

-- HALL --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

On 15 Nov 1639, Thomas Hall, with Geo Homs, had a Dutch grant for land at Deutel Bay on Manhattan Island, near the foot of 30th Street, East River. On 21 Sep 1640, Thomas Hall conveyed half of the 'house' and plantation at Deutel Bay (to whom is not mentioned). He may have removed to the Gravesend area of Long Island.

In the NYC Ref Ch record of their marriage banns, they were: Thomas Halen, j.m. Van Clocester, en Anna Milfort Van Bristol, Wede. Van Willem Cuyck.

In an 'Answer to the Representation of New Netherland' by Cornelis van Tienhoven, 1650, ...[in his list of] some descriptions of the persons who have signed the remonstrance, he included...Thomas Hall came to the South River in 1635 in the employ of an Englishman, named Mr. Homs, being the same who intended to take Fort Nassau at that time and rob us of the South River. This Thomas Hall ran away from his master, came to the Manhatans and hired himself as a farmer's man to Jacob Van Curlur. Becoming a freeman he has made a tobacco plantation upon the land of Wouter Van Twyler, and he has been also a farm-superintendent; and this W. Van Twyler knows the fellow. Thomas Hall dwells at present upon a small bowery belonging to the Honorable Company.<sup>1</sup>

From: Register of the Early Settlers of Kings County, Long Island New York, page 144: George Holmes with 12 or 13 persons, besides his hired man Thomas Hall, all English from Connecticut, undertook in 1635 to make a settlement in the Dutch territory on the Delaware, making an attack on Fort Nassau which failed, they being made prisoners by the Dutch and carried to Manhattan, as per p. 40 of Hazard's Annals of Pa. (see also p. 127 of Vol. IV. of the Genealogical Record), where most of them remained and settled. He probably with other English settlers at N. A. followed Lady Mody to Gravesend.

Thomas Hall and his wife Anna Mitford lived in the Beaver Street area, facing the East River which overlooks the Brooklyn Bridge. He was a tobacco planter.

They apparently had no children.

In the Name of God, Amen, know all men that on the 31st day of August, 1669, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Anna Medford, widow of Thomas Hall, did appear before me, Nicholas Bayard, Esq., Secretary of the Worshipfull Mayor's Court, being sickly and weak in body." She leaves all her estate to the two cousins of her deceased husband Unfree Underhill and Mary Underhill, wife of Richard Hicks. She makes free her negro man named Frans, on account of his true services, and the desire of her late husband, and gives him "a small parcel of ground lying about the Great Kill, on the Island of Manhattan." Makes Cornelius Steenwyck, Johanen Van Brugh, and John Lawrence "Old Aldermen of the City," executors. Witnesses, Lambert Huyberts Moll, Abm Ver Planck, Warner Wessels. Thomas Dongan, Lieutenant - General and Governor. To all, etc. Know ye that at a Court of Record, held in New York, on Tuesday, April 5th, the will of Anna Medford was proved, and Humphrey Underhill, being next of kin, was made administrator. April 11, 1687 (or 1 April 1687?).
