

-- CLUTE, CLOET --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

1665 April 20 . . . Fort Orange Records 1656 - 1678. Translated and edited by Charles T. Gehring. Published by Syracuse University Press. (page 120-121). Agreement for the purchase of land from the Indians opposite Claverack. Whereas Jan Cloet and Jan Hendricksen Bruyn and Jurriaen Teunissen have, at the session of the court of Albany, demonstrated consent at their request of the governor of New York to purchase from the Indians a certain parcel of land, lying on the west side of the North river opposite Claverack near Fort Albany, so there have appeared before me, the undersigned secretary of Albany, 5 Indians, named Sachamoes, Mawinata, nicknamed Schermerhoorn, Keesie Wey, Papenua, Masseha, owners of the above-mentioned land, and also having a commission from the other owners; who declared, in the presence of witnesses named below that they have sold, granted and conveyed the same, as they hereby do grant and convey in real and actual possession, to and for the benefit of the said Jan Cloet and Jan Hendericksz Bruyn, the said land called Caniskek, in magnitude stretching along the river side from the land of Pieter Bronk to the march which lies on the point of the mainland, behind Baren Island (located below Coeyman's Creek located in the village of Coeymans), called Machawameck, and running into the woods both on the south and the north and up to the Katskil path; and acknowledge that they have received from the buyers and are therewith completely paid; moreover they waive their former right to said land, and declare Jan Cloet and Jan Hendericksz to be the rightful owners thereof; and promise to free said land from all actions, claims and demands of other Indians, who might sinisterly lay claim to some portion of said land, or the right to set deer snares. Thus done in Albany in the presence of Harmen Bastiaensz and Henderick Gerritsz, called as witnesses hereto, on this 20th of April 1665. old style.
