

-- HOPPER, A-G --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

He first lived in the area of present-day Ho-Ho-Kus, Bergen Co., NJ; later (by time of 2nd marriage) moved to Emerson area, where they lived at what is now 308 Kinderkamack Road, in Emerson, Bergen County, NJ. The house is shown on an Erskine Map of 1780 marked "Widow Hopper."

In 1739 Charles Clinton made a survey of the Cheescocks Patent in New York State (part of which was in today's Upper Saddle River). In his Journal, Clinton mention that Abraham Hopper owned the land on which the Hopper-Goetschius House in Upper Saddle River stands today, and that Hopper had acquired it several years earlier from a Dr. Johnston, who seems to have been a land speculator. The wing of the Hopper-Goetschius house was probably built about 1730, and the stone section (or a part of it) dates from 1739, when Clinton wrote that Abraham Hopper "this year built a stone house."

In a deed dated 6 Jun 1771, Abram Hoppe, yeoman, of Saddle River Twp., sold 34 acres along the Saddle River that his father had purchased in 1712, to John Hopper of New Barbadoes. On 26 Feb 1773, Abram Hoppe of Franklin Twp. and Rebecca his wife sold to John A. Hopper (probably his brother #55) of New Barbadoes (for £65), premises in Franklin Twp., on east side of Saddle River, between Hendrick Hoper (sic) and Jacob Ackerman (BergenCo. Deeds K-2:484 et.al Durie abstract).¹

In his will, pr. 30 June 1804 (codicil 19 March 1804), Abraham Hopper, of Franklin Township, Bergen Co., NJ, devises: Oldest son, Henry, 24 acres of the farm "where he now dwells," in full for his interest in my grist and saw mills. To my four sons, Henry, Jacob, John and Andrew, my grist and saw mills. Residue to four sons; the three eldest, Henry, Jacob and John, each to have ten acres more than Andrew, the youngest. Andrew to have the homestead where I now dwell, to extend from Saddle River taking in the house and barn and other improvements so far westward along the road leading to the Ramapough Road as to contain his number of acres.

John to have the north side along the line of Garret I. Hopper, to extend from the said river so far westward as to contain his number of acres. Jacob to have his number of acres adjoining Henry's land on the west side and John and Andrew's land on the east side of said Ramapough road. Provided, the lands must be so divided that each son shall have an equal proportion of wood land, anything in the aforesaid boundaries to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sons to pay cash legacies in instalments: to his grandson, Abraham Van Der Beek, when he shall arrive at the age of 21 years, $1,000.; to the children and heirs now born or which may be born unto Weyntje Zabriskie, $800, share and share alike, as they respectively arrive at the age of 21 years. This sum is made $200 less than the legacy to Abraham Van Der Beek because he had hitherto given their mother a certain female slave.

To each son and heir, one seat in my pew on the floor of the new Paramus Church, and one seat in my pew on the gallery in said church. The remaining two seats in said gallery, pew in said church and my two seats in Saddle River Church, he gives to his children and grandchildren.

The following transaction refers to his children:

On 17 October 1805 (recorded 19 November 1805, Bergen Co. W:111) Jacob A. Hopper and Geeshe, his wife, and John A. Hopper of the Township of Franklin, conveyed to Henry A. Hopper of the same place, for $1000. tract now in possession of said Henry A. Hopper, 2 equal fourth parts; mentioned grist mill, saw mill; near dwelling house of said Henry A. Hopper. Signed by Jacob A. Hopper, Lucretia Hopper, John A. Hopper. Witnessed by Lewis L. Concklin, Abrm. Westervelt.¹

According to a biographical sketch of his son John S. Hopper "They [Abraham Hopper and Elizabeth Sharp, his wife] came to Hamilton county in 1812, traveling by wagon from New Jersey, and were accompanied on this long and laborious journey by an uncle named Stagg," [prob. James Stagg, son of Thomas Stagg and Hester (Hetty) -?-]. "They first located at Cincinnati, where they remained one year, during which time Mr. Hopper worked at his trade, that of blacksmith. He then entered into partnership with Mr. Stagg in the purchase of a thousand acres of land in Anderson Township, which at first was jointly owned; but a division was soon found to be desirable, and to his portion Mr. Hopper subsequently added six hundred acres. He was not only one of the most extensive farmers but also one of the most successful in the township, in which he resided until his death in 1863, at the age of seventy-four. He was twice married, and was the father of sixteen children, twelve by the first marriage and four by the second."¹

The 1850 Census of Anderson Twp., Hamilton Co. OH, list Abraham as a 62 year old farmer, b. in NJ, (land - $30,000) with the following (all b. in OH): Sarah 42, William 18, Joana 7, Susan 6 (both in school), Angeline 2, and Rebecca age 6/12, along with Sarah A. Smith 11, (in school), Mary E. Smith 17 or 19 and two laborers.

On 30 May 1803 (recorded 3 March 1804, Bergen Co. R:387) Albert G. Hopper of the Township of New Barbadoes, farmer, and Elizabeth, his wife, and Rachel Hopper of the Township of Franklin, conveyed to Andrew G. Hopper of the Township of New Barbadoes, for $2075., a tract of 75 acres more or less in the Township of Harrington, beginning at N corner of lands of Thomas L. Van Buskirk. Bounded NW by the Saddle River; NE by Thomas Van Buskirk; SE and SW by said Thomas L. Van Buskirk. Signed Albert G. Hopper, Elizabeth Hopper, Rachel Hopper. Witnessed by Thos. Wills, Jacob J. Zabriskie.¹

Albert G. Hopper owned several mills in Paramus, including what became known as the Hopper-Van Riper-Baldwin-Blauvelt grist mill, on or near what is today Paramus Road in Paramus (site of today's Paramus Bathing Beach). On 23 Aug 1988, the mill was moved to the Wild Duck Pond County Park in Ridgewood, where the County of Bergen (who had accepted the donation of the mill building from Emerald Development Associates) planned to restore the building as a museum. Unfortunately, after its move, the building burned down before it could be restored and fitted as a museum.

Albert G. Hopper bequeathed his mills and a 158-acre farm, to his son, Garret H. Hopper. In his will, he wrote: Albert G. Hopper, of Twp. of New Barbadoes, Bergen Co., NJ; dated 26 Jun 1843 and probated 12 Oct 1846, mentioned: wife Elizabeth $1,000.00, to occupy as much of the farm and have as much of the household and kitchen furniture as she chooses, and a decedent support from income of farm in lieu of dower; son Garret A. Hopper - my farm and plantation on which I now live in Twp. of New Barbadoes (158 acres), including house, and mills thereon, plus 24 acres of woodland at Paramus meadow, Geertje Hendricks was probably the sister of Belitje Hendricks, who m. Cornelis Aertsen [Van Schaick], and also the sister of Annatje/Anneken Hendricks who m. Jan Aertsen/Arentszen Vanderbilt.

Andries Hop (Andries Willemszen Hoppe, who m. Geertje Hendricks), Hendrick Egbertszen, Geertruydt Willems, witnessed the bp. 12 Jan 1652 of Pouth, child of Jan Willemszen, Van Leuven.

Andries Hoppen was one of the officers employed by the Dutch West Indies Co. in New Amsterdam as Commissary of Wares. He arrived in America about 1651/52. In 1653 he was enrolled in the burgher corps of New Amsterdam. He was transferred to the Dutch settlement north of the Delaware River in 1655 where he was appointed Secretary and Attorney General of that Colony. On 13 Apr 1657 Andries Hoppen was granted the small burghr right in New Amsterdam.

Andries Hoppe was a New Amsterdam merchant, a general trader and freighter, who owned a sloop (or "yacht") trading along the North River as far as Fort Orange and making trips to Dutch possessions in the north (what is now New England).

He died in 1658, sometime after 25 Mar 1658, when he appeared in court and before 18 Dec 1658, when Geertje Hendricks appeared before the Orphans Court as a widow.

Orphanmasters records show that on 5 March 1659 Andr. Hoppe (also as Andrees De Haal) left 5 children: Catrina, Wilhelmus, Hendrick, Matthys, and Adolf.²

Geertje Hendricks, widow of Andries Hopper, married (2) (banns: 8 May 1660 NYC Ref Ch), Dirck Gerritszen Van Tricht, "in't Graefschap Van Buuren" (van Buuren), known as Van Duyn in New Jersey: his children wrote the name Van Dien.

According to Howard I. Durie, Andries A. Hopper and his brother Jacob are thought to have divided a 260 acre tract at Werimus, purchased by their grandfather Jacob Zabriskie, from Peter Sommans in 1731. This land was devised to them by Jacob's will probated 26 Sep 1758. According to road returns, Andries was living in Werimus in 1760 (per Durie letter to Zabriskie). His dau. Sarah's death records stated she was b. in Pascack in 1768. [Werimus and Pascack are in the present Woodcliff Lake/Park Ridge area, part of an area still called the Pascack Valley.] However, he was liv. in Franklin Twp. (i.e. west of the Saddle River and therefore not Werimus) when his will was written in 1776.¹

In his will dated 6 March 1776, proved 16 August 1787 (NJW 6-203) Andries, of Franklin Township, Bergen Co., mentioned wife Bettie, and children Abram (eldest son), Jacob, Saertje, Anderis, Micle, John and Jannetje Hopper. Executors were Harme Vanrype and Abram Westervelt. Witnesses were Isaac Bogert, Jacob Hopper, and Roelof Westervelt.

On 5 Sep 1787, advertised for sale by Harmean Van Reyne and Abraham Westervelt was: "the property of Andrew A. Hopper, situated at Campgua [sic], Franklin Twp. - a plantation of about 90 acres and a stone house on main road leading from Paramus to Ramapo" [Franklin Turnpike](NJ Journal, Elizabethtown).¹

About 1777, Andries Hopper inherited equally with his youngest brother Garret, his father's "plantation and farm where I now dwell" (con Ramapo Valley Road, Mahwah, Bergen Co., NJ).

Andries was a private in the Bergen Militia and was reportedly an intelligence agent. He ran an Inn on Valley Road in Mahwah, where George Washington stopped several times.

On 13 September 1779 (recorded 16 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:180) John Van Alen of Ramapough, yeoman, conveyed to Andrew W. Hopper of the same place, for £3800, 139 acres excepting 18 acres formerly sold by Johannes Laroe to Isaac Bogert 12 Dec 1769, being a house and tract at Ramapough in the Township of Franklin, the same being 1/4 part of land lately belonging to Hendrick Laroe, deceased. Bounded N by Jacobus G. Bogert; S by said Andrew Hopper; E & W by land belonging to the Proprietors of New Jersey. Signed by John Van Allen (his mark). Witnessed by Jacobus Bogert, Crynes Bartolf.¹

He exchanged the Van Allen house and property with his brother Garret for Garret's half of the homestead, thus becoming the sole owner of the homestead on Ramapo Valley Road, Mahwah. This homestead was used as George Washington's headquarters in 1777, 1779, and 1780. The house was torn down by Theodore Havermeyer about 1890. Part of the old house is believed to have been incorporated into the existing mansion.

On 1 May 1787 (recorded 16 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:183) John Stevens, James Parker and Walter Rutherford, three of the General Proprietors of the Eastern Division of New Jersey, conveyed to Andrew Hopper of the County of ergen, for £200, 130-16/100 acres strict measure in the Romopock tract, lot number 124, beginning at tract formerly of John Voss. Signed by John Stevens, James Parker, Wal. Rutherford. Witnessed by Cornelius Best, Gilbert Sherer.¹

On 21 April 1790 (recorded 16 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:186) Garret W. Hopper of Franklin Township, yeoman, and Margaret, his wife, conveyed to Andrew W. Hopper of the same place, yeoman, for 10 shillings, [150? acres], whereas William Hopper, late of the County of Bergen, deceased, in his lifetime purchased of Lambartus Laroux and Elizabeth, his wife, land within a tract formerly conveyed by John Hamilton, Andrew Johnson and John Burnet to Hendrick Laroux, Samuel Laroux and Lucas Kietstead, and by his Last Will & Testament, William Hopper devised to his sons, said Andrew W. Hopper and Garret W. Hopper as tenants in common. Signed by Garret W. Hopper, Margaret Hopper. Witnessed by Maria Haring, John Haring.¹

On 13 September 1791 (recorded 22 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:202) John Stevens, James Parker, and Walter Rutherford, three of the General Proprietors of the Eastern Division of New Jersey, conveyed to Andrew Hopper of Bergen County, for £14, 16 shillings, 3 pence, 39-58/100 acres strict measure in the Romopock tract, lot number 96, beginning on the side of a moutnain. Signed by jno. Stevens, James Parker, Wal. Rutherford. Witnessed by John Parker, John DeLancey.¹

On 22 May 1792 (recorded 22 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:206) Samuel Bertholf of Franklin Township, yeoman, and Leah, his wife, conveyed to Andrew W. Hopper, for £195, 15 shillings, 39 acres and 24 square perches of land in Franklin Township, beginning in Main Road leading along the Ramapough Neighborhood; mentioned corner of house of Peter Lozier. Signed by Samuel Bertholf, Leah Bertholf (her mark). Witnessed by John Haring, Samuel Haring, Abrm. Westervelt, Crynes Bertholf.¹

On 7 April 1798 (recorded 22 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:209) John Hopper, Esquire, of the Township of Franklin, conveyed to Andrew Hopper of the same place, for £28, two parcels: (1) 40 acres strict measure in Franklin Township, part of lot number 97 [94?] in the Romopock tract, which he purchased from James Parker and Walter Rutherford. Maria Pratt Hopper found that David Hopper's original will stated: "First, the sum of thirteen pounds, ten shillings and three, which I owe my daughter Cornelia, the wife of Jacobus A. Bogert, and all my other debts ... be paid. To wife Rachel, all the residue and remainder of estate during her widowhood, at her remarriage rest of estate goes to children except the £30 she received from her father Johannes Van Emburgh and the negro wench Saar." Then the estate was to be divided into "six equal shares to children: Cornelia (wife of Jacobus A. Bogert), Andrew D. (forgiven debt of £5+, he owes me), John D., Henry D., Adriantje (wife of Jacobus Beam), and Abigail (wife of Andries Doremus). If wife dies before me the 30 pounds afore said and negro wench Saar, (or money arising from the sale of her), divided into five equal parts, amongst five children, "excluding my said daughter Cornelia, being child and heir of my first wife, Cornelia, deceased." This last and most important line was omitted in the abstracted will!

He was prob. the Garret Hopper listed as a Justice of the Peace of Franklin Twp. 21 Mar 1776 - 16 May 1776 (Minutes - 1715-1795 p. 128).¹

From his father's will dated 20 Jan 1782, "Gerrit" inherited 1/2 of the "farm where he now lives on west side of Saddle River." His brother Nicholas inherited the other half. In a deed confirming the land division in 1801, he is listed as a blacksmith.

When he was 18 he inherited equally with his eldest brother Andrew his father's "plantation and farm where I now dwell," [on Ramapo Valley Rd. (Route 202), Mahwah]. In 1779, his brother purchased the Van Allen house and property, also on the same road which on 15 Jan 1781, he exchanged with his brother Garret for his half of the original homestead (Brg. Co. Deeds D-104, and U:186). It is assumed that Garret moved into the Van Allen house in the spring of 1780, as he had married a widow with two children. (See Mc Mahon pp. 46-48 and Brg.Co. Deeds J-113 and D-104). He later sold this property and purchased several others so that at the time of his death he owned several hundred acres in the Ramapo area including a grist mill (ibid p. 50). "Garret served in the war as a member of Captain John Wells' Company of New Jersey Militia which, according to historian Alfred Ronks, 'was employed on the communications below Suffern's Tavern, on the road to Pompton' (Ramapo Valley Rd.)" (ibid p. 46). He served as a Bergen Co. freeholder in 1795 (Clayton p. 205).

They lived on Valley Road in Mahwah.

On 21 April 1790 (recorded 16 May 1805, Bergen Co. U:186) Garret W. Hopper of Franklin Township, yeoman, and Margaret, his wife, conveyed to Andrew W. Hopper of the same place, yeoman, for 10 shillings, [150? acres], whereas William Hopper, late of the County of Bergen, deceased, in his lifetime purchased of Lambartus Laroux and Elizabeth, his wife, land within a tract formerly conveyed by John Hamilton, Andrew Johnson and John Burnet to Hendrick Laroux, Samuel Laroux and Lucas Kietstead, and by his Last Will & Testament, William Hopper devised to his sons, said Andrew W. Hopper and Garret W. Hopper as tenants in common. Signed by Garret W. Hopper, Margaret Hopper. Witnessed by Maria Haring, John Haring.²

In his will dated 15 Jan 1832, pr 27 Jan 1832, Garret W. Hopper (weak of body), of Twp. of Franklin, Bergen Co., NJ, mentioned gr.children Elsey (dau. of son Christian) and Garret and Lidia Ann (children of son Jonathan) each $300 when 21; son Christian the yearly interest from $200, should said son not return the money to my heirs; wife Rachel - all she brought with her, half of the blankets she has made since that time and the curtains round the bed in our ordinary dwelling room, and to "remain in the room in which we ordinarily lived and the upper room which we always occupied" with privilege of keeping one cow, an income of $75.00 a year until death or remarriage in lieu of dower; To William two shares of estate - homestead of 93 acres and 30 acres of mountain land adjoining with improvements and implements belonging to same and grist mill. He was to estimate the value @ $50 an acre and "pay what exceeds his portion to heirs;" son Andrew - one share of the estate; dau. Margaret - 1 share the rest of the land adjoining my homestead farm consisting of 77 acres @ $20.00 an acre to Peggy. children of dec'd. son John two shares - the land I purchased of the heirs of Abraham Hopper @ $25.00 an acre - the boys each to have two shares and the girls one share, each as they come of age; exr. to sell the woodlot at Andrew Hen-nion's; dau. Ann - 1 share - and that her portion given to her two sons John and Andrew; Exr: William Hopper and son-in-law Abraham Van Horn. Garret signed by his mark. [Probably due to it being a "death bed will."] (Brg.Co. Will D-218). The inventory of his estate totaled $2,396.36-1/2 and contained: stock, fodder, grain, household furniture, farming utensils, beef and pork, sundries, book accounts, notes, cash and wearing apparel (Brg.Co. Inv. D-213). When the estate was settled in 1833 it totaled $13,095.13.

They lived at 571 Paramus Road, Paramus, Bergen Co., NJ in a house that was still standing in 2004.

Garret's father, Albert G. Hopper, owned several mills in Paramus, including what became known as the Hopper-Van Riper-Baldwin-Blauvelt grist mill, on or near what is today Paramus Road in Paramus (site of today's Paramus Bathing Beach). On 23 Aug 1888, the mill was moved to the Wild Duck Pond County Park in Ridgewood, where the County of Bergen (who had accepted the donation of the mill building from Emerald Development Associates) planned to restore the building as a museum. Unfortunately, after its move, the building burned down before it could be restored and fitted as a museum. Albert G. Hopper bequeathed his mills and a 158-acre farm, to his son, Garret H. Hopper. On 2 April 1847, Garret sold the grist mill and 30.5 acres to his stepson, James Van Riper.¹
