

-- OAKLEY --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Rev. War Pension Files, W 26590, Eleanor, widow of Gilbert -- 19 Feb. 1851, Orange County, N. Y. Eleanor Oakley of Walkill, aged 86 yrs., widow of Gilbert, who died 30 Sept. 1805. Married 28 Dec. 1783. Service: Private under Capt. Thomas Nash in Coast Guards, Jan. 1781 to close of war. He resided in Fairfield County. She had not applied before, for pension. Had spoken of it to son Wakeman B. Oakley, but it was put off from time to time until she applied to her son-in-law Oliver Hulse. The family record was attached. Gilbert Oakley was born 11 May in 1761, and Eleanor Wakeman was born 15 July 1764, and they were married 28 Dec. 1783. 19 Feb. 1851. Orange County, N. Y. Damaris Kirby of Walkill, deposed. Was born New Fairfield and resided there during the Revolutionary War. She is now in her 80th yr. She knew Gilbert Oakley previous to his marriage. His father and her people were neighbors. Gilbert came home in Mar. 1783 with a leg not yet healed from some injury. Her father was at Danbury during the burning. Two bullets passed through his hat. Gilbert and Eleanor visited her in N. Y., and after the death of Gilbert, Eleanor came to her house to live. In Eleanor's absence, her daughter Abigail, wishing to use a chest which had belonged to her father, emptied it and destroyed the papers. 18 Sept. 1851. Fairfield. Lydia Nash deposed. She saw Gilbert Oakley in Capt. Thomas Nash's Company. Gideon Wakeman, aged 90 yrs. Served in Capt. Nash's Co., 1781 and 1782. Gilbert Oakley was in Capt. Nash's Co., etc. 20 Sept. 1851. Stephen Allen of Fairfield, aged 86 yrs., residing in Danbury, saw Oakley in service.

In his will, he wrote: ...I, John Oakley, of the Borrough Town of Westchester, Esq., being in an indiferent state of health. All debts to be paid, "and the charge of putting this will in force." I give to my son John, as Heir at Law, £10. I leave all my real estate to my sons, John and Stephen, and they are to pay to my son James £500, when of age. I leave to my sons, John and Stephen, all sums of money due to me. I leave to my son Stephen my negro boy "Luke," and to my daughter Elizabeth my negro girl "Hester," and to my daughter Mary a negro girl. I leave to my wife the use of personal estate during widowhood. If she dies, then my executors are to take care of the personal estate until my youngest daughter, Eustacia, is of age, and then to divide among all my daughters, except those who have had their portions already. My wife Sarah "and my three daughters who are unmarried" are to have their living in my house, and my son James is to have a home till of age. If either of my three daughters should marry, they are to have an out set. I make my wife and my sons, John and Stephen, executors. Dated May 19, 1773. Witnesses, Fredrick Williams, William Doty, John Hitchcock. Proved, June 9, 1773.

Miles Ockele registered the number and description of his cattle, with their marks, in the Town of Westchester on 11 June 1665.¹

December 18, 1682. "Then appeared before me, Mary the widow of Miles Oakley, and made oath that John Cranch died intestate. That it was his will that if he dyed that Mr. Wm. Richardson of Westchester should dispose of all of his estate for his wife and children, and that 24 hours before his decease he spoke these words in the deponents house where he dyed." John Pell. Matthew Pugsley testifies the same. He died October 24, 1682. Inventory amounts to £11.

2 Feb 1688, John Baily, of Westchester in New England, in an exchange of land, deeds to Mary Oakly, alias Cromwell, 8 acres fronting on the sheep pasture. Mary Oakly, or Cromwell, wife of John Cromwell, executor of Miles Oakly her late husband, deeds to John Baily 12 acres in the planting field, & 14 elsewhere.²

Oakley, Thomas

Thomas Oakley m, Abigail Farrington son of Miles Oakley & dau. of Thomas Farrington &
 Mary Wilmot Mary Ponton/Panton
 b. 1680 Westchester, NY b. about 1683
 d. before 26 May 1730 Westchester, NY d.

He was a carpenter and operated a saw mill in the Long Reach, Westchester Co., NY.

1 July 1697 (Westchester Town Trustee's Book, 1686-1702) -- "Whereas our beloved brother Richard Farrington, son of our father Thomas Farrington, late of Westchester, at his departure was to go on a voyage to Nevis, but since being informed that he was taken by the French and carried into France, and died there in prison....and whereas he had an estate from our father Thomas....we, the sister of Richard, come to an agreement on dividing the said estate." This was between Thomas Forgason and wife Mary, eldest daughter of Thomas Farrington, Elizabeth Farrington, the 2d daughter, and Abigail Farrington, the youngest daughter.¹

2 April 1698 (Town of Westchester Trustee's Book, 1686-1702) -- Benjamin Grant, husband of the said Elizabeth Grant, gives his consent to a transaction. Thomas Oakley and wife Abigail sell Benjamin Grant a right in the commonage.¹

31 July 1703 (Westchester Town Record, Book 3, p. 37, 38) -- Richard Ponton gives his grandson Thomas Oakley 8 acres adjoining the burnt swamp. Richard Ponton gives to his grand son and granddaughter, Thomas and Abigail Oakley, a £25 right in the commons.²

In his will, he wrote: In the name of God, Amen. April 28, 1730. I, Thomas Oakley, of the Borrough Town of Westchester, carpenter, being sick. I leave my body to be buried at discretion of my executors. I leave to my wife Abigail, a bed and bedstead, with curtains, blankets, bolsters, pillows, and other furniture, thereto belonging, and £10. I leave to my son Thomas, one horse, and my best saddle and bridle, and £5. I leave to my son Nehemiah, a mare and my old saddle and bridle. I leave to my daughter Jemima, a bed and furniture, and one cupboard which is coloured with blue, white, and red, and she is to allow the value of it out of her legacy. My executors are to sell all the rest of my estate, houses, and lands, mills, orchards, and personal estate. All debts to be paid, and the remainder to my wife and my children, Thomas, Jemima, Nehemiah, Abigail, Elisha, and Edward. The sons are to have their shares when 21, and the daughters when 18. The children under 14 years of age are to be put to trades. I make my son Thomas, and my brother, Miles Oakley, and my friend, Jonathan Odell, of Eastchester, executors. Witnesses, Thomas Gardner, John Cuer, Leonard Vincent. Proved, May 26, 1730, before Gilbert Merritt, Esq.
