

-- MEYER. MYERS --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with citations.

Garret Van Houten, in his will dated 7 June 1765 [?], mentioned dau. Yannetye, wife of Daniel Mier.

Daniel Myers was said to have run away to NC, abandoning his wife Jane and their children.²

Jane Myers, widow of the decedent, was granted Letters of Administration on the Estate of Daniel Myers of Hampstead. Oct. 6, 1817. In 1817 Daniel Meyer died. The county commissioners met at Rockland County Clerks Office in New City, New York on November 4, to partition the land and estate of Daniel Meyers to his children.

In the Bergen Ref Ch marriage record, he was of English Neighborhood; she was of Hackensack.

Jannetje/Jane was mentioned in the will of her father, dated 11 May 1819.

On 13 June 1804 (recorded 16 July 1804, Bergen Co. S:400) Henry H. Brinkerhoff of the precinct of Hackensack, yeoman, and Hannah, his wife, conveyed to Garret Myers, of same place, wheelwright, for $5, 1-1/4 acres more or less, being their estate right in the land, being part of lot allotted to the heirs of Mary Earl, deceased, in precinct of Hackensack, beginning W side of Road leading through the English Neighbourhood at SE corner of said Garret Myers; land of John and Peter Huyler. Bounded N by said Garret Myers, S by said Henry H. Brinkerhoff; W by John and Peter Huyler; E by said Road. Signed by Henry H. Brinkerhoff, Hannah Brinkerhoff (her mark). Witnessed by Peter Demarest, Elizabeth Bogert.¹

In 1835 the "Homestead" lot of Garrett Myers, located northwest of the intersection of the Fort Lee and Hackensack Turnpike and English Neighborhood Road, was conveyed from Garrett Myers to David Christie. The house in which David Christie lived, however, was located on the northeast of the intersection.²

The land for the Dutch Reformed Church located just north of the Cole/Allaire property was donated by John Cole and Garrett Myers. This was the second Dutch Reformed Church to have been built in Leonia. The second Dutch Reformed Church was built around 1831 and was torn down around 1934. There was a small cemetery associated with the church. Some of the tombstones are still evident today. A review of the list of names of individuals buried there reveals such names as Jacob Van Valen, members of the Conover family, Westervelts, Lydeckers, and Demarests, names all well known in the English Neighborhood.²

Garret Myers moved to Cameron, Steuben Co., NY in 1825. Jane, his wife, was born about 1781. They resided for some years on the Campbell farm south of the river at Cameron Mills, where he was probably employed in the Ketchum saw mill at that place. They afterward removed to the Lucius Parker farm south of the river at Saunder's where they lived for a time, when they moved to the Dubal farm and was that year taxed for 50 acres. Although he weighed nearly 300 pounds, it is said he was as supple as many half his weight. The census report for 1825 gives his family as consisting of twelve members.¹

Jacob Myers

Jacob Myers purchased a 100-acre tract in 1812 and probably built the house at 500 Campgaw Road, Mahwah, Bergen Co., NJ between 1800-1830 (although it is possible that part of the house was built by Martin Myers about 1740). The Myers (later spelled Meyers) family retained the farm until the mid-20th century.

(banns: 6 July 1642

d. before 1656

A Gillis Pieterszen, probably this one, was mentioned in "New York Historical Manuscripts, Dutch." by Van Laer: page 130, in an article on the ruinous condition of Fort Amsterdam, the farms, mills and other public property given to Director Kieft on his arrival on 28 March 1638, Gillis Pieterszen van der Gouw, was listed as a master house carpenter and age was listed as 27 years.

In the marriage record, they were: Jillis Pieterszen, young man from ter Goude, and Elsje Hendricks, young woman from Amsterdam.

Elsje's probable father, Hendrick Jansen [Snyder], first bought land in New Amsterdam in 1641. He was aboard the ship Princess Amelia in September 1647 and drowned with so many other passengers when the ship -- bound for Amsterdam -- was wrecked off the coast of Wales. We know by the Court Minutes that his widow, Tryntje, was dead by 11 August 1653.

On 25 Oct 1653 he obtained a patent for a house and lot in Beverwyck (Albany), and perhaps lived there during the last years of his life.

According to Records of New Amsterdam edited by Berthold Fernow, Volume 1 -- "Court Minutes of New Amsterdam" -- page 95 under the date of 11 August 1653: Daniel Litschoe, plaintiff, versus Gillis Pietersen, defendant. The plaintiff demands payment of the second installment for a certain house and lot sold to the defendant's mother-in-law according to bill of sale thereof. The defendant as co-heir of the above-named Tryntje Scheerenborg says that if the plaintiff can deliver him a good deed of the whole lot sold, according to the bill of sale, payment will be forthcoming; otherwise [he] offers to give him back the house and lot, on condition of repaying the money which he has received therefrom. The Burgomasters and Schepens resolve to see how much the lot has been diminished on which the guard-house has been set when a decision shall be awarded to the parties.

He does not appear to have used the surname "Meyer"; his children did adopt that surname.

Jan Dirckszen Meyer and Tryntje Andriesse Grevenraet were residing in New Amsterdam prior to 1652.

He probably was the Jan Dirksen who was by trade a painter, and who was admitted to the rights of a small burgher 14 April 1657

Ordinance of the Governor-General and Council of New Netherland directing the demolishing and removal of certain Buildings in New Orange, and providing payment for the same. Passed 16 October, 1673. [N. Y. Col. MSS.XXIII. 119.] Preamble Whereas Fort Willem Hendrick and the city of New Orange, situate on Manhatans Island, is seriously incumbered and weakened by the houses, gardens and orchards which lie so close under its walls and bulwarks, that it is impossible to defend it properly when occasion requires, against its enemies, unless at least some of those houses, lots and orchards be demolished and removed. It is therefore considered necessary by the Governor General, by and with the previous advice of his Council, to demolish, pull down, and remove the undernamed houses, gardens and orchards, and the owners thereof are hereby most strictly ordered and commanded instantly to commence demolishing and pulling down their houses, gardens and orchards, and to remove them to such lots as are laid out within this City by the Governor's order to that end, and shall be shown to each of them by the Burgomasters, on pain of depriving those who shall be found contumacious or negligent, of the indemnity, which, according to the terms of this publication, are granted and allowed to the following persons or those among them who shall come to remove their undernamed houses, gardens and orchards, and, over and above, on the first arrival of some ships, of having their houses demolished or burned, to wit: The houses, gardens and orchards of Peter de Riemer, Lodewyck Post, George Cobbet, Jan Dircksen Meyer, Jacobus van de Water, Symon Blanck, Andries Meyer, Gerrit Hendricx, Peter Jansen Slott, situate under the walls and bulwarks of Fort Willem Hendrick.. Gerrit Jansen Boos, Peter Stoutenburgh, Henry Taylor, The Lutheran congregation, Willem van Vredenburgh, Peter Jansen Miesier, Martin Meyer Smith, Augustine Hermans, Lysbet Tyssen, Peter Harnsen, situate under the fortification and bulwarks of the city of New Orange. Johannis van Brugh, Sara van Borsim. But whereas said houses cannot be removed except at great and heavy expense to the proprietors, to whom, in return, indemnification and satisfaction ought, in equity, be allowed, because said removal is done for the public benefit and better defense; it is therefore resolved, that the grounds and lots belonging to said persons, with the necessary expense which they shall happen to incur in the removal of their houses, shall be valued by impartial persons, and to the proprietors instead of these lots shall be shown and conveyed, subject to like valuation, any other lots within this city, to which they will be at liberty to remove, and whatever their canceled lots and the expenses of removing their houses, will be found to exceed in value what shall be shown them instead, shall be promptly made good, fulfilled and paid to them from the extra Duty which, for that purpose, it is resolved and ordered to collect from now henceforth, until said indemnity and damage shall be promptly paid to said persons, and no longer, to wit: From all Beavers and peltries which will be exported from this government to Patria or elsewhere after the publication hereof, two and one-half per cent."

In the NYC Ref Ch record of their (2) marriage and banns, they were: Jan Dircksen Meyer, Wedr. Van Tryntje Grevenraet, en Baertje Kip, Wede. Van Jan Wansaert, beyde woonende tot N. Yorke.

b. about 1676? Hackensack

In the marriage record, they are "Johannes Meyyer, y.m. from New York and Jannetie Corenelese Banta, y.d. from Ackinsack."

On 6 February 1720, Johannis and Janotye Meyer, blacksmith, of Bergen County, conveyed to William Provoost of New York City, for £150, west side of Hackensack River bounded on the south by the Dutch Church...between land formerly owned by Nicholas Laroe and Hendrick Van Giesen, which now belongs to Abraham Ackerman. Signed Johannis Myor, Janotye Myor (her mark). Witnessed by Paulus Vander Beek, John Wright, of Bergen County, and David Provoost.¹

His will is dated 25 March 1742 (proved Newark 10 Apr 1755; filed Trenton). In it he is described as "of Sadol river in the county of Bergen and Province of New Jersey." In the will, he describes himself as a blacksmith. He names wife Jannetie; and children Marten, Cornelius, Johannes, Isaac, Abram, Jacob, Marytie Brevoort, Rachel Labagh. He mentions real and personal estate. Executors named are sons Marten, Cornelius and Johannes. Witnesses are Gerret van Horn, Joost Degroot, and Paulus van der Beek.

An inventory of his estate was made 9 Apr 1755 by Johannis Meyer; appraised by Albert Terhun and Samuel Demarest.

Many of his descendants adopted the spelling Myer.

*According to the Banta Genealogy, Martin Janszen Meyer, from Elsvliet, Holland, is probably identical with Martin Janszen Van Breuckelen, who resided in New Amersfort as early as 1653, and who was Schepen there in 1656, 1657 and 1658. He was married Nov. 19, 1662 to Hendrickye Hermans, from Amsterdam. He and his wife made a joint will, dated March 16, 1693, which is recorded in the Surrogate's office, New York.
