

-- SCUDDER --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

In his will, he wrote: ...May 17, 1732. I, Benjamin Scudder, of Huntington, in Suffolk County, being sick. I leave to my son Thomas the northwest part of my old lot down the East Neck, bounded as far southward as to the place where I have begun to set a new fence, from a little cove and so eastward to the highway that leads through the little East Neck; Also a certain piece of woodland called a Hollow, joining to the rear of said Thomas Scudder's home lot, and joining east to Daniel Kelly, and as far south as to the top of the hill that makes the said Hollow; Also a small piece of fresh meadow lying on the south side of the old mill dam, that I bought of Cornelius Smith; "Also 10 acres of land that comes by the Division before last." And he shall pay £60 to my youngest son Peter before May 17, 1740; and £10 to my son Ezekiel. I leave to my sons Benjamin and Isaiah, each £10, both to be paid by my son Jacob. I leave to my son Jacob 1/2 of my mill, and the land where it stands, with the privilege of streams and pondage, with all buildings, bolting mills and all belonging to them. And my son Jacob shall pay "to my kind and loving wife Mary, 10 bushels of good wheat yearly." I leave to my son Moses all that certain tract of land at a place called Wolf Pit Hollow, a little north from Ground nut Hollow, upon the Hills between the two paths, that lead down to the vineyard, containing 4 acres. I leave to my son Jacob a tract of woodland lying at the northeast from Benjamin's field as the way leads down to the Cove, joining north and east by the highway near my vineyard, and containing 4 acres. I leave to my son Moses, my house and barn where I now live, and all my home lot and orchard, and all the woodland above my home lot, joining east to the highway that leads down the Great Neck, bounded south by my son Thomas, land that he bought of Major Platt, and partly by land of Thomas Jones and Daniel Kelly, and my son Benjamin Scudder, and Jonathan Whitaker, and north by land I gave to my son Thomas, as far as the top of the Hill, that butts chiefly against the upper end of my son Thomas' home lot, and partly against the rear of my home lot, and running upon the top of the Hill eastward till it comes to the path that goes to Daniel Kelly's field, and partly by the lot I bought of John Canfield, and west by the harbor highway, And all that tract of meadow lying eastward of the mill, and trench below the mill, and so running south by the dam, and by the trench that leads into the mill pond, up to the old mill dam to the bridge, from thence east by the highway, and bounded east by Thomas Jarvis, Jr., and by Mr Garrett Van Horne's land, and north by the highway over the creek; Also all that tract of land at the place commonly called the vineyard, bounded east by William Jarvis, Sr., south by Jonathan Wickes, hollow, west by the highway, and north by the old Cove path; Also a tract of land lying by the Harbor, bounded north by the land I have given to my son Thomas; east by the highway that leads through Little East Neck, south by William Johnson's land, being 25 acres. And he is to pay £30 to my son Ezekiel, and £10 to my daughter Sarah, wife of Epenetus Platt, Jr.; and £10 to my daughter Ruth Rogers, and £10 to my son Isaiah. My wife Mary is to have 1/3 of my orchard at my home lot, where I now live, and the west end of my house, "with the privilege of the cellar; and kitchen to bake in and wash;" Also £50 and a negro girl, and she is to have four sheep, and fire-wood and pasture. I leave to my daughter Ann, £50. I leave to my son Thomas 3/4 of a £100 right in the Old Purchase, and in the Baiting Place Purchase. And to my sons Jacob and Moses I leave 1/2 of a £100 right in the same. I make my wife Mary and Daniel Kelly, executors. Witnesses, Charles Saxton, Jonathan Whitaker. Proved, October 21, 1739.

I bequeath to my dearly beloved wife Deborah ye use and income of ye one half of my Plantation during her widdowhood, in lieu of her dower after her decease to my son, Samuel Scudder, all ye plantation I now possess, he paying the following Legacys, that is to say: To his sister Sarah £100. To his sister Deborah £100. He shall also pay to my granchildren, ye children of my daughter, Mary Renne, by name John, Deborah, Mary, Sarah and Elizabeth Renne, £20 apiece, that is £20 to John Renne in a year after my daughters, Sarah Scudder and Deborah Scudder, are paid, and so £20 a year to the rest of my said granchildren as they are in course till they are all satisfied and paid. To my daughters, Sarah and Deborah Scudder (after my wife's decease) all my moveable estate, equally divided. Further I will that if my son Samuel shall sell ye plantation bequeathed to him that then he shall pay ye full legacys to his sisters at the time of the first payment, and to my granchildren as they arrive to the age of twenty-one. Sarah Kip
(widow of Joseph Crane)

William Scudder was a Lt. in the NY First Regt. during the Revolution.¹

During the Revolution, he was captured by Indians at Fort Stanwix and held prisoner in Canada for three years. He authored a privately printed book on the subject, detailing his ordeal during the years 1779-1782. Well-read and religious, education was important to him. In his writings, he often complains of health ailments and frailties and laments that his first marriage was not by his choice. In 1791, a year prior to his marriage to Sarah, William Scudder purchased 5,490 acres of land in western Virginia from Francis Graves, one of many land speculators who were non-residents of Greenbrier County [West Virginia].¹

In the early years of their marriage, William and Sarah lived in Orange County, New York, where William was running a freighting business from the wharfs of Old New Windsor Village. In 1794, Sarah and William relocated to Manhattan with the birth of their daughter, Sarah; and four years later, their son, William Kip Scudder, was born. Within a year, Sarah Kip Crane Scudder was once again a widow.¹
