

-- HARING, H-Z --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with citations.

H.S. Ackerman wrote that Jan Pieterse Haring came to America with his father, Pieter Jansen 15 Apr 1660 on the Spotted Cow.

Grietje Cosyns had previously married, 19 Apr 1654, Harmen Theunisz of Zell, in Munsterlant, and had a daughter, VROUTJE, bp. 24 Feb 1658 NYC Ref Ch (wit: Cozyn Gerritszen, VROUTJE Cozyns, Tryntje Grevenraedt).

6 Sep 1655 -- Hendrick Pietersen, pltf. v/s Grietie Cosyns, deft. Pltf. says, deft. made use of his horse, and rode thereon, and also let it stray in the woods. Requests, that she be condemned to search for the horse and deliver it to him when found, at her own expense. Deft. says, pltf's horse broke into her buckwheat and as she wished to lead him from her land she sat on him and brought him to the Fresh Water, to prevent any further damage. Maintains that she is not bound to satisfy pltf's demand. Parties being heard, it was decided by the Court, that the deft. was justified to bring the horse from her land to prevent damage. Wherefore pltf's demand herein is dismissed.⁶

Grietje was a "widow of New Amsterdam" when she married, as her second husband, Jan Pieterse Haring.

Jan Pieterse Haring and Margrietje Cosyns, his wife, lived on a 100-acre farm adjoining his father-in-law, Cosyn Gerritsen (who was a prominent farmer and wheelwright), in the settlement called the Bouwery in New Amsterdam. The farm extended from the Bouwery Lane westward to beyond Bedford St., both sides of Broadway.

"Jan Pieterszen Haring" joined the NYC Reformed Church 28 Oct 1668.

On 2 Oct 1674 "Jan Pietersen Haring" was a schepen (magistrate) in Haerlem.³ Jan Pietersen Haring "both in 1673 and 1674 - when the Dutch briefly regained control of New Netherland from the English - was elected a 'schepen', or public official, for the Out-ward."⁴

2 Oct 1674 -- From the nomination made by the Outside People beyond the Fresh Water, the W: Court, with the approbation of the Honble. Governor General have elected and confirmed as Magistrates for the ensuing year:--Jan Pietersen Haaring, Adriaan Cornelissen, Old Schepens, Jacob Pietersen de Groot, Wolphert Webber, New Schepens

He was one of the chief promoters in the purchase of the Tappan Patent in what is now Rockland County, NY, and owned one of the largest shares (3/16ths) in that enterprise. Jan Pieterse Haring did not live to settle on the Tappan land, but his wife and four sons took up his shares and founded the prolific family to follow. The Harings settled in what was called the "Old Tappan" part of the patent, later in New Jersey when the state line divided it approximately in half.

"Jan Pietersz Haring [of New Netherland] was present in Hoorn, Netherlands on May 25, 1680 when the Hoorn notary Cornelis Nopper wrote his notarial deed. This deed concerned the inheritance of Ariaantje Claas, widow of Cornelis Pietersz Metselaar, a brother of Jan Pietersz Haring who was one of the successors." A metselaar is a brick layer. A "successor" in this sense means that JPH was one of his brother's heirs.⁷

After Jan Pieterse Haring's death, Grietje Cosyns married (3) 4 March 1685 NYC Ref Ch, Daniel de Clerq (DeClark; De Klerck), widower of Marie deMoll.

John and Maria were first cousins.

On 2 April 1788, Cornelius Haring sold the Mahwah, Bergen Co., NJ property to his older brother, Judge John Haring. John Haring was a staunch rebel during the Revolution. He was delegate to the Continental Congress, and in June 1788 he was at the New York State convention to deliberate the acceptance of the proposed constitution of the United States.

In order to run for office in New York State (his father's farm had recently been declared to be in New Jersey at the settlement of the New York/New Jersey boundary dispute), John built a house over the state line in New York. John Haring was defeated in 1769 at the age of 30 in his bid for election to his father's seat in the New York State Assembly. He was appointed a few months later as a trustee of Queen's College.

His education qualified him to be a surveyor and a lawyer. He was appointed an Orange County Judge in 1774.

In August 1774 John Haring and Henry Wisner were elected delegates from Orange County to the First Continental Congress in Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia. He was later a member of all four New York Provincial Congresses. He also was a member of the Second Continental Congress.

John Haring of Orange Town, in his will dated Dec. 19, 1808, probated Apr. 8, 1809. mentioned Wife, Mary, one bedstead with the beds, bed cloths, etc, and my negro woman slave Abigail, also $800; Sons, Samuel, Elbert - land in Cayuga County, Nicholas Lansing - land in Cayuga County, and John Bogert; Daus., Maria, Elizabeth, and Margaret. Executors: Richard Blauvelt, and Samuel G. Verbryck.

[2] Newspaper article sent to Regina Haring from Carolyn Leonard: NEW YORK 29 SEPT 1864 -- coroner Ranney yesterday held an inquest at the NY hospital on the body of the boy Benjamin H. Cozine, who was shot on Tuesday last at No. 212 Broadway, with a pistol in the hands of a law student named Clinton Haring, an acct of which was published in the Times yesterday. ...considerable testimony...tended to show the shooting was the result of accident or carelessness...Jury OWe find that the deceased Benjamin H. Cozine, came to his death from a pistol shot wound carelessly inflicted at the hands of Clinton Haring on the 27th of Sept 1864. We confidently believe there was no intention to kill on the part of the prisoner. Deceased was 13 years of age and resided with his parents in Grand Street, near Bushwick Ave, Brooklyn. Both deceased and Haring were employed in law offices in building 212 Broadway. So far as known no one except these two were present when the shooting occurred. Haring statement: I left my office to get my dinner as I was going out I saw deceased on the 3rd step of 3rd flight. He asked me to show him my pistol, he at the same time leaning over the bannisters and holding his hand down to receive it. I took the pistol out of my pocket with left hand and while in the act of handing it up to him it went off and killed him. I did not know ... it would go off at half cocked. I was obliged to carry it so or the hammer would rest on the cap and a slight concussion would explode the pistol. I bought it last Monday of Marion and Bray to protect myself in traveling in the upper part of the city at night which I was frequently obliged to do in transacting business for my employers and others ...serve papers after business hours...visit my relations in 53rd and 3rd, I have frequently been pursued by suspicious characters...Deceased and I were intimate friends. Clinton Haring. The prisoner further stase he is sixteen years old born in NY resided at 178 West 21st and a law student by occupation. The coroner held him to bail in the sum of $1000 to answer any indictment that may be found against him.

Peter was probably a farmer and they lived in the Town of Ramapo in Rockland County, NY, after their marriage. They later resided in Montvale, NJ, and at one time in Westwood, NJ.

On 16 May 1882, Jane and her sisters were given a deed by their mother for the house and property on Demarest Avenue in Nanuet, NY, which they sold 7 July 1884 to J. Demarest Mitchell.

Peter's will, made 28 Sep 1903, devised his estate to the ten surviving children, equally.
