

-- HASBROUCK --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

Kingston Ref Ch)

Marie Deyoe (Mary du Jou)
dau. of Christian Deyoe &
Jeanne Verbeau
b. 1653 Mutterstadt, near Manheim
d. 27 March 1741, ae 83

Abraham was the brother of Jean Hasbrouck, who married Anna Deyoe, dau. of Christian Deyo. (The two brothers married two sisters.)

Of French ancestry, Abraham Hasbrouck went from Holland to Mannheim, to England, and sailed from there in April 1675 to Boston. He proceeded directly to New York and in July arrived at Esopus. In 1677 he and a group of men founded New Paltz.

In the Kingston Ref Ch record of their marriage, they were: Abraham Hasbroocq, of Calais, and Maria Doyo, of Moerstat [Mutterstadt], in Duysland [Germany]. No day or month of marriage is given in the record.

With his family he fled to Manheim in the lower Palatinate to escape persecution of the French Protestants. He probably resided in Holland for a while, also in England, serving in the English army with Edmund Andros, later Governor of New York. In 1675 he landed at Boston and joined his brother at Esopus. Christian Deyo and his family accompanied him.

He located at Guilford on a tract of 2000 acres. He was justice of Ulster County in 1722 and in the same year with justices John Hardenberg, Roelof Elting, and Ancrop, an Indian, definitely located the southwest corner of the Paltz Patent at Mog-gonck. He was eloquent in speech, highly respected, affable and agreeable. He spoke French, Dutch, and English. His career was lamentably short and his wife, who survived him forty years, bravely raised her family of ten children, many of whom rose to eminence. The stone of brown sandstone which marks his resting place in the old Huguenot Ground bears the oldest date there. His wife is buried beside him. His wife died after an illness of 26 days. The old Hasbrouck Diary states she "was a woman of tall stature, good features (but a spare face, not broad) dark blue eyes, brown hair. Her funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Maurice Goetschius from Ecclesiastes 7-2."

In his will (not probated), dated 23 Jan 1723/4, Joseph Hasbrouck of Guildford in the County of Ulster, mentioned beloved wife Elsie; eldest son Abraham Hasbrouck; his nine children, named [Abraham], Isaac, Jacob, Benjamin, Cornelius, Jonathan, Sarah, Peternella, Mary, Rachell. Signed Hasbrouck in a very shaky hand. Wit: Solomon Dubis, Hans Kiersteed, Daniel has broucq, Solomon has broucq, Wm. Nottingham.
