

-- RIDNAR --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

In the NYC Ref Ch marriage banns record they were: Oben Reddenhasen, y.m. Uyt't Graefschap Waldeck, an Geertie Nonnincks, Wede. Van Tjerck Hendrickssen. He was from Hatzfeld near Waldeck (in Germany).

Reddenhausen, Abel, from Hatzfeld near [or by way of] Waldeck, immigrated 1641, shipbuilder. Married Geertje Nonnincks, widow of Tjerck Hendrickszen, died 1644. Left behind a single son Heinrich. His grandson Abel had 12 children, including 7 sons. The descendants wrote their name Ridner or Rednar.⁶

Abel Reddenhauser was a soldier, and he arrived at New Amsterdam in 1641. Geertje Nannincks arrived in 1641 on the Coninck David.

Abel Reddenhausen from Hatzfeld near [or by way of] Waldeck, immigrated 1641, shipbuilder. Married Geertje Nonnincks, widow of Tjerck Hendrickszen, died 1644. Left behind a single son Heinrich. His grandson Abel had 12 children, including 7 sons. The descendants wrote their name Ridner or Rednar.)¹

Geertie Nannings had two children from her first marriage, both of whom came with her when she as a widow came to New Amsterdam 11 July 1641 on de Coninck David (The King David). Her children from her first marriage were Hendrick Tjerks, age 13 in 1641, and Hester Tjerks, aged 11 in 1641. Note that apparently (most unusual) she had two living sons named Hendrick.

1643 Jan 27. Deposition. Geertje Nanninx and Roelant Hackwaert respecting some pits of Indian corn at Mareckkawick.³

1643 Jan 27. Declaration. Abel Rendenhasen that he made gloves from English duffels three years ago, in the bay.³

2 Aug 1644 "Giertje Nanninx, wid. of Abel Reddinhaus" sold a house and lot on the East River to Cornelis Melyn.⁵ This lot was on the east side of what later became the Heere Gracht.

On 21 July 1646 (Amsterdam Archives), Giertgen Nanningsdr widow of Abel Hendricxss Riddenhaes who has died in New Netherland, and her son Henrick Tiercxss from Amsterdam about to sail on the Prinse to New Netherland, give a power of attorney.²

Abel Rednar apparently died by 2 August 1644 when Geertje Nannings, widow of Abel Reddenhausen, sold her house in New Amsterdam to Cornelis Melyn (a house and lot on the East river, near Fort Amsterdam).

She apparently returned to Amsterdam after Abel's death, for on 21 July 1646 she is mentioned in the notarial records of Amsterdam as being about to sail for New Netherland with her son, Hendrick Tjerks, both being in the service of the Dutch West India Company. Possibly daughter Hester Tjerks remained in New Amsterdam caring for the infant Hendrick Reddenhausen.

On 21 July 1647, at NYC Ref Ch, Abel's widow Geertie Nannings married (3) Claes Janszen Kust (Rust) (Claes de Backer; Claes Jansen; Claes Jansen Van Emden), widower of Aechtje Cornelis Cool, and a baker from Emden (in Ost Friesland). He died prior to 18 Oct 1648 when guardians of the orphan children of Claes Janszen Rust (i.e. by his first wife) were authorized to sell property.

In 1648 or soon after, Geertje Nannings moved to Rensselaerwyck—where she had originally agreed to settle in 1641. Geertie apparently m. (4) about 1650, Willem Fredericks Bont (Bout), a carpenter from Leyden and subsequently farmer of the excise [on wines and spirits] in Albany.

* Tiercxss is a patronymic, meaning son of Tjerk in modern spelling. Tjerk Heyndrix from Belhem, age 26, spaansestoelen-maker (means maker of Spanish chairs, i.e. chairs with woven rattan seats) had his marriage intention registered in Amsterdam 29 May 1627 with Giertje Nanninx from Norden, age 20. They married in Amstelveen 13 June 1727. She afterward married Abel Hendriksz Riddenhaes and still later Claes de Backer. On 8 June 1648 a son Claes was bp. Conrad Rednor was a Loyalist and in 1779 or after removed from Bergen County to Ontario, Canada. He returned to the area sometime before 1800, when he purchased 60 acres. After his death in 1811, his estate of 127 acres was divided among his three surviving sons.

He may be the Conrad Ridner, aged over 45, listed in the 1800 Federal Census, living in Hempstead, Rockland County, NY.

On 14 October 1800 (recorded 25 March 1806, Bergen Co. X:269) Garret J. Hopper of the Town of Hempstead in the County of Rockland, State of [!] New Jersey [should be New York], yeoman, and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed to Conrad Ridner of the same place, yeoman, for $312,50, 60 acres in the Township of Saddle River at Preakness, bounded by Abraham Spear, Benjamin Spear. Signed by Garret J. Hopper, Elizabeth Hopper. Witnessed by Edward P. Eckerson, John G. Ackerman.²

On 6 December 1803 (recorded 25 March 1806, Bergen Co. X:249) Cornelius Smith of the Township of Franklin and Polly, his wife, conveyed to Conrad Ridner of Preakness, for $140, 14 acres more or less in Preakness, being full share of Henry Spear of New York, one of the heirs of estate of Jacob Spear, deceased. Bounded S by Singac Brook; W by land of Andrew Van Order, formerly belonging to Teunis Spear; N by said Conrad Ridner, which formerly belonged to Dr. Blackly; E by heirs of Jacob Spear, deceased. Signed by Cornelius Smith, Mary Smith. Witnessed by Abrm. Westervelt, Abraham Terhune.²

On 21 December 1805 (recorded 25 March 1806, Bergen Co. X:272) Gertrude Parker, Executrix of Last Will and Testament of James Parker, late of Perth Amboy, County of Middlesex, deceased, conveyed to Conrad Ridnor [Radnor?] of the County of Bergen, for $150, 52-95/100 acres more or less, in the Township of Saddle River, part of a 63-acre tract of said James Parker, mentioned corner of Henry Spier and brothers lot; John Mersales. Signed by Gertrude Parker. Witnessed by James Parker, Abrm. Willis.²

In his will dated 2 Nov 1811, pr 17 Dec 1811, "Coonrand Rednor, of Preconiss [Preakness], Saddle River Twsp., Bergen Co." mentions wife Elizabeth; sons Henry, Peter and John; daus Elizabeth (wife of Michael Freeland), Sophia (wife of Jacob Spear), Margaret (wife of William Blakely) and Caty. He also mentions grandson Coonrand, son of Henry. Executors were son Henry and friend John Van Orden. Witnesses were Cornelius F. Eckerson, Isaac Vanblarcom, and Cornelius Merseles.

An inventory of his estate (valued at $493.75) was made 10 Dec 1811 by Cornelius Merseles and Tunis I. Hennion. The inventory lists an adze and mason's hammer.

Bergen County Orphans Court records: p. 342, Nov 28, 1812, p.345, 1813: John Van Norden (Van Orden?), one of the Execs. of Conrad Ridnor, deceased, has land in Saddle River, bounded by the lands of Abraham J. Blauvelt and Jacob Spear, by Singac Brook.¹

Elizabeth's will is probably the one dated 18 April 1816, probated 2 May 1816. In it, Elisabeth Redner, of Saddle River

Twp., Bergen County, NJ gave to daughter Caty Redner, all her estate. The Executor was Thomas Dobbs. Witnesses were Garrabrant Van Houten, Henry B. Speer, and Michael Doremus. The will was signed by her mark.

Sophia Van Wijckersloot m. (1) 20 July 1652 Utrecht Dirck (Theodorus) Van Hamel s/o Daniel Van hamel & Geertruid Kuysten. They moved to Leyden and had two children: 1. Daniel van Hamel bpt 9 Mar. 1653 Leiden; 2. Catharina Mechtelina van Hamel bpt 14 Oct. 1654 Leiden. In 1655 Dirck Van Hamel was appointed secretary of the Colony of Rensselaerswijck. Sophia was in the Colony in 1656 but by 1659 had returned to Utrecht where she had another son, 3. Henric Van Hamel bpt 15 Sept 1659 Utrecht.

Sophia returned to Rensselaerswyck in 1660 and her husband Dirck Van Hamel died 2 July 1660 at Fort Orange. Sophia m. (2) before 20 June 1661, Anthony Toinel, a trader at Beverwyck. One child known, who died in 1662: unknown Toinel died before 7 Dec. 1662 Albany.

As a young man Heinrich Riddenhauer visited Holland, returning March 15, 1663, in De Rosenboom. Soon after his marriage to Sophia, he and his wife appear at Hackemack, Accomack County, Virginia, where at least one of their children was born (Abel).¹

Hendrick Riddenhaas and Sophia Van Wyckersloot lived at Albany, NY. He was a carpenter and shipbuilder. Sophia Van Wijckersloot, on Aug. 1, 1661, acted as agent for her father, selling merchandise from the ship Beaver out of Patria. In the document she is listed as Sophia Van Wyckersloot; "her husband" Anthony Toinel is listed as helping.

Hendrick Abelsen Reddenhasen [sic] appears several times in the Early Records of the City and County of Albany and Colony of Rensselaerswyck Vol. 3 (Notarial Papers 1 and 2, 1660-1696) translated by Jonathan Pearson, edited by AJF Van Laer.)

The first entry is dated 8 Feb 1681/2 and is a contract of sale between Jacob Salomonsen and Hendrick Albelsen of a house and lot in Greenbush. Hendrick purchased from Jacob a house and lot 'lying in the Greyne Bosch, between the lot of Jan Oouthout and Surgeon Cornelis van Dyck". The purchase price was 33 beavers to be paid in two installments.

On the 2 May 1682 Hendrick Abelsen and Juriaen Calier contract to build a boat for Cornelis Cornelissen van der Hoeven and Andries Hansen Scherp. It's an interesting document with the proposed boat carefully described in minute detail. Hendrick and Juriaen agree to begin work on 3 May and 'not to stop until all the aforesaid work shall be completed" They are to be paid 60 beavers, in two payments -- one in Oct. 1682, the second in June 1683.

On 30 June 1684 Heyndrick Abelsz [sic] and Nanningh Harmansz purchased the sloop "de Royael Ock" (then lying on the shore before New Albany) from Meuwes Pietersz Hoogheboom. They pay the sum of 50 good whole merchantable beaver skins at 8 guilders apiece. (In an earlier document this sloop is referred to as "de Royael Lock" and in English as "The Royal Oak")

On 9 Sept 1684 Hendrick sold his half in the sloop to Nanning -- rather a brief partnership. The price agreed on was 15 beavers (a loss, since he presumably paid 25 for his share only 3 months previously). Hendrick also agreed to work on the sloop for 10 days and help 'lay the wales and bow peices" His name on this document is rendered as "Hendrick Ridderhalve"

Rednorsville is a concentrated rural community located 19 miles northwest of Picton, the County seat, and 5 miles southwest of Belleville Station. The community was named for Henry. A post office was established 6 Jan 1846; first Postmaster was William Herman (P.O. closed 28 Feb 1941). The P.O. was named Rednersville for Henry Redners, one of the first settlers in the area. The place name was misspelled as Remonsville and Rednerville. The present approved name is Rednersville. It had a population of 300 in 1892, and 132 in 1976.

He may be the John Redner, age 45 and over, living in Warwick, Orange County, NY at the time of the 1800 Federal Census.

On 28 April 1807 (recorded 11 May 1807, Bergen Co. Z:391) John Radnar and Catharine, his wife, of the Township of Pompton, conveyed to Abraham Pulis of the Township of Franklin, for $2,035.30 several parcels in the settlement of Long Pond; mentioned Old House of Peter Fisher. Signed John Ridner, Cate Ridner. Witnessed by Abrm. C. Lines, David Andrews.¹

John Ridner, of Settlement of Long Pond, Pompton Twp., Bergen County, farmer, dated his will 24 June 1814; it was probated 5 Sep 1814. In it he mentioned wife, Catherine, to have 2 cows, household furniture as she thinks proper, pair oxen, ox chain, wood sled, wagon and two skips of bees, Son Peter $400. Son John, $450. Son Abel, $250. Son Henry, $350. Son James, $350 when of age. Daughters Sarah (wife of Paul Miller); Ann (wife of Joseph Sandford), each $25. Daughter Agnes, bed and bedding, cow and $45. Grandson Jonathan Hellick, $25. Granddaughter Elinor Smith, $3. Residue to be used for maintenance of wife, Catherine, during her widowhood (from sales of estate after debts are paid), and in case of misfortune, my sons are to support her. Any residue at her death or marriage, to be divided equally between children. The share of any son who should die before coming of age and without issue to survivors. Executors — friends Robert Colfax, Esq., Adrian Post. Witnesses — James P. Neblow, Edward P. Eckerson, Peter Cooley. In a codicil dated 23 July 1814 he specified: bequests to wife are in lieu of dower. Whereas I have a mortgage on the Dougherty place and William Colfax also has a small mortgage thereon subsequent to mine, to save trouble in foreclosing same, if said William Colfax will procure a deed or release from said Dougherty and finance said property to my estate, my Executors will pay him the amount of his mortgage. Witnesses — Elizabeth Wells, Andrew C. Miller. An inventory totalling $1,305.37 was made by Edward P. Eckerson and Benjamin Cooley.
