

-- GARRISON, GERRETSEN --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Garretson/Garritson/Garrison/Gerretsen — these different spellings are here alphabetically grouped as though spelled the same.

Gerritszen patronymics:

Hendrick Gerritszen (m. 1673 NYC Ref Ch, Marritje Waldron) See: Blauvelt
Jan Gerritsen.....Borger
Joch. Gerritsen.....Borger

One "Gerritsen" emigrant was Gerrit Gerritse of Wageningen. Some of the descendants took the surname Van Wagenen, while others retained the patronymic Gerritse/Gerretsen/Garrison.

Another early "Gerritsen" was Gerrit Lubbertsen, son of Lubbert Gysbertsen. Gerrit Lubbertsen's sons "froze" the patronymic "Gerritsen" and were in later generations known by the surname Gerritsen/Garrison. (Another of Lubbert Gysbertsen's sons, Jan Lubbertsen, left "Jansen" children who about 1700 began calling themselves Van Blarcom after the family's onetime home in the Netherlands. Macy, Harry, Jr., "Gerritsen-Garrison, Van Wicklen, Hardenbergh, Wiltzie: Descendants of Gerrit Lubbertsen of Jamaica, L.I." in NYG&B Record, July 1985, p. 161

Two other early "Gerretsen" brothers, Bernardus and Gerret, son of Samuel Gerretse and Ida Ryders of Gravesend, assumed the surname "Verbryck."

Another of the [Acquacknonk] patentees was Gerrit Gerritse (Garrison), from the ancient town of Wagenigen, on the banks of the Rhine in Gelderland, in the province of New Netherlands. It was from this quaint town in Holland that Gerit Gerritse and Annetje Hermansse, his wife, with one child Gerrit, two years old, set sail, arriving at New Amsterdam, December 23, 1660. He immediately settled in Bergen. He took the oath of allegiance to King Charles II. of England, Nov. 26, 1665. At the time of the recapture of New Netherlands by the Dutch he was constituted one of the schepens of Bergen. The patentee never settled at Acquackanonk, but always remained at Communipaw. His third son and fourth child, Hermanus, named after his mother's father, which was the origin of the name in this vicinity, was baptized March 10, 1667, and married Annetje, daughter of Waling Jacobs (Van Winkle). Through this marriage they came into possession of a large landed interest in Acquackanonk. The old homestead was opposite the drawbridge at Passaic. Hermanus Gerritse was elected deacon in the Acquackanonk church in 1698 and 1702, and elder in 1708-15, 1727-32.

Hendrick, the fourth son and sixth child of Gerrit and Annetje (Hermansse) Gerritse, baptized Oct. 25, 1675, married Margrietje Straatmaker, April 3, 1701. He was also a deacon and elder in the Acquackanonk church. He probably lived at Wesel, and is the party referred to in 1761 as the owner of the grist and saw mill then standing at the foot of the present Mulberry street, Paterson. He wrote his name Hendrick Gerritse, which, modified into Garrison, has been retained by his descendants.

Johannis, the fifth son and seventh child of Gerrit and Annetje (Hermansse) Gerritse, born Jan. 11, 1678, married Catlynje Helmigse (Van Houten) Nov. 4, 1703. He was also a deacon and elder in the Acquackanonk church.

Of the third generation of the Garrison family of the male issue of Gerrit and Neeltje (Pieterse) Gerritse, Pieter, born Oct. 4, 1684, married (first) Vrouwtje Hesselse, (second) Antje Aeltse; Gerrit, baptized March 20, 1687, married Marietje Gerbrants; Johannis, baptized Feb. 22, 1693, married Margrietje Sip. These three sons were connected with the Acquackanonk church, serving as deacons and elders. Abraham, another son, baptized Feb. 2, 1695, married Rachel Hesselse, March 14, 1719. His father and mother conveyed to him a small lot in Acquackanonk. He purchased large tracts of land in the Pompton district, where he appears to have settled.

Of the children of Hermanus and Annetje (Van Winkle) Gerritse, Cornelius married Claesje, daughter of Hessel Pieterse and lived at Riverside.

The sons of Pieter and Vrouwtje (Hesselse) Gerritse were called by their acquaintances "Pietem's Gat," "Pietem's Piet," and "Pietem's Hans." The first named, by reason of his obstinacy, was likewise called Spijker-kop Gat or "Nailheaded Gat." This family settled on the sloop side of the river and, as tradition states, owned extensive tracts of land on the east side of the river, which was divided into lots. The first lot was somewhat north of the Wesel bridge; lot No. 2 began at the Van Horn Cemetery; lot No. 3 extended to the Broadway bridge; lots Nos. 4 and 5 were divided between the three sons of Peter. This division did not suit "Spijker-kop Gat," when he justified his peculiar cognomen by declaring that he would not be called by the same name as the rest of the family, and accordingly he took the name of Van Wagoner.

By his second marriage with Antje Aeltse, Pieter Gerritse was the father of five children, the only son being Gerrebrant, born Sept. 21, 1723. He was deformed, being small in size and crooked; he remained a bachelor until an advanced age, when he married a Van Ripper.

Hendrick Gerritse, who always signed his name Henery Gerritse, was the son of Henry and a grandson of Hendrick and Margrietje (Straatmaker) Gerritse, and born August 7, 1727, and married Catherine Paulussen. He lived in a stone house on the west side of the river, just north of road leading to the Erie railroad station at Clifton. He took an active part in the Revolution, was one of the representatives of Essex county in the Provincial Congress, and was the first member of the legislature from Acquackanonk, serving for several terms.

Of the fourth generation of the family, the elder son of Gerrit Hermanusee, (who signed his name Gerrit Van Wagening) and Annetje (Sip) Gerritse, Hermanus by name, was born Feb. 4, 1717. He married, Dec. 29, 1741, Geertruy Van Houten, of Totowa. He lived at the Notch, and wrote his name Harremanis Van Wagenen. Johannis, another son, born Nov. 18, 1728, occupied the old Van Wagoner homestead at the Passaic bridge. He died unmarried, the property reverting to his brother. Hermanus Van Wagening by will devised to his eldest son Garret his farm at the Notch, and to his other son Ruleff, a farm near the Passaic drawbridge, also his weaving loom and wheelwright's tools. Henry, the son of Henry and Catherine (Paulussen) Gerritse, was baptized at Hackensack, Feb. 12, 1749. He was appointed by the legislature to the office of collector of Essex county in 1781. He was an active business man in various lines and was often selected by his neighbors to attend to their affairs while living and to administer upon their estates after their death. In his will dated Nov. 9, 1809, he devises all his real estate in Acquackanonk to his second wife, Annaatje (Hannah) Lisk, widow of Marynus Gerritse. He left one son, John H. Gerritse, who he states was amply provided for by his paternal grandfather. Hendrick G. Gerritse, who wrote his name Henry G. Gerritse, married Annaatie, daughter of Marinus Van Winkle. The issue was four sons: Garret, Marinus, John, and Abraham.

In the sixth generation of the family, Roelof Van Wagoner married Saertje (Sarah) Jurians. They had one child, Hermanus, born May 8, 1795, who married Jane Edsall, Dec. 17, 1812. During the War of 1812 he joined the American army at Sandy Hook, caught the camp fever, and died there in the fall of 1814 at the age of nineteen years. In the seventh generation of the family a grandson of "Spijker-kop Gat," Gerret G. Van Wagenen, lived at Sloopdam and married Helena, daughter of Rev. Henrius Schoonmaker, pastor of the Acquackanonk Church. A son by this marriage was Cornelius Schoonmaker Van Wagoner, born July 8, 1798, for many years the leading surveyor of Paterson. He was the father of Isaac Van Wagoner, a prominent lawyer, surrogate of Passaic county, 1870-75, also of Garret Van Wagoner, a judge of the courts in St. Louis, Missouri, for many years, and of Mary A., wife of Abraham A. Fonda, city surveyor of Paterson. Another son of Gerret G. and Helena (Schoonmaker) Van Wagenen was Garret, born August 15, 1805, judge of the Passaic county courts, 1866-71, and member of the Assembly in 1865-66.

In the church records the surname of the same person was entered sometimes Gerritse and sometimes Van Wagenen, occasionally with and more frequently without a distinguishing middle initial. The old Dutch people were persistent in trying to keep certain names in the family; it is not unusual to find three children, one after another, given the same baptismal name, the first and second having died.

In the (1) marriage record they were: Barent Gerritszen, Van Swol in Overyssel, en Grietje Dircks, Wede. Van Jan Nagel. In 1660 They lived on Hoogh (High) St. By 1661, they were in Brooklyn.

Barent was a tailor. He was one of 22 men selected to establish Bushwyck in 1660. He was a drummer in the militia 1662, poor master in 1664, magistrate 1665, constable 1667. In 1671 Barent made a gift deed for his children by Grietje which noted her poor health. She probably died soon after. Grietje's father, Dirck Volkertsen, was one of the guardians for the children. Barent and his second wife, Marritje, moved to the Dutch settlements in Delaware about 1676 but had returned to New York by 1683 where they were living with Femmetje and her husband. Then they returned to Bushwyck. Grietje's first husband was Jan Harmensen Schutt and their child, Fytie bp. 23 Apr 1651 NY m. Jan de Consiely. Willem Arentszen 15 July 1677 NY.²

In the (2) record of their marriage intentions, they were: Barent Gerritszen Van Swoll, Wedr. Van Geertje Dircks, en Marritje Hendricks, j.d., Van Amsterdam.

In his will, he wrote: 20 September, 1701. I, Barent Garrettsen, of Flaesbeeck, in the town of Boswyck, in Kings County, "taylor," being of perfect health and full understanding. I leave to my dear wife Marettie Hendrix, all estate for life, with full power to sell or dispose of all personal estate as she shall think fit, except my great cupboard, my great copper kettle, my silver tumbler, and iron chain or Pot hanger, which I have formerly given to my son in law, Henricus De Forrest. After my wife's decease, I leave all my estate to my son in law, Henricus De Forrest, and he shall pay to my daughters, Margaret and Sarah Barents, each £5. I make my wife and son in law executors. Signed, Barent Flaesckbeek. Witnesses, Jan Doris, Jacob Thibon, Brinaldus De Hart, Samuel Bayard. Proved, April 9, 1708. Henricus De Forrest confirmed as executor, the wife Marettie, being dead.¹

[Gerritsen] Van Oldenburg, Gerret Jansen (alias De Mof = De Mof, a derogatory term meaning the German)

m.

Clara Matthys

d. about 1661 New Utrecht, L.I.

The family began to use Gerritsen as a fixed surname in the late 17th century.¹

A lease from Barent Dirckszen to Gerrit Jansen and Volckert Evertsen of the farm called Walensteyn. Gerrit Jansen was from Oldenborch, Germany (in July 1632 he was foreman for Kiliaen Van Rensselaer on farm #2 in Manhattan. dated 18 May 1639. -- Bond of Gerrit Jansen from Oldenburg to Jonas Bronck -- This day, date underwritten, before me, Cornelis van Tienhoven, secretary of New Netherland for the Chartered West India Company, appeared in presence of the undersigned witnesses Gerrit Jansen van Oldenborch, who acknowledged that he was well and truly indebted to Mr. Jonas Bronck in the sum of one hundred Carolus guilders, reckoned at 20 stivers the guilder, arising from a certain agreement which the said Mr. Bronck made with Clara Mattys at the city of Amsterdam. [Gerrit Jansen] hereby promises to tender and pay the aforesaid money free of costs and charges, without any gainsay, in two instalments, to wit: between this date and the first of May 1640, fifty Carolus guilders, and before the first of May 1641, Gerrit Jansen meanwhile to incur the risk of death or other mishap thereof. For all of which he, the appearer, binds his person and property, movable and immovable, present and future, without any exception, submitting the same to all lords, courts and judges within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Court of Holland and to all other lords, courts, judges and justices; all in good faith. Without guile or deceit, this is signed by Gerrit Jansen above named. Done this 21st July 1639, in Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland.²

"Clara Matthysdr. housemaid" was on the ship Brant van Troyen (Fire of Troy) which sailed from the Hoorn after April 1639, and arrived New Amsterdam before 16 June 1639.³

The family settled in New Utrecht, L.I.

[Van Blarcom; Gerritsen] Gerrit Lubbertsen

Gerrit Lubbertsen m. son of Lubbert Gysbertsen* &
 Divertje Cornelis

b. abt. 1639 prob at Fort Orange (Albany)

In 1687 Gerrit Lubbertsen took the oath of allegiance as a native of the province, being then a resident of Flatbush. He probably came to Flatbush when his mother remarried, and on 12 Dec 1660 purchased a farm there. He eventually made his home in the New Lots section of Flatbush. He appears on the 1675 and 1683 Flatbush assessment rolls.

Gerrit bought and sold land at Flatbush 5 Apr 1690, but probably moved to Jamaica in the same year.

In the Bergen Ref Ch record of their marriage and banns, they were: Hendrick Gerritsen, Y.M., and Margrieta Straetmaker, Y.D., both living at Bergen.

Hendrick was a deacon and elder in the Acquackanonk Church. He probably lived at Wesel and owned in 1761 a grist and saw mill then standing at the foot of the present Mulberry Street in Paterson.

He and his children prob. used the surnames of Van Wagenen, Gerretse, and Garrison. Apparently most of his descendants adopted the surname Garrison.

The will of "Hendrick Gerretse, of Acquackanong Precinct, Essex Co., yeoman" was dated 9 Sep 1743, proved 20 Nov 1758 (NJ Lib G, p. 19). In it he mentioned wife, Margeriet; children, Garret, John, Cornelius, Henry, Abraham, Gesie (wife of Marinus van Winkell), Antie (wife of Jurie Pieterse), Janetie (wife of Adrian Post), Margret, and Lena (wife of Thomas Jurianse or Thomas van Ripe). The will mentions real and personal estate. Executors named were the wife and 5 sons. Witnesses were John Low, Abraham Low, Cornelius Low, minor.¹

In the Albany Ref Ch record of the (1) marriage, they were: With L., at bride's father's. Johannes Gerritsen, y.m., and Christina Pruyn, y.d., both b. and l. at Albany.

In her will, she wrote: 19 day of September, 1745, I, Maria Gerritse, widow of Jan Gerrittse, of Albany, "being old in age and considering the briefness of life, and desirous to set all things in order." My funeral charges are to be paid out of a bond which I have against Peter Fonda, of Albany. I leave to my eldest son, Adam Vanderbergh, £1 as eldest son. I leave to my daughter Anna, wife of Adam Yates, a certain piece of ground to the west of the path leading to the Patroons mill, being part of the land where I live and which I improve, Bounded south by the land of my said daughter Anna and my daughter Maria, and is 20 feet wide on the street and 10 feet in the rear, and to run west to the extent of my land; I also leave her my Bible and my best large kettle. I leave to my daughter Maria, wife of Wessell Van Schaick, a part of my land where I now live with the house and buildings, bounded north by the land of my son, Cornelius Vanderburgh, and is 40 feet wide on the street, and the same in the rear and 12 rods in length, Rynland measure; And she shall pay to my son Cornelius £25, and to my daughter, Anna Yates, £15; I also leave her my Great Looking glass. I leave to my son, Adam Van der Bergh, my land situate between the lot left to my daughter Anna and the lot left to my daughter Maria, bounded east by the street and to extend west as far as my land extends; Also my Great silver cup. I leave to my son, Cornelius Van der Bergh, and my daughter Maria, all the land in the rear of the lot I left to her, and back of the land of my son Cornelius and Abraham De Freest. I leave to my son Cornelius a silver spoon formerly belonging to Margaritie Ten Broeck. I leave to my daughters Anna and Maria, 3 silver spoons and a small silver cup; Also a bond due to me from Peter Fonda, and all my clothes. I leave to my sons, Adam and Cornelius Van der Bergh, all my bedding except 8 sheets, which my daughters are to have. I leave to my 2 sons and 2 daughters all my share of the estate of my mother, Anna Van Woert, and all the rest of my estate. I make my son Cornelius and my daughter Maria, executors. Witnesses, Thomas Sharpe, James Sharpe, John Schuyler. Proved, June 24, 1748.

Mary -?-

(widow of Nathaniel Britain)

In April 1715 Nathaniel Britain deeded one acre to his mother, Mary, who according to a note in the margin of the deed "is now the wife of Lambert Garrison" (Richmond Co. Deeds B:604).

In his will, he wrote: October 7, 1723. I, Lambert Garrison, of Staten Island, being very sick. I leave to my wife, Mary, a bed and furniture for the same, a woman's saddle, and one-half of all household goods, and £20. I leave to my eldest son, Lambert, 5 shillings. Considering what I have done for my daughter Susanah, I give her £5. I leave all the rest of my estate, houses, and lands, to my children, Lambert, Charles, Nicholas, Isaac, Jacob, Catharine, and Elizabeth; and to my grandsons Daniel and Nathaniel, sons of my son Daniel, deceased. From these lands are excepted "that land which belongeth to the two eldest sons of Barent Christophers, which is in the bounds of my Patent, and belongeth not to me." "I will that the burying place on my land shall continue for a burying place for my posterity forever." I make my brother Segar Garrison, and my sons Charles and Nicholas, executors. Witnesses, Elias Barger, Susannah Barger, Segar Garrison. Proved, May 22, 1725.

19 Sep 1665 -- Timotheus Gabrie, pltf. v/s Otto Gerrits, deft. Defts. 3rd default. Pltf. demands from deft. the sum of fl. 190. 2. according to a/c. Deft's guardians, to wit Hendrick Obe and Bartel Man appearing request, that pltf's. summons be declared null and void, as the deft. is a minor and under their guardianship, and if he had any claim against deft., he should have spoken to his guardians etc. Pltf. says, the debt is partly incurred by the deft. in person; he therefore did not speak to any other person, but him. The aforesaid guardians answer, that the debt is truly incurred in part by deft., but that he was then under their care; but that the principal debt was incurred by the defts. deceased father Gerret Hendricks. They propose, that the pltf. should come in concurrently with the other creditors. The Mayor and Aldermen having heard the pltf. and defts. guardians, order pltf., if he have any claim against the deft., to speak to his guardians about it, as deft. is under age and is still under the tutelage of guardians.¹

In the marriage record, they were: "Otto Gerritszen, j. m. Van Zutphen, en Engeltje Pieters, j. d. Van N. Yorcke."

[Gerretsen], Gerrit Segers

Gerrit Segers [Gerretsen] m. -?-

Gerrit Segers was a young soldier in New Amsterdam in 1646. He was found in Albany and later still in Gravesend and New Utrecht. He was not a part of the Cornelis Segerse van Voorhout family.

Gerrit Segers' children used the name Garrison, but for some unknown reason, two of his grand children used the surname Segers. The history of his descendants was complicated by the fact that some of them took the surname Segers others took Garrison/Gerritsen.¹
