

-- JACOBS, JACOBUS --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

 d. before 12 July 1694 d.

It seems possible that sometime about 1655, while living in the colony of Rensselaerswyck, Mary/Maria Goosens [Van Schaick?] had an extramarital alliance with Jacob Hendrickse (Jacob Hendrickse Maat, aka Van Looserecht, inkeeper as of 1654) and bore him a son, out of wedlock (while still married to Steven Jansen Coninck), named Hendrick Jacobs, who is mentioned as her son in her will dated 10 June 1687. This event may have been the cause of the subsequent estrangement and divorce of Steven Jansen Coninck & Mary Goosens.

Hendrick Jacobszen, along with Jan Vincent and Susanna Fel, witnessed the baptism 20 June 1687 NYC Ref Ch, of Anneken, dau. of Jean Lemontez & Helena Fell.

He may be the Hendrick Jacobsen, "aged about 27 years," who was under the command of Lieut. Hendrick Cuyler [Cuyler] when Jacobse signed an affidavit 10 June 1689.

Hendrick Jacobszen, along with Hester Glieves, witnessed the baptism 22 June 1688 NYC Ref Ch, of Thomas, son of Robbert Barckins & Christyntie Stephens [Koning].

Hendrick Jacobszen, along with Maryken Gysberts, witnessed the baptism 19 April 1691 NYC Ref Ch, of Hanna, dau. of Thomas Glead & Hester.

Hendrick Jacobszen, along with Helena Demarets, witnessed the baptism 6 March 1692 NYC Ref Ch of Jean, son of Jean Le Montez & Helena Fel.

In his will, Henry Jacobs wrote: I, Henry Jacobs, inhabitant within this city of New York, do make this my last will and testament. I leave to my son Jacob Hendricks, gotten by my wife Anna Hendricks, all my clothing, both silk and woolen. Leaves one half of the rest of his estate to his wife and the other half to his son, Jacob Hendricks. If his son dies, then his wife is to pay to Johannes Goesens, son of my deceased brother, Goesen Stevens, of whom I am God father, the sum of o7 10s., and to James the son of Clement Sebra and my sister Judith Stevens, the sum of £7 10s. Makes his wife executrix. Dated June 1, 1687. Witnesses, Wm. Bogardus, Paul Richards, John Vincent. Proved, July 12, 1694, before David Jamieson, Secretary, and confirmed by Governor Benjamin Fletcher.

Their marriage, too early for existing church record, was noted in colonial documents. In 1638 a Jan Jacobson entered into a marriage contract with Marretje Peters of Copenhagen

Jacobsen, Jan

Jan Jacobsen

In New Amsterdam in 1633, a Jan Jacobsen leased of Hendrick Harmensen six cows on halves. In 1643 he bought a house and 25 morgans of land on Manhattan Island from Jan Fransen. In July of 1644 he sold that land to Lambert Van Valckenburch. Lambert Van Valeckenburch later obtained fifty additional acres of land, a part of which, in 1931, became the site of the Empire State Building. In 1640 there was a lawsuit of Jans Jacobsen from Vreeland vs. David Davitsen and Hans Noorman relating to 800 fence rails that Jans Jacobsen was supposed to have sold to Davitsen and Noorman. A Jan Jacobsen was one of the first settlers at New Utrecht, NY in about 1657, having been allotted 20 morgens of land there. Patents for these land parcels were granted in 1662 and confirmed in 1666.¹

Geesje Barentse
 (widow of Barent Rottmer)

Gijsje and Pieter filed a joint will in New Amsterdam in June 1642 leaving all their separate estates to each other. Since Pieter made the first of three payments to the deacons of Fort Orange for an adult funeral pall on 12 April 1658, it appears she died that previous winter or spring.²

In July of 1663 Barent Bradt, Jan van Eeckelen, and Theunis Slingerland, on behalf of themselves and the other Bradt brothers and sisters, appointed Storm [Bradt, who took the name Storm van der Zee] as their attorney to collect their inheritance from the estate of Pieter Jacobsz van Rynsburgh, last husband of their grandmother Geesie Barents, based on a settlement of November 26, 1660, whereby they were to receive f200, and their cousins, Geesie and Raechel Barents, an equal sum. Storm was to collect f200 directly from the Rynsburgh estate. The other f200 for his cousins he was to collect from Rynsburgh's former employers, the director-general of New Netherland and his council. The settlement of the estate of An-natie's mother shows that only two of Barent's children, Geesie and Rachel, were then still alive, Barent himself, his son Jan, and whatever other children there might have been, not being mentioned in the settlement. Rachel Barents remained in the Netherlands, where she married, and died. [there is an American line of descent from Rachel, even though she never immigrated.]³
