

-- CRANKHEYT, KRONCKEYT --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Lois Cronk, alias Cronkhite, applied for pension in 1838 as the widow of John Cronk, alias Cronkhite, on account of his service in the Revolutionary War, it was alleged: he entered the service in the year 1776, served as Corporal in Captain Hicks' and Andrew Fink's Companies, Colonel Goose Van Schaicks New York Regiment; he was discharged at or near Newburgh, New York, in the year 1783. It was stated that he was in the Battle of Monmouth and Futaw Springs, that he was present at the execution of Andre and was "at the taking of Cornwallis". Pension was allowed for service of 3 years. On February 1, 1838 when Lois applied for pension her age is shown as 70 years, the date of her birth and name of her mother are not stated. She received her pension as late as March 1847.¹

Before the Revolutionary War he resided in Hoosick, Albany County, New York. He lived with his family on a farm in the town of Schaghticoke in that same neighborhood for many years and moved from there in the year 1810.¹

Veteran's widow resided in Pittston, Rensselaer County, New York, in 1838.¹

27 Jan 1795, John Cronkhite, of Easttown, served in war, illiterate [= signed with X], transfers to Aury Cronkhite, of Hoosack Town, lot 60-Lysander. Is identified as soldier in Hick's Co., Van Schaick's Regt. by Peter Vradenberg. [This was land in Onondaga County, NY, which John received as military payment.]

He is likely the John Cronkhite, fifer, listed in the roll and muster of the 8th Co., of Foot, 1st NY Regt., commanded by Col. Goose Van Schaick. He is shown as Jno. Cronk, 4th Co, 7 Nov 1777.
