

-- MARINUS --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

He lived at Totowa and later, about 1760 at Slooterdam.

David Marinus was the Dominie of the Reformed Dutch churches at Acquackanonk and Pompton from 1750 -? (beginning while he was still a Theology student and before he was ordained in 1752), of the Old Dutch Church at Totowa from 1755-1762?, and of Kakiat (West New Hempstead, Rockland Co., NY), 1773-?. Because of his tendency toward drunkenness and "dissipated habits," he was deposed from the ministry in 1780.

On 2 Dec 1760 David and Anna Marinus, minister, of Essex County, conveyed to Garret van Houten, of Slotterdam, for $400, 100 acres...corner to Bashan van Giesen. Witnessed by Johannes Paulisen, Petrus Paulisen.¹

David Marinus apparently served in the Revolution; according to Tobey, pension papers for him are on file.

David Marinus was captured by British, with John Cadmus, Lieut.David Van Bussum and brother, John Van Bussum, and held in prison at NYC. David Marinus escaped by knocking down guard, and returned home to Slotterdam and died two weeks later from being wet and cold in boat used in escape to cross river. Letter to NJ Gov.Livingston,dated June 1777,from British prison at NYC. Can you arrange an exchange of prisoners, prison conditions are such that some of our Militia men are considering joining the King's army rather than stay in this prison.
