

-- BUSH --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Conrad Bush came to the Upper Saddle River area in 1767.

About 1786 he purchased from the East Jersey Proprietors 124 acres in the Ramapo Tract in what is now Upper Saddle River. The remainder of the 305-acre Lot No. 183 of the Ramapo Tract was in New York State<sup>1</sup>. Sometime after 1797 he built a saw mill (now a residence at 556 West Saddle River Road); by 1813 he also had a grist mill operating. The Bush residence, which stood across the street from the mill is long gone.

Conrad is listed on the 1794 Hempstead (NY) tax list as a non resident.

Conrad's will ("of Franklin Township"), dated 9 May 1825, probated 1825, Hackensack (C: 97). The will mentions a saw mill and a grist mill and also mentions property in both New York State and New Jersey. Inventory (C: 349). Henry Bush, Peter S. Van Orden and Garret Smith were executors.

Hendrick Bos, from Leyden, with wife and 2 children came to New Netherland Dec. 1659 in the Faith. He was a swort cutler (sword cutler).

His house in New Amsterdam was on the north side of Peark Street, the second lot east from the corner of Broad Street. The lot next east of Fraunces Tavern was a water lot opposite the above, and was granted to the son, Albert Bosch, November 19, 1686. The descendants of Hendrick Bosch, or some of them, took the name of Bush.

In his will, Hendrick wrote: In the name of God, Amen. Be it known and manifest unto all People, that I, Hendrick Bosch, of New York, sword cutler, considering my great age and other bodily infirmities. I leave to the coheirs of my son, Albert Bosch, deceased, procreated by my first wife, Anna Maria Rembach, viz.: Jurian, Justus, Casparus, Albertus, and Anna Maria, wife of Mr. Marshall, of this city, taylor, the sum of 6 shillings to be equally divided among them, in full of any pretense to my estate, I declaring that I have heretofore, during the life of the said Albert, their father, sufficiently provided for him. I leave to my daughter Dorothea, procreated by my second wife, Maria Eshuysen, and now the wife of Isaac Kasperse, of Albany, 1 shilling, in full of her part, and that for and by reason of her stubborn and disobedient carriage towards me these many years. I leave to my daughter Hillegant, procreated by my second wife, and now the wife of Lodowyk Ackerman, 1 shilling, and this by reason of her stubborn and disobedient carriage towards me, these many years, and her scandalous and unclean way of living. I leave to my dear and entirely beloved wife Egbertie, all my estate, real and personal, with full power to sell or mortgage, without giving account to my children or any one else. After her death, what is left is to be divided by my sons, Hendrick, Samuel, and Joshua, and my daughter Cornelia, wife of Peter Cavalier, all procreated by my wife Egbertie, in four equal parts among them. But my son Hendrick is to have besides, the sum of ?£. 10s., as a gift for the particular service he has done for me some years past. I make my wife executor. Dated April 23, 1701. Witnesses, Gerardus Keteltas, Abraham Gouverneur. (Not proved.).

Jan Wouterszen & Annetje Arents immigrated from Ravensteyn Feb 1659 with their daughter Sophia, on the ship Faith.

Jan Wouterszen Van Den Bosch had been away in Connecticut for many years, and was unable to have his children baptized in the Reformed Dutch Church. When he returned, his daughter Sophia Janz Van Putten and her husband Gisbert Jans may have invited Jan Wouterszen to be a sponsor at the baptism of their daughter Heyltje. Jan Wouterszen took the opportunity to have his three children baptized. Putten must have been the name of the town in the Netherlands where she was born, just as Bosch was the name of the place where her father had been born.<sup>1</sup>

Jannetje Barents, Van Haerlem, m. 22 Feb 1659 NYC Ref Ch Jan Guisthout Van der Linden, Van Brussel.

In the 1663 marriage record they were: Jan Pieterszen, Van Goestorp, in Gulickerl; and she was Janneken Barents, Weduwe.

Jannetje made a voyage to Europe sometime during 1660. It is not known why she made the trip or if her husband accompanied her, however, on Jan 11, 1661, "Jannetjen Barentsen, widow of Jan Quisthout" is entered on the passenger list of the ship De Gulden Arent (Golden Eagle) which was sailing for America<sup>2</sup>. Her husband's death left her insoluble and on Aug 16, 1663 she filed a petition for a writ empowering her to surrender all claim to her late husband's estate in favor of his creditors. She mentioned an infant child in this petition. On 6 Sep 1663 the creditors waived all claims against her. She was named in her brother-in-law's will (John Harbardinck), who was married to her sister.<sup>1</sup>

She was married to Jan Pieterszen Bosch Van Goestorp on 20 Oct 1663 in Gulickerlant. In 1686 "Jan Petersen Bosch and Jannetje Barents, his wife" were living on Smith Street in New York City according to the Memorial History, City of New York, Volume 1, Page 451. Jan Pieterszen Bosch, Van Goestorp was born probably about 1639.<sup>1</sup>

Johannes Ter Bos (Bosch; Bush) removed up the Hudson some time after the death of his father between 1680 and 1685 and settled at Vis-kill, (Fishkill) on the Rombout Patent, Dutchess County, N. Y. The entire region was almost uninhabited. ...The village grew and the people prospered very largely through the very capable management of Madam Brett, after the death of her husband. Her maiden name was Catharine Rombout, daughter of Francis Rombout, one of the original Patentees. Dutchess County was established in 1683.<sup>1</sup>

In their marriage record at Kingston Dutch Church they were: "Johannes ter bos, j. m., born in Nieuw Yorck, en Lysbeth Henderixen, j. d., born in Kings Towne, both live at Vis-kill."

Johannes Bush appears as one of the few Freeman and a Tax Payer of Dutchess County in 1714, when the total number of inhabitants was only 447. Excepting Madam Brett, he was the largest Tax Payer in the South Ward; some years being assessed equal with her. As Mr. Johannes Tarbus, he was appointed one of the Commissioners who laid out the Albany Post Road. He was Dutchess County Treasurer in 1717/18 and was one of the County Justices as early as 1717-18. He was a commissioned Ensign in the 7th Foot Company, of the "Regiment of Militia in ye Counties of Ulster and Dutchess," April 21, 1693 and was a Major by 1720.<sup>1</sup>
