

-- HOUSEMAN, HUYSMAN --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

In his will, he wrote: ...This 16th day of December, 1783. I, Peter Housman, of Richmond County, New York, yeoman, being weak in body. I leave to my eldest son, John, the choice of my silver watches and the sum of £5 in lieu of his Birthright. To my son Benjamin, one silver watch; to my son Peter, my silver hilted sword; to my three sons, John, Benjamin and Peter, all my wearing apparel equally divided; to my daughter Martha, two gold rings and one pair silver buckels; to my daughter Johanah, one gold ring and one pair of silver buckles; to my two daughters, Martha and Johanah, all my wife's wearing apparel, equally divided; to my daughter Mary, one piece of "Pompidore Chince"; to Nancy Kruse, daughter of my last wife, one "cubbord" being in the widow Stoughtenburoug's care. I order my executors to sell the remainder of my estate, real and personal. To my brothers and sisters, Aurt, John, Richard, Abraham, Maregret, Mary, Elisabeth, Cathrin, Jemima and Sarah, £22 a peace in lieu of what I give them of their father's estate, "as I fell heir to," to be paid them one year after my decease. I reserve æ50 for the purposes hereafter mentioned. I give to all my children here named, John, Benjamin, Peter, Abraham, Isac, Jacob, Anthony, James, Mary, Martha and Johanah, all the rest of my estate, equally divided, excepting my daughter Mary, wife of John Tyson, I deduct out of her share the sum of £50 aforesaid in lieu of her outset. If any of my children die under age without issue, their shares to be divided among all my sons and daughters. Whereas I stand charged with the maintenance of a child the daughter of Eloner Chlindinny, now the wife of Thomas Dickson, the before reserved sum of £50, on condition the said child or some person shall give to my executors sufficient discharge that she shall never claim any more of my executors, and if she shall fail on the performance of her part the £50 to be divided among my children. To my daughter, Mary Tyson, one side saddle now in her care. I appoint my brothers, Aurt and Richard Houseman and John Tyson, my son-in-law, my trustees, to be executors, and guardians of my children. Witnesses, Games Cozine, James Bodine, Wilhelmas Cozine. Proved, Richmond County, October 18, 1784.
