

-- DEMOTT --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

In the Hackensack record they were "Mattys DeMot, y.m. b. Kingstown in the Esopus, and Margrita Blinkerhof, y.d. b. Ackinsack." In the Bergen Ref Ch record of their marriage banns, they were: Mathys De Mot, Y.M., born at Kingstown, living at Bergen, and Margrita Blinckerhof, Y.D., living at Hackensack. Were married May 6, at Hackensack.

Mattys DeMott is said to have been a French Huguenot.

He was a blacksmith. They lived at or near Harsimus. Mattys or his sons settled in the English Neighborhood in the 17th century.

In 1706, William and Ann Day, of Bergen County, conveyed to Mathias DeMott, blacksmith, of same place, for £67. Signed William Day (his mark). Witnessed by Robert Sickels, John Pinhorne, David Provoost.¹

On 5 June 1714, Johann and Mary Thompson of Borgois [?], Bergen County, conveyed to Mathias DeMott, blacksmith, of the same place, for £200, 9.5 acres...line of Paulus Potter...land late of Thomas Fredericksen...13 acres, bounded on south by Hendrick Bartrim...1.5 acres... line of Herman Edwards, Hendrick van Orstrant and Arian Potetr...and 40 acres...between Garret Corteen and John Arents Toers. Signed by Johann Thompson, Mary Thompson (her mark). Witnessed by Samuel Bayard, Johann Garretson, David Jansen.¹

It is likely this "Maties DeMott, of the Township and Co. of Bergen, Gentleman" who dated his will 30 Dec 1755 (proved 8 June 1756). In the will he wrote: ...December 30, 1755. I, Meties De Mott, of Bergen County, in the township of Bergen, in New Jersey, Gent., being sick. I leave to my son, Michael De Mott, all the blacksmith tools for his birth right. I leave to my two sons, Michael and Joris, my dwelling house where I now live, and the barns, orchards, and meadows in Bergen and Hasimus. I leave to my son Hendrick the Plantation, with all improvements, where he now liveth in Morris County. I leave to my son Jacob the Plantation where he now dwells, with all improvements, "at the place called the English Neighborhood." I leave to my daughter Classie £160. To my daughter Antie £160 "if she shall leave an issue out of her body born, but if no issue, then it shall lye in the discretion of my 4 sons how that sum shall be divided." I leave to my daughter Maritie £200 and a negro wench. My sons Michael and Joris and my daughter Maritie shall have their outsetting before the estate is divided. I make my 4 sons executors. Witnesses, Jacob Van Winchel, Daniel Van Winchel, Reynier Van Giese. Proved, January 14, 1758.

An inventory of the personal estate was made 9 Nov 1757 by Machyel de Moedt, Henderyck deMoedt and Yocob de Mot, Executors, and appraised by Reynier van Giesen and Zacharias Sickels. The personal estate included gold coins, a silver cup, many bonds, and 6 negro slaves. 1757, Nov. 9. Inventory (much of it eaten away) of the personal estate, incl. a gold doubloon, £5.12; a gold St. Johanns, £24; 6 small plices of gold, £9; 6 negro slaves (young and old), £108.10; a silver cup, £4; many bonds; made by Machyel de Moedt (De Mott), Henderyck de Moedt and Yocob de Mot, Executors; appraised by Reynier van Giesen and Zacharias Sickels.

On 20 April 1756, Michael Demott, Hendrick Demott, and Joris Demott, executors of the will of Mathias Demott, all of Bergen County, conveyed to Jacob Demott, for £0.25. Signed by Michael Demott, Hendrick Demott, and Joris Demott. Witnessed by Abraham Sickels, Joseph Van Winkle, Peter Zabriskie.¹
