

-- MEAD, MEET --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Sarah

In his will, he wrote: ...May 21, 1760. I, Nehemiah Mead, of Crom Elbow Precinct, Dutchess County, being sick and weak. I leave to my wife Sarah the use of 1/3 of all lands and movables, "the lands during her life and the movables forever," excepting 100 acres of land which I bought of Godfried Hendricks, and I give them to my daughter Sarah. After the death of my wife I leave all the rest of my lands to my four sons, Nehemiah, Joseph, Philip, and Noah. I make my two brothers, Enos and Jonathan, executors, with power to sell the 100 acres of land left to my daughter Sarah. "I give a certain right of land which I put in for, called the Delaware Right, to my four sons." Witnesses, Samuel Barker, Samuel Barker, Jr., Freelove Barker. Proved, October 1, 1760. In the (1) marriage record, they were: (English) Banns August 25, 1654, Peter Jansen, bachelor, and Syntje Jacobs, widow of Rutger Wouters, (she being) from Amersfoort. The banns are also going at s'Hertogenbosch. (Married) September 22, 1654.³

Pieter Jansen Meet/Mead came to New Amsterdam, arriving in the [ship] "Rosetree" which sailed from Amsterdam in March 1663, with his wife, and children Maria, age 19, Wyntie Rutgers (age 16), Kniertje Pieters Meet (age 7), and Jan Pieterszen Meet (age 3).⁴

The tradition is that the Mead Family is of English origin and that the forefather in time of persecution fled from England to Holland. The first of the name that occurs on the records is that of Peter Meet who with his son, Jan Pieterse Meet, emigrated from Amersfoort in the Province of Utrecht, Holland to this country. The particular year in which they emigrated we have not ascertained but it appears that as early as 1681 and 1687 they were residents of the city of New Amsterdam.²

The daughters of Rutger Wouterson and Syntje Jacobs (second wife of Pieter Mead/Meet) were [Maria] who was born about 1643 or 1644 and who, at the age of 19 came to New Amsterdam with her mother, her sister Wyntie Rutgers (age 16), her step-father Pieter Janszen Meet/Mead from Amersfoort, a half-sister Kniertje Pieters Meet (age 7), and a half brother Jan Pieterszen Meet (age 3), arriving in the [ship] "Rosetree" which sailed from Holland in March 1663...On 19 Feb 1692 in the Dutch Reformed Church in New York, Maria Rutgers, widow of Joris Janszen [Van Hoorn], married Jan Andriesse, widower of Margrietje Jans Doorens..."
