

-- DOREMUS --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Cornelius Doremus probably arrived in America between 1685-1687. He was a planter and he purchased in 1708 a 150-acre farm at Wesel, where he settled. In 1711 he bought an approx. 350-acre farm on Wesel Mountain, where his son, Thomas, settled.

Cornelis was a farmer and in 1708, he purchased an extensive farm at Wesel [now Paterson], containing one hundred and fifty acres lying on the north side of the Wesel drift way (now widened and straightened, and known as Crooks avenue), and extending from the river to the mountain, having a width of about ten chains, and containing about one hundred and fifty acres. This is now in the extreme southeastern and southern section of the city of Paterson. Cedar Lawn cemetery now covers part of the farm; Lake View a larger portion, and South Paterson still another part.¹

In 1711 "Cornelius D'Oremus" joined with seven of his neighbors in purchasing from Peter Sonmans, one of the East Jersey Proprietors, a tract described as containing 2,800 acres, but actually much more, on the Wesel mountain, extending from the steep rocks at the Falls to the headwaters of the Peckamin river, where now is the village of Cedar Grove. The deed bears date Nov. 27, 1711, and the consideration was £660 New York money, besides a yearly quit-rent of "one peppercorn if lawfully demanded." The grantees were Frans Post, Jan Sip, Harmanus Gerritse (Van Wagenen), Thomas Jurianse (Van Riper), Christopher Stymets, Cornelis D'Oremus, Pieter Poulusse and Hessel Pieterse, all yeomen.¹

In his will, dated 28 Jan 1714-5 Weesel, Essex Co., NJ, he wrote: I, Cornelus Deremus, "Human" (yeoman); mentioned Wife Jannece and son Cornelus executors of real and personal estate; other children--Johannes, Thomas, Jannece, George and Hendrick. Plantation at Aquecanund. Witnesses--Jno. Bradbery, Hendrick Gerretson and John Berry. Proved 08 Feb 1714-5.

He probably them removed to a farm served by his wife from her father, at Haledon, the homestead of the late Robert Bridge, and lived there until 1796. He may have kept a public House for a few years on this tract. Having sold the far., 24 April 1801, he returned to Preakness, He bought from William Colfax, 20 Jan 1809, for $300, a tract of 30 acres of woodland, near the present quarry on the new High Mountain road; he sold 20 acres of the tract to his brother-in-law Theunis T. Ryerson, 28 Jan 1811, for $200.¹

On 30 Dec 1802 (recorded 6 Sep 1803, Bergen Co. R:51), John H. Doremus of the Township of Saddle River, and Nancy (Aney elsewhere in deed), his wife, to John Moffat of same place, for $200, a parcel on east side of a mountain called bare [Care?] in the Township of Saddle River; beginning corner of Daniel Heddens Old Saw Mill lot, lot of land where said John Moffat now lives. 16 acres. Also lot in Township of Saddle River beginning middle of New Road that leads from the Pompton Road to the Ponds at a corner of Daniel Heddens Bark Mill lot; line of widow Elizabeth Van Blarcom. 60/100 acres.
