

-- BOGERT, A-G --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Albert's father, Isaac Bogert came to the area of what is now First Avenue & Mill Street in Westwood, Bergen Co., NJ about 1765, and purchased an established grist mill, homestead farm, and other lands, which were inherited by Albert. During the Revolution, Gen. George Washington and his troops stopped at the mill for refreshment on the way from Tappan to Paramus 7 Oct 1780, after the execution of Major Andre.

The mill business was continued by descendants and the last building was destroyed by fire in 1910. It stood across the road from the homestead by the Musquapsink Brook, a site long known as Bogert's Pond. The homestead was replaced about 1852 by the house now at #2 First Avenue.

He is probably the same person as Cornelis Vos, and Cornelis Cornelisz alias Vosje, who appeared in the account books from 1642 to 1657. Jan. 29, 1649, Cornelis gent. vossngen (Cornelis, called vossngen) leases a farm ..."¹

On 3 Sep 1661, Cornelius' brother Gysbert sold or transferred his share of their father's estate in Schoonrewoerd to Cornelius in a quitclaim. This concerns one fourth interest in the family farm in Holland. The document is signed by "Cornelis Bogaert" (his mark) and his brother "Gysbert Cornelisz Bogaert" before Dirck van Schelluyne, Not. Pub. and it also names their parents, Cornelius Theuniszen Bogaert and Beeltje Cornelise. (Notorial Papers, Albany 1660-1696)

Dirckie Pieters died in 1665 and her estate was sold to pay her funeral expenses, after which Cornelis returned to Holland.²

Early Records of the City and County of Albany and Colony of Rensselaerswyck translated by Jonathan Pearson. Vol. 1 1656-1675, p 68, "The guardians over the estate left by Dirckjen Pieterse, deceased, wife of Cornelis Vos; propose at once to sell at public sale, some household stuff," the document written 6 Feb. 1665. Then on page 71, the administrators and guardians of the estate of "Dirckje Pieterse, deceased, late wife of Cornelis Vos," state on 12/22 March 1665 that the goods have been sold by the vendue master and they have been reimbursed by him," the administrators being Andryes De vos and Barent Pieterse. Direckjen Coeymans was sister to Barent Pieterse Coeymans.

Andries De Vos sold a lot on behalf of Cornelis Vos in 1667 when Cornelis returned to Netherlands.

CourtRecords of Albany, 18/28 April 1667 Albany. "We the undersigned, commissaries of Albany, etc testify and declare that on the date underwrittne, before us came and appeared Andries de Vos, father in law of Cornelis Vos..."

The following deeds probably refer to this Cornelius Bogert:

On 13 December 1762, Claes Romine, yeoman, of New Barbadoes, conveyed to Cornelius Bogert, merchant, of Paramus, New Barbadoes Precinct, for £700, 10 acres and 16 acres and 76.5 acres; mentioned line of David M. On 17 April 1772, Lawrence Van Boskerk and Abraham Van Boskerk, both of Werimus, in New Barbadoes Precinct, conveyed to Cornelius J. Witnessed by Cornelius Van Boskerk, Hendrick Hopper (his mark).¹

Cornelius J. Bogert bought in 1772 128 acres in the Weirimus Tract which had apparently been held in common by several Van Buskirk brothers. This lot had as its southern boundary what is today Mill Road in Saddle River.

David inherited about 1847 the Westwood mill and all lands of his father, Isaac.

David's great grandfather, Isaac Bogert came to the area of what is now First Avenue & Mill Street in Westwood, Bergen Co., NJ about 1765, and purchased an established grist mill, homestead farm, and other lands, which were inherited by his son Albert. During the Revolution, Gen. George Washington and his troops stopped at the mill for refreshment on the way from Tappan to Paramus 7 Oct 1780, after the execution of Major Andre.

Isaac A. Bogert inherited the family land and business of his father in 1833.

David Bogert was killed by a train in January 1872, while watching the workmen on the Midland line at Central Avenue in Hackensack.

The mill business was continued by descendants and the last building was destroyed by fire in 1910. It stood across the road from the homestead by the Musquapsink Brook, a site long known as Bogert's Pond. The homestead was replaced about 1852 by the house now at #2 First Avenue.

They were listed in the 1850 Federal Census, living in Washington Township: David Bogert, 50, farmer, value of real estate $10,000.; Hannah Bogert, 48; Isaac B. Bogert, 16, farmer; Margaret Bogert, 80; Harry Bogert, 23, black, laborer; Nancy Price, 25, black; Thomas Price, 6, black.
