

-- MIDDAGH --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

"Gerrit Aerts Middag" took the oath of allegiance at Brooklyn, Sept. 26-30, 1687, as a native. His name appears on the tax list of Brooklyn, 1698. Was a witness at Brooklyn June 13, 1698. His will, dated Sept. 8, 1709, probated in New York Sept. 21, 1710 (7-486) names his wife and four children.

In his will, he wrote: ...September 8, 1709. I, Geritt Middag, of Brookland in Queens County. I leave to my wife Cornelia all houses and lands during her life, and after her decease to my two sons John and Albert, and they are to pay to their two sisters, Bruchse and Dinah, £100 each; my eldest son John is to have £5 for his birthright. I appoint my wife and Dirck Brinkerhoff and Hans Bergrand executors. Witnesses, Gertie Van Cowenhoven, Henry Filkin, Claes Volkersen. Proved, September 21, 1710.

• Gerret Middagh. In his will, he wrote: ...March 13, 1770. I, Gerret Middagh, of Brookland, in Kings County, yeoman, being sick. I leave to my mother, Johanah Middagh, the use of all my estate, real and personal, in Kings County or elsewhere, so long as she remains the widow of my father, John Middagh. After her death I leave all my estate to Jacob Hicks and John Hicks, they being the two sons of my sister, Mary Hicks; and to John and Cornelia Gerritsen, children of my sister Cornelia, as herein directed. And they are to maintain my brother, Isaac Middagh, "which is now a Lunetick," during his life, "if the portion to him of my father's estate is not sufficient." And they are to pay to my sister's daughter, Mary Hicks, £300, to be paid after the death or marriage of my mother. And to John and Cornelia Gerritsen each £50; To my brother, Jacobus Middah, £5. I make my mother and my sister, Mary Hicks, and her son Jacob, executors.

Witnesses, Nicholas Van Dam, Christopher Codwise, Simon Boerum. Proved, May 17, 1771.
