

-- CROM --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Floris Willemse's name appeared on the Andros patent of New Lots in 1677. He moved to Tappan, NY at an unknown time (prob. betw. 1685 and 1687).

In his will, he wrote: 7 day of November, 1699. I, Florus Willemse Crom, of Orange County, being of good and perfect health, and desirous to settle things in order. I leave to my wife, Leyntie Aryansen Crom, all my estate, during life, and after her decease to my children, William, Aryan, Trientje, Guysbert, Mary and Dirck Crom, equally. My eldest son William is to have 40 shillings before any division. And I order and direct that my land, situate, lying, and being at Haverstroom, shall be laid out and divided in four distinct farms and plantations, and they shall be sold at a vendue, amongst my children, to the highest bidder, and the purchaser is to make due payment to the rest for their shares. And whereas I have allowed to my son William the use of a parcel of land at Haverstroom, he shall, after my decease, pay a reasonable rent for the same. I make my wife executor. Signed "Floris Willemse Krom." Witnesses, Hendrick Ten Broeck, Jaques Fosteyn, Samuel Bayard. Proved, June 29, 1706. [Note --Haverstroom is the original name of what is now Haverstraw, in Rockland County, N. Y. The Krom Patent granted to his father, William Krom, is the tract of land at Haverstraw lying between the road from Haverstraw to Stony Point and the Hudson river. A brook near the east part of that tract still bears the name of "Floris Falls."--W. S. P.]¹

Cornelia Bogert
dau. of Peter Bogert &
Fytje Flierboom
b. Harlem, NY
bp. 3 July 1687 NYC Ref Ch
d. before 12 Nov 1743

In the Tappan Ref Ch record of the banns and marriage for the first marriage, they were: "Gysbert Krom, j.m. born on the Bowery on the island of New York, and Aertje Hourte, j.d. born at Acquekenough. Married Nov. 5."

In the Tappan Ref Ch record of the banns for the second marriage, they were "Gysbert Crom widower born in the Bowery and living at Haverstrooj and Cornelia Bogaart born at Haarlem and living in Tappan."

In his will, he wrote: I, Guisbert Krom, of Haverstraw in Orange County, being in perfect health, do make this will the 20th of April, 1743. I leave to my eldest son Florus Krom, 10s. I leave all my houses, lands, pastures, meadows and all other estate, after the death of my wife Cornelia, to my four children, Lena, Florus, Peter, and Johanes. My wife Cornelia is to have the use of all estate during her life or widowhood, and I make her executor. Witnesses, Philip Ver Planck, James Ver Planck, John Ver Planck. Proved, November 12, 1743. The widow was then dead. This will was proved by Philip Ver Planck, Esq., before George Joseph Moore, and Letters of administration are granted to her eldest son Peter Krom, which is recorded in the Printed Book of Administrations, Page 119."

In his will, he wrote: ...September 29, 1743. I, Teunis Crom, of Tappan, in Orange County, farmer, being very sick. I leave to my wife, Jannetie, all household goods and the use of all lands and tenements during her life. After her death I leave all my lands and tenements to William Crom, eldest son of my brother, Floris Crom. I make my wife and Floris Crom executors. Signed by his mark. Witnesses, Cornelius Eckersens, John Prine, Johannes Ferdon. Proved before Henry Ludlam, Esq., February 24, 1743.

In her will, Yeantea Crum, of Orange County, being weak and low in body, the 10th day of May in the 17th year of King George II [1744]. After the payment of all debts I leave all estate to my dear and well-beloved son, Honnas Howencamp, son of Myndert Howencamp, excepting only my wearing apparel, and I order that to be divided among all my own sisters. And it is my will that as soon as my son Honnas is fit, that my executors "shall put him to an English School, and give him Good Learning, and after that to put him to such trade as he shall choose." If my son die, he shall be decently buried by my executors, and the property divided among my brothers and sisters. I make my honored father, John Buckhart, and Martinus Howencamp, and John Bruyn, Sr., executors. Witnesses, Mathias Conclen, Jacob Bookhart, T. Bloodgood. Proved, August 1, 1745.
