

-- DALY, DAILY, DALLY --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

Rev. Peter Daille came to America in 1682 sent out by the Bishop of London to work among the Huguenots. He was at one time professor at the University of Saumur and has been called the founder of the French Reformed Church in America. He came to Boston after thirteen years in New York where preaching was in Dutch and French to congregations in Manhattan, Staten Island, Long Island, Wiltqyck (Kingston), Rondout, and New Rochelle. In 1659 a New York congregation was organized and in 1682 Daille came and reorganized the church, stressing laymen (anciens) elected by the congregation. They with the pastor and lecteur or chanter formed the church government. Daille founded French churches in Hackensack, Staten Island, and New Paltz; also in 1688 the Marketfield Street Church (Petticoat). Pastor Daille served for nineteen years as pastor of the Boston church.<sup>1</sup>

He was the first minister of the Huguenot or French Protestant church in Boston, about 1686. He served as pastor of the French church in Boston from 1696 until his death, nineteen years later.

In the NYC Ref Ch record of the (2) marriage and banns, they were: Do. Petrus Dailia, Frausch Predict tot Boston, en Sytie Duycking, Wede. Van Willem Symonszen Block, d' Eerste woonende tot Boston, en tweede alhier.

Rev. Peter Daille was the minister of the French Huguenot Church, on Marketfield street, or Petticoat lane. The house in which he lived was on the south side of Oyster Pasty lane, about half way between Broadway and Greenwich street in NYC.

James Bowdoin was excor. of his will made 20 Apr. preced. in wh. is nam. his br. Paul Daille' Vaugelade of Amsfort in Holland.
