

-- BERRY --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with citations.

Berry, John (Captain; Major)

John Berry
d. 1712

m.

Francina

A John Berry, of England, settled near the James River in Virginia, about 1626.

Captain John Berry was granted a large tract of land by Governor Carteret. He purchased in 1669 land extending from the Hackensack to the Saddle River (including the present site of Hackensack). In 1669, Gov. Carteret appointed Berry a member of the Council of East Jersey. In 1672 Gov. Carteret went to England and appointed John Berry Deputy Governor of New Jersey during his absence. In 1673, when the Dutch took New York, the rule of Dep. Gov. Berry was suspended.

In 1673 Berry probably moved to one of his plantations, and his home in Bergen became the prison of the Province. The keeper of the jail was Adrian Post.

John Berry was a member of Dep. Gov. Lawrie's Council until 5 October 1686 and continued to hold civic offices. On 20 April 1696 he donated one morgen (2-3/4 acres) of land for a church at Hackensack (on which was built the Hackensack Reformed Church).

On 20 April 1696, John Berry conveyed to the people of Hackensack, land for a church. Signed by John Berry. Witnessed by William Lawrence, Thomas Lawrence, Albert Terhune, Thomas Van Boskerk.¹

Berry was a judge of the court of oyer and terminer in 1674 and 1676; a Bergen County judge in 1675; a judge of the Court of Common Right in 1687. He was a justice of the peace in Middlesex Co., NJ in 1682. He was a captain of the Bergen County Militia from 1675-1681; a major of the Bergen County Militia in 1683.

John Berry was of New Barbadoes, Bergen County, NJ; his will was dated 16 May 1712 and proved 16 Feb 1714/15.

On 23 March 1712, John Berry, gentleman, of Hackensack, conveyed to the people of Hackensack, for good will, 2.75 acres formerly owned by Anthony Anthonson; line of Johannes Meyer and Dr. Johannes van Burgh [Van Emburgh]. Signed John Berry. Witnessed by Richard Edsall, Thomas Lawrence, Thomas Van Boskerk.¹

16 May 1712, Bergen Co., NJ, John Berry, will of. Children of son Richard Berry--Charity, Richard, Mary, Sarah and William; daughters Francina Lawrence and her children, Sarah Springham in Barbados, and her children, two sons of deceased granddaughter Mary by William Sandford, grandson Montieth Noell and children of grandson Richard Hall by Anne Evereugully (?). Land in Bergen County, at New Barbados; personal property. Executors--son-in-law Thomas Lawrence and wife Francina, with grandsons William Sandford, John Edsall and Samuel Moore as assistants. Witnesses--Yacob de Groot, Gerret de Groot, Thomas Lawrence. Proved 08 Feb 1714-15 (Liber I, p. 534).²

In the Brooklyn Ref. Church record of their banns, they were "Samuel Berry, young man born at Vlissingen, to Cathalyntje Martens, maiden born at Breukelen, with the consent, as far as I know, of Annetje Rappalje, the bride's mother."

Samuel Berry was on the assessment roll of Brooklyn in 1693 and the census list in 1698. He was one of the partners of his brother-in-law, Joris Ryerson, in the purchase of the large tract of land in New Jersey called the "Pacquanacc Patent." Samuel and Cathalyntie lived first in Brooklyn, then removed to New Jersey.
