

-- PIER --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Pier

Jan Theunisz and Arent Theunisz, his brother, were the immigrant ancestors of the Pier family in New York and New Jersey.

Many by this surname are found in the 1778 and 1780 Morris County Rateables for Hanover Township (printed in Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, Jan 1970).

The Descendants of Thomas Pier, who was of English descent (name rhymes with tire), was written by Joe Pierre, and published in 1995 by Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Bowie, MD 20716.

In their marriage intentions (2 Oct 1660) they were: Arent Teunis from Amsterdam, locksmith, 21 [actually 23], assisted by Jannetje Arentse his mother, living on the Palmstraat and Geesje Jans from Norden, widow of Pieter Carstense living on the Goudsbloemstraat (Marigold Street).

On 28 April 1661 Arent Theunissen signed a contract with Dirck de Wolfe in Amsterdam. De Wolfe "enlisted Arent Theunisz to sail from Amsterdam with his wife to New Netherland on the ship De St. Jan Baptist and upon arrival Arent was to go to Gravesend [Brooklyn] on Long Island to build a salt kettle under the direction of Mr. Evert Pietersz." They arrived in New Amsterdam 6 Aug 1661.

Jan Theunissen from Amsterdam was listed on board the St. Jan Baptiste, with two children ages 1 1/2 and 4 years old, embarking on 9 May 1661 from Amsterdam to New Netherland. His brother Arent Theunissen, with wife and two children 7 and 4 years old was also with him on this voyage. Arent and his wife Geesjie Jans had a child Harmen, baptised Aug 10 1661 in NY.<sup>1</sup>

The salt kettle was eventually built on nearby Coney Island. The salt refinery was openly opposed and constantly sabotaged by the largely English population at Gravesend, and de Wolff abandoned the enterprise after two years.<sup>4</sup>

Arent and his family removed to Wiltwyck (which was renamed Kingston in 1669). They were living in Hurley in 1670, when on 5 April 1670 Aaron Tunys [Arent Theunissen] appeared on the list of soldiers at Hurley.<sup>4</sup>

The m. record gives his name as "Spier." Because of the similar sound, his name is often written Tunis Speer. It is possible that he was an uncle of Jan Hendrickse Spier, the Acquackanonk patentee. Tunis was recorded as Johnson in many land transactions; also he was confused with the Spier family of NJ and recorded at times under that surname too.

Tunis came from New Amsterdam NY to Bergen New Jersey in 1684. He later moved to Second River (Belleville, NJ) where he purchased considerable land. Tunis can be found in the records under Pier, Peer, Aspeere, Spier, Speer, and Johnson (an anglicized version of his patronymic of Jansen, meaning "son of Jan") He is also found as Teunis Johnson alias Piere, with variant spellings of both Johnson and Piere.<sup>1</sup>

By 1726 he was a member of the Acquackanonk Church.

His will dated 1 Oct 1727, probated 9 Apr 1729, is signed with an X; in it he is called Tunis Pier. In it he lists wife Catherine and children Johanus, Thomas, Abraham, Jacob, Rachel and Janitee. Executors were his sons Johanus and Abraham. He lived Newark, Essex Co. NJ. Witnesses were Jno. Cooper, Gerret Wouterse, Matheus van Deusen. (Lib. B, p. 119 New Jersey Wills).
