

-- SCHOUT, SCHOUTEN --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

He was a shoemaker. Jan and his wife, Sara (Saertie), and suckling [child], came to New Netherlands on 17 Feb 1659 on the Dutch ship "De Otter" skippered by Cornelis Reijers van der Beets, arruving as "Jan Luycas, shoemaker, from Oldenzeel, wife and young child." Oldenzijl is near Eemsmond in the northern part of the province of Groningen -- very near the sea-coast to the north and a tad east of the city of Groningen. Just to the east is the mouth of the Ems river which divides the Netherlands from Germany.

Residing briefly at New Castle, Delaware, and then at Bergen, NJ, they finally settled behind Pearl Street in New Amsterdam. Jan operated the sloop 'Liberty', carrying wheat, flour and other goods to the settlements along the Hudson. After Jan's death, His wife Sara was found in the records as a butcher.<sup>2</sup>

Jan Schouten, en syn huysv. Sara Jans, were listed in the 1686 Dominie Selyns list of the members of the NYC Ref Ch. They were living on Paerl Straet (Pearl Street) (Between State and Whitehall Sts.). Listed before them were: ...Aeltje Schepmoes, we. v. Jan Evertszon Keteltas; Susanna Marsuryn, wed. van Claes Bording; Gerrit van Gilden; Pieter le Grand, en syn huysv. Janneken de Windel. Listed after them were: Lysbeth Schouten; Dirck Theuniszen, en syn huysvr. Catalina Frans; Warnar Wessels, en syn huysvr. Lysbeth Cornelis; Nicolaes Blanck.<sup>3</sup>

In his will, he wrote: Jan Schouten, New York (written in Dutch form). "In the Name of God, Amen. Know all men who shall see this present Publick Instrument, that on March 9, 1685/6, before me, Wm. Bogardus, Notary Public, admitted by the Rt. Hon. Thomas Dongan; Jan Schouten and Sarah Janse, married and now living in this city well known to me and to the witnesses. Being both in good health." They leave all their estate to "the longest liver of the two." If either remarry then one half is to go to the children. Their son Lucas is to have a double share. Their daughter Janetie, wife of Peter Stevenson, is to have only the use of her part, "so long as she is bound to him, her said husband," and is to descend to her son Johanes. "Other children" mentioned but not named. Witnesses, Nicholas Delaplaine, Jacob Boelin. Translated by P. DeLanoy. Proved at Court of Records, March 15, 1690. Confirmed at Fort William in New York, May 2, in the second year of his Majesty's Reigne, 1690.<sup>1</sup>
