John Cornelius. Because of the tremendous size of the purchase, it was not confirmed by the Province, and the Indian deed was not recorded. In 1696, Samuel Bayard petitioned the government for the right to purchase "four Indian fields lying vacant and unappropriated in Orange County, known by the names of Wieremins, Peskeck, Gomagkie and Narasonk, being part of Luycas Van Tienhoven's Indian purchase." Bayard's petition was granted and, after Augustine Graham, Surveyor General of the Province had surveyed the 3000 acres in question, a patent was issued 17 June 1697 to Bayard. This tract was west of the Kakiat Patent.

In the NYC Ref Ch record of their marriage, they were: Samuel Bayard, j.m. Van N. Yorck, en Margareta Van Courtlant, j.d. Ut Supra, beyde woonende alhier.

Samuel Bayard was a merchant of New York City. Her father gave to them, a house and lot on the east side of Broad St, next to the house he had given to his dau (Ann ?) who had m. Stephen/Ettienne De Lancey (whose property later became Fraunces Tavern).

His will was written Apr 10, 1745, prov Jan 30 1746. In it he wrote: I, Samuel Bayard, of New York, merchant, being in perfect health, "and desirous to settle things in order." I leave to my son Stephen Bayard, all that my lot of ground and house thereon standing, wherein he now lives, being on the south side of Dock street, in New York, having to the west the house and ground of Abraham DePeyster, Esq., and to the east the house and ground of the heirs of Andrew Teller, and south to the Dock and wharf; Also all that my farm or plantation called Hoboken, with the right of Commonage thereunto belonging, lying in the township of Bergen, in New Jersey, with all the utensils of husbandry. I leave to my 2 grand children, Nicholas Van Dam and Margaret Van Dam, the children of my daughter Judith Van Dam, deceased, all that my corner house and lot of ground, in New York, on the west side of the street called Bergers Path, and on the south side of Duke street, and now in the possession of my son in law, James Van Horne. I give to my daughter Gertrude, wife of Peter Kemble, all that my house and lot of ground, lying in the city of New Brunswick, in East Jersey, bought by me from Geritt Onklebergh, and formerly belonging to Enoch Vreeland; Also my black ebony cabinet; Also £300. I leave to my son Nicholas Bayard all that my house and lot on the east side of Broad street, in New York, now in tenure of Robert Tod, between the houses of Stephen DeLancey, and the house of Philip Van Cortlandt. I leave to my son Samuel Bayard; all that my house wherein I now live in New York, with the lot of ground extending from Duke street to Princes street, with the store houses, yard, and stables; Also the house and lot adjoining lying on the south side of Princes street now in the tenure of Thomas Griggs; Also the garden and lane I now occupy lying on the north side of Princes street, between the houses of Daniel and Andrew Gautier, and runs back of both their yards. I leave to my daughter Margaret, wife of James Van Horne, all that my 2 houses and lots of ground by me bought from Jacobus De Kay, lying in New York, in the Dock ward, extending from Dock street to Duke street. I leave to my daughter, Anne Bayard, all that my house and lot lying on the north side of Wall street, by me bought from the children of Cornelia Norwood; Also a lot of ground lying on the north side of Wall street, bounded south by the street, east partly by Abraham De Peyster, and partly by my own land, north by the heirs of John Gornie, and Dirck Van Tuyl, and west by Abraham De Peyster, being 25 feet wide, and 122 feet long, and is called one lot, which is No. 5 on the map, which is annexed to an Indenture of Partition made June 3, 1718, between Colonel De Peyster and myself; I also give her £150 if she is unmarried at my decease. I leave to my son Samuel and my daughters Margaret and Ann, each £500. I leave to my 6 children 6/7 of all the rest of my estate, and 1/7 to the children of my daughter Judith Van Dam, deceased, viz., Nicholas and Margaret Van Dam. I make my wife Mary, sole executor. Witnesses, Josias Jeffery, Isaac Chordavoine, Anna, Margaret Eckers. Proved, January 30, 1745/6. [NOTE.--Samuel Bayard was one of the most important men of his time, and the representative of the well known Huguenot family. The house and lot "on the south side of Dock street," left to his son Stephen, is now No. 86 Pearl street. The corner house and lot left to Nicholas and Margaret Van Dam, is the south corner of Stone street and William street. The house and lot on the east side of Broad street, left to his son Nicholas, is next south of the famous Fraunces Tavern. The house and lot left to his son Samuel, is No. -- Stone street, and next east of the narrow lane called "Jews alley;" it extended through to Princes street (now Beaver street). The east part of South William street was opened through this lot and lots adjoining. The garden on the north side of the street was opposite to the above lot. The two houses and lots "extending from Dock street to Duke street," and left to Margaret Van Horne, are now No. 85 Pearl street, and No.--Stone street, in the rear. The lot on Wall street, "bought of the children of Cornelia Norwood," and left to Anne Bayard, is now No. 58 Wall street. The other lot, called "No. 5," is now on Wall street near Nassau street. Samuel Bayard married a daughter of Colonel Stephen DeLancey, who gave them the lot on Broad street.--W. S. P.]

William Bayard acquired land in the Kakiat Patent, some from his McEvers and Van Horn relatives (sometimes called Bayard Manor, New Scotland, and Tappan Farms); he also had tenants at Haverstraw and in the Manor of Cortlandt.

He was head of the House of William Bayard and Company and a prominent figure in the mercantile and political fields of his day.

He was of NYC and Bergen Co., NJ. He was a merchant and landowner; a New York boundary agent; and a justice of the peace in Bergen County in 1768. He was a grandson of Samuel Bayard, merchant of New York City, who in 1696/1697 petitioned the Provincial government and received the right to purchase four Indian fields, which later were known as the Bayard Patent, to the west of the Kakiat Patent.

He was a Loyalist and his estates were confiscated. He removed to England.

On 1 December 1784, Cornelius Haring, Commissioner, of Bergen Co., conveyed to Daniel Baldwin of New York City, for £800, 69 acres, corner to James Bogart; seized of William Bayard, late of Bergen Township, for joining the army of the King. Signed by Cornelius Haring. Witnessed by Peter Lozier (his mark), Sayer Crane.<sup>2</sup>

On 28 March 1788, Daniel and Phebe Baldwin, of Bergen Precinct, conveyed to Daniel Smith, of the same place, for £630, former land of William Bayard. Signed by Daniel Baldwin, Phebe Baldwin. Witnessed by John Outwater, John Smith.<sup>2</sup>
