

-- QUACKENBUSH --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Abraham Quackenbush took sides with both Revolutionary and Loyalist factions during the Revolution. He had 46-3/4 acres confiscated in 1779 for "offending against his allegiance." Apparently not all of his property was confiscated, for in 1796 his wife, Gerritje, was taxed for 50 acres and cattle, prob. in the Old Tappan area.

In his will dated 5 Sep 1795, pr. 20 May 1811, he describes himself as of Harrington, and mentions wife Gerritje, sons Cornelius, Abraham, John, and Peter; and daus. Elizabeth and Catharine.

bp. 15 Nov 1694 Brooklyn Ref Ch

In the Flatbush Ref Ch record of their marriage, they were: Jacob Quakkenbosch, j.m. geboren aan bouwery op Menades Ylant en wonende op Breukelen, en Anna Elizabeth Brouwer, j.d. geboren en wonende op Breukelen.

Anna Elizabeth Brouwer was a great-granddaughter of the famed Anneke Jans Bogardus. Anneke was an early settler of NYC and owned a farm in what was to become the financial center of Manhattan. In the latter part of the 1660s, Anneke's farmland was leased out on a 99 year lease. At the end of the first 99 years, the lease was extended for a second term. At the expiration of this second term, however, the land was not returned to Anneke's heirs. In the mid-1800s, various descendants of Anneke Jans joined together to pursue their legal claim to this land, by then already worth millions of dollars. The lawsuits brought by various descendants associations were, one by one, thrown out of court.

James Quackenbush served as a Pvt., Ensign, NY/NJ Militia, Revolutionary War Pension No. S15200. In NYC Marine Court, 9 Sep 1836, James Quackenbush, age 78, testified he was a resident of Kipps Bay, about 3 miles from the compact part of NYC. Born 8 Sep 1758 Schraalenburgh, Bergen Co., NJ. Lived in NYC when called to service, last 30 yrs. at Kipps Bay. I moved to Clarkstown, Rockland Co., NY in 1776 with my grandfather, James Van Orden; in 1781 I moved my family to my grandfather's, James Van Orden, home in Harrington, Bergen Co., NJ. Served under Lt. Walter Van Orden in the the Rockland Co., NY Militia, appointed Ensign under Captn. Blauvelt's Bergen Co., NJ Militia at close of war. I marched, often with no shoes, to the following places: Sneedens Landing, Short Clove, Kings Ferry, Slaughters Landing, encamped at Long Clove, guarded prisoners at Smiths Clove, near Suffern, militia rendezvous at a place in Bergen Co., NJ called in the Dutch language, "Cwasbrook/Lausbrook"? Took British officer Captn. Moody prisoner. Stayed in Hogenkamp's barn, a few miles south of the Baylor massacre. British surprized Captn. Craig's company, I escaped, among wounded was Lt. Blauvelt, killed were John Burges and Jacob Archer. I was sent out to try to capture Hessian General Knephausen/Knyphausen, he got away. I was sent out from the German Flats, in pursuit of some Indians, who were burning houses. I know the following men who can testify as to my war service, Samuel Delamater, William Westervelt, Sebe Brinkerhoff and Rev. John Demarest. Others mentioned in pension: Peter Stevens, Abraham Van Houten, John G. Blauvelt. All testifying as fellow soldiers in the Revolution on Sep 1836: Major Benjamin Romain, age 73, of NYC, Garret Oblenis, age 76, John Hutton, age 75, both of Clarkstown, Rockland Co; NY; Major General Peter S. Van Orden, age 73, of Ramapo, Rockland Co., NY.

James Quackenbush served as a sergeant in Col. Gilbert Cooper's regiment of Orange Co. militia in the Revolutionary War.

They apparently lived in Orange Co., NY where he was in the dry goods business, but later (abt. 1803) retired to Murray Hill, NYC.

Johannes Quackenbush	m.	Margaret Bogert
son of Wouter Quackenbush & Cornelia Bogaert		dau. of Claes Janszen Bogaert & Margaret Consilyea
b.		b. 1 March 1713
d. before 16 Jan 1775		d. 3 Oct 1785

In his will, he wrote: ...I, Johanes Quackenboss, of New York, butcher, being in health. All debts to be paid and an inventory made of all my estate. I leave to my son Walter £5, in lieu of his birthright. I leave to my wife Margaret the use of all my estate, real and personal, so long as she remains my widow, "Except that part of my estate that lyeth in the Manor of Rensselaerwyck, in the County of Albany." But she is not to sell any part of my estate, such as my tools of trade, slaves, horses, and goods, without the consent of my executors, and my children are to have the first choice. My estate in Rensselaerwyck is to be divided into four parts, and to be divided by lot between my children, Nicholas, Petrus, John, and Cornelia. If my wife marries, I leave her £20, yearly. After the death of my wife, all my estate in New York, and at Anquasanack and White Creek, in Albany County and elsewhere, is to go to my children equally. I make my wife and children, executors. Dated September 27, 1771. Witnesses, Stephen Terhune, Charles Morse, scrivener, Adam Dolmage. Codicil, October 14, 1774.
