

-- MONFORT --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Jean Monfort and his wife Jacqueline Moreau had a certificate (attestation) from Amsterdam's Walloon Church on January 23 "pour le West Indes." They and their son Pierre (and any other children still living) sailed on the Eendracht from Amsterdam on January 25, 1624, to become one of the first families to settle in New Netherland. They apparently returned to Amsterdam between 1630 and 1636 and came to New Netherland again in 1639.<sup>1</sup>

In 1678 he was a farmer in Flatlands. In 1686-87 he bought 50 acres in the west bounds of Jamaica, which he sold in 1705, and bought 200 acres at Great Neck

In the record of their betrothal, they were: Jan Montfort, young man residing at Jamaica, and Ida Abrahams, young lady residing at Newtown. [He did not marry (1) Geertje Pieters.]

In his will, he wrote: I, John Monfoort, of Madnan's Neck, in Hempstead, in Queen's County, yeoman, being at present somewhat indisposed in body. I leave to my wife, Yda Monfoort, my whole estate, real and personal, during her life or widowhood. After her death or marriage, I leave to my eldest son Peter £25, for my son's birthright. And all the rest to my beloved children, Peter, Abraham, Sarah, Aeltje, Susanah, Jacobus, and Sannettie. I make my sons Peter and Abraham executors. Dated August 29, 1720. Witnesses, Susanah Van Wyck, Nicholas Berrien, Peter Berrien. Proved, June 24, 1745.†

Pieter and Jan Monfoort, probably brothers, emigrated from Holland to New Netherland at an early date. On 15 Dec 1639 Pieter Monfoort entered into a contract with Pieter Caeser Alburdis to make a plantation and build a house, probably at the Wallabout. Pieter Monfoort on 29 May 1741 obtained a patent for land at the Wallabout between the plantations of Jan Monfoort and Pieter Caeser Alburdis. Another patent obtained by him for the same land, 17 Aug 1743, described the land as "a piece of land for a Tobacco plantation." On 1 May 1747 an addition to this land was granted.
