

-- STORM, STORMS --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Storm/Storms

The first of the name in New Netherlands was Dirck Storm, b. 1630 at Leyden, Holland, who came to New Amsterdam in 1662 on De Vos (the Fox).

Another family of similar surname, Sturm, came from Germany (said to have come about 1770 and settled largely in Pennsylvania, but some lived north of Haverstraw).

Genealogical material on the Storm/Storms family includes:

According to the ship records of "D Vos" (The Fox), he was 1-1/4 years old on arriving in America on August 31, 1662. He came with his parents and two older brothers Gregorius and Pieter, and was probably born and baptized at Hertogenbosch, Holland, as his father brought a letter from that Church with him to this country.¹

After living in N. Y., he removed with his parents, first to Kingston in 1664, then back to N. Y. in 1665, to Brooklyn in 1671, to Tappan, Orange Co., N. Y. about 1690 and in 1698 he was at Philips Burgh (Tarrytown) N. Y., where he married and settled with his family. He lived there the remainder of his life.¹

Like his father, he was a very active member of the Old Sleepy Hollow Dutch Church of Tarrytown, N. Y. In fact, he seems to have preceded his father who did not remove to Philips Burgh until 1704. He was elected Deacon 1699, and Elder in 1702,

1703, 1707, 1709, 1710, (records missing from 1711 to 1715), 1716, 1723, 1726, 1729, 1733 and 1739.¹

They lived at Philipsburgh which was in the north subdivision of the Manor.

They lived at 152 West Saddle River Road in Saddle River, Bergen Co., NJ in a house built about 1880.

Frank H. Storms ran a grocery store in the front of his house at Saddle River by 1890 and by Sep 1892 was running a livery stable and moving business (he opened his Allendale "branch" livery in April 1895). He was also postmaster at Saddle River by 1895, but resigned in April 1897 because of pressures of business with his store and livery. He ran a livery service from Yeomans' barn near the Allendale railroad station in 1895. In the early 1900s he was a general contractor and builder; in the 1910 Census he was a road and highway contractor. In January 1920 he was a house builder. F. H. Storms and Co. erected numerous buildings in the area (including the "Old Building" of Saddle River's Wandell School in 1917), maintained roads, dug graves, cut ice, and put down water drains. He had the largest local contracting firm employing Italian immigrants as stone masons.

At the time of the 1885 New Jersey State Census they were living in Hohokus Township (Saddle River area) as a second family in the same dwelling with Martin M. Smith, Catherine Smith, and Charles W. Smith. Listed in the family of Frank Storms were Jane A. Storms, Katie Storms, and John Monroe.

Frank H. Storms, 38, Grocer, and Jennie A., 35, his wife, were listed in the 1900 Federal Census, living in Saddle River Borough, Bergen County, NJ in a house they owned. Listed with them were: Catherine J. Storms, 15; Francis H. Storms, 14; and Ella E. Storms, 6.

In April 1910 and January 1920 they were living on West Saddle River Road in a house they owned. Living with them in January 1920 was his mother, Ellen Storms, 83, a widow, b. NJ.

They were listed in the 1850 Federal Census, Bergen Co., Hohokus Twp. (Allendale-Waldwick area), Dwelling #616, Family #673. He was listed as a farmer. Living in the same dwelling are John Storms, 32 (prob. his son); Catherine Storms, 31, and Lewis Van Horn, 4.

Isaac J. Storms was Township Clerk of Hohokus Township, 1854-1856.

On 25 June 1825 (Hackensack V2: 475) Isaac Storms and Rachel, his wife, of the Township of Franklin conveyed to Abraham A. Quackenbush of the Township of Franklin, for $350, lying in the Township of Franklin, the first being a lot whereon Isaac Dey formerly lived and contains 50 acres more or less being part of lot No. 70 as marked or distinguished on a map or chart of the Ramapough Tract. The second being plot no. 69 as marked on the aforesaid map and adjoins the former...[this land seems to have been in the Franklin Lakes-Oakland area).

He is likely the Isaac I. Storms mentioned in the 1835 will of Abraham A. Quackenbush: ...to Isaac Storms son of John I. Storms land purchased Thomas Pound Franklin except part NW corner lot devised to Cornelius Quackenbush containing about 56 acres. The whole of Pound farm contained 250 acres. Andrew, Abraham & Isaac Storms should support & maintain Anne Terhune, widow of Andrew Terhune, deceased, during her widowhood.

On 7 Sep 1840 (Hackensack B4: 519) William Shannon and Leah, his wife, of the Township of Franklin, conveyed to Isaac I. Storms and Martin C. Blauvelt of the Township of Franklin, 35 acres more or less, being a lot of land devised to said Leah, wife of said William Shannon, by the Last Will and Testament of Abraham Quackenbush, deceased. Some boundaries named are lands of Aaron A. Ackerman, Albert Garrison, John Smith, and the public road leading from John Smith's mills to Paterson.

There may have been TWO contemporary Ellen Storms living in the Allendale/Saddle River area.

About 1849 (13 May 1850) Jeremiah Storms, [and] brother of John A., Letter of guardianship granted [until they reach 14 years when they may choose another guardian] to Isaac J. Storms appt. 13 May 1850. Hack. Co. Records.

A Jeremiah Storms age 8/12 or 8? is in home of David Christie age 28, blacksmith and Ann Eliza, 27. (1850 Census taken Aug 13-21, 1850, Hohokus Twp.fam. #392-430 and 391-431.)

Jeremiah Storm, 19, Farmer, and Ellen Storm, 20 were listed in the 1860 Federal Census, living in Franklin Township, Godwinville P.O. (probably in the Waldwick or Allendale area?). He was listed as a farmer with real estate valued at $4,000 and personal estate valued at $400. Living with them was George Quackenbush, black, 58, a farm laborer, and Ann Davis, 54.

In the NJ state record of the birth of their son Francis, they were of Mount Prospect, NJ; he was a farmer.

Jeremiah Storms, Ellen Storms, and Francis Storms were listed in the 1865 State Census for Hohokus Township possibly living in the area of Allendale.

Jeremiah/Jerry Storms, at age 28 years, in 1869 left his wife and three children. He was jailed for stealing and reselling horses. Newspaper accounts mention his step-father but not by name. Jeremiah spent 21 years in prison. He was in Trenton prison for many years. He is mentioned in the local papers of the time. Bergen Democrat--11-30-1894, Jerry Storm Obit / Article. 9-26-1884, Jerry Storms serving 20 yr. in state prison, Trenton wrote to John W. Bogert hoping for help in securing a pardon. Had been in prison for 15 years. Jan 29, 1869 Paterson Weekly Guardian --Bamper's horse stolen3 weeks ago Dec 1868. Jan 29, 1869 - Paterson Weekly Guardian --Bamper's horse stolen and sold to person who said he got it in trade from Jeremiah Storms. Jerry was already under indictment to appear for stealing Mr. White's horse. Jerry's step-father lost horse 3 weeks ago Dec 1868. Paterson Guardian, 10/1/69 Accident in prison-thumb joint wrenched off. 7/17/69-had been sentenced. Paterson Guardian 7/28/69 Arrest of Jerry Storms, after a run of less than a year. Has relations of high standing in Bergen Co. 8 July 1869 robbed White paper maker at Waldwick. Mr. White ad in Philadelphia ledger, reward of 200. Police of Wilmington, Del. Jerry had been living in Wilmington under name of Jerry Nelson. He came to Hohokus on freight train and ran[?] the property to Delaware. He had 3 accomplices.

Ellen was keeping a store at Allendale by June 1871, when it was burglarized.

Ellen and Jeremiah (Gary; Jerry) were divorced. She m. (2) (while Jerry was still living) before 1880 Andrew J. Oblenis.

Jerry Storms, probably this Jeremiah Storms, according to the Dec 1894 issue of The Landscape, was murdered on 26 Nov 1894. The Landscape reported: " On Monday evening, the 26th, Jerry Storms, a resident of Allendale, on his way home, stopped at St. George's "hotel" on the Paterson road, in Ridgewood. While Jerry was in the house, St. G., without the owner's knowledge, took Jerry's conveyance and, with a companion, drove away, going to a barber's in another part of the village.

After a while, Jerry discovered his loss, and, impatient at the delay the act caused, in keeping him from going home, Jerry set off on foot to find St. George and obtain possession of his property. Some time later, about 10 p.m., he was found, with his head crushed, lying dead in Prospect St. At first it was supposed that he had been run over, but it is now strongly suspected that a murder has been committed. The coroner's jury charge some one "unknown" with the crime. According to the Bergen Democrat, Jeremiah was found dead in front of residence of James R. Day, Prospect St.

Ellen was listed in the 1895 State Census, living alone, probably on or near West Allendale Avenue, near what is today Allendale's business section. She lived in and owned the toll gate house on Franklin Turnpike in Allendale. In June 1905 she was listed, living alone in a house she owned, a widow, and her occupation is given as landlady.

On September 27, 1899 Mrs. Ellen Storms held an auction of "Fine collection of books, parlor and kitchen furniture, at [the] Old Gate House, Allendale." Old-time Allendale residents remembered that she would periodically accumulate a collection of goods and then conduct a sale or auction at the gate house.

A newspaper obituary for Mrs. Storms reads: Mrs. Ellen Storms Dies, Aged 92--Was Member of Old Family-Services Yesterday Afternoon.-- Funeral services of Mrs. Ellen Storms, who died in Saddle River Tuesday morning at the age of ninety-two, were held at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the mortuary chapel in Ridgewood, with Rev. E. Dreibelbeis, pastor of the Saddle River Lutheran Church, in charge. Interment took place at Airmount cemetery. Aunt of J. Hosey Osborne, postmaster in Passaic, and grandmother of F. Hosey Storms, prominent contractor of Saddle River, the deceased was, until recently, the head of five generations of well-known residents of Bergen and Passaic counties. The break came when her only son, Frank H. Storms, died of pneumonia. Her own death came because of infirmities. Friends and relatives of the families have for many years regarded Mrs. Storms as a lively source of interest, particularly because of her wont to tell of old times about Bergen county, giving her own impressions and opinions of affairs. She was born in Airmount, and often related of how she had trudged miles to neighbors to carry fire for the household and of her delight when her family purchased a tinder-box of friction type. Children, and there were always many of them about the homes of her married offspring, brought pleasure to her when they begged stories of witchcraft and Indians, which were related to her by her parents. She herself, told of the times when she lived in Waldwick and noted the activities of the stage stations at that place when horses and travelers were fed and rested on the long and dreury [sic] trips from Upper New York and Pennsylvania towns to New York city. For many years until she came to live at the home of her son and grandson in Saddle River, she lived at the 'Gate home' in Allendale. The term came by reason of the fact that it was the toll gate house of the practically only main highway between New York and New Jersey. Stories of the Revolutionary and Civil Wars were detailed, some by reason of the facts mentioned by her parents and grandparents and information coming to her personally. Years ago she was an interesting figure to the prominent residents of Paterson, particularly when she aided the bookstore of J. Hosey Osborne, which was located on Van Houten street, between Main and Washington streets. She often helped the business by visiting homes to display special editions. Despite her age and former activities, Mrs. Storms until recently needed no assistance and was positive in her beliefs. She disliked liquor and tobacco and was not backward in giving reasons. Another delight to the folks was her splendid eyesight telling of how she borrowed a set of eyeglasses twenty-five years ago, carefully nursing them. Her reading was general, but constant application to the Bible and poetry enable her to recite for long periods, especially the former, which she could repeat from every page.

John H. Storms was born a deaf mute. In the 1850s he was placed in the New York Institution of the Deaf and Dumb, located near the Hudson River in the Bronx area, where he learned sign language as well as reading and writing and instruction in carpentry.

He was a carpenter who lived on Pascack Road in what is today Park Ridge, Bergen County, NJ. In 1872 he moved his sash, blind, and door factory to the western bank of the Pascack Brook. In 1875 he built a three-story house on Park Avenue, next to his Pascack Brook factory. The mill stood where today is the Quackenbush Lumber Company, while the house was located on the land later occupied by the Park Ridge Fire House.²

The Storms sash and blind business apparently ran into difficult times, and in 1895 John H. Storms agreed to sell his house and factory to Jacob Kerner of New York. John, Nellie, and Edith moved to Brooklyn near the residence of Nellie's aunt, Dora Amos Carlock, former resident of Park Ridge. When his father, Henry J. Storms died on 11 Jan 1899, John H. Storms received 2/3 of his remaining land in Park Ridge, and eventually purchased the other third from Augusta Storms, save for the Pascack Road house, which she retained. John and his family moved back to Park Ridge in 1901, occupying a house on the west side of Hawthorne Avenue between the hotel and the depot.²

Nicholas Storms of "Greenborough," ["Greenburgh, Westchester Co." elsewhere in application] NY served in the Revolutionary War as a private in the Company commanded by Captain Dutcher of the Regt. commanded by Col. Hammond in the Militia for 15 months and 6 days. He applied for a pension, which was granted 7 June 1833 for $50.66 per year. In his application, he appeared in the court of common pleas 27 March 1833, age 76, and declared that he entered service in July 1776 in the company of Militia in Westchester County commanded by Captain William Dutcher in the Regiment commanded by Lt. Col. James Hammond, and was stationed at Tarrytown; he served several terms, being honorably discharged, and then entering service again from 1776-1780. Testifying that they knew Nicholas Storms and could verify his Revolutionary War service were Thomas G. Smith, a clergyman living in Greenburgh and Peter Paulding, living in Mount Pleasant. After his death, his widow, Lana applied for his pension. She provided burth dates of their children from the Family Bible. She signed by mark. She left heirs: Nancy Bayles, Nicholas Storms, Catharine Van Wart, and Rachel Martling. Nancy Bayles applied for the pension on behalf of the surviving children 10 June 1846.¹

Thomas became a farmer on the Philipsburg Manor and purchased land in Dutchess County.

His will was dated 28 June 1763. In it, he wrote: June 28, 1763, and in the 3d year of the Reign of King George III. I, Thomas Storm, of Philips manor, in Westchester County, yeoman, being well in health. "I will and order that all such Debts I owe in Law or Conscience to any Person or Persons whatsoever to be well and truly satisfied." I leave to my well-beloved wife Annace "what she brought to me, what is now in being"; Also the new chair and chair horse and furniture, and likewise 1/2 of the homespun blankets, and 1/3 of all movables, except the cattle, sheep, and swine, and household goods, which I leave to my daughters, Catharine and Engeltie, and my 5 sons, Garret, Gores, Abraham, John, and Isaac. I leave to my wife the choice of best rooms, and the keeping of a horse and cow, and provision and fire wood during her widowhood. But if she chooses to remarry, then my son Isaac shall pay her for her rights the sum of £60. I leave to my granddaughters, Christina and Ann, daughters of my son Thomas, deceased, £40, "in full bar of their ever making any further claim as being the daughters of my eldest son Thomas." I leave to my sons, Garret and Gores, "my first Purchase or tract of land that I purchased in Rumbouts Precinct in Duchess County, being 406 acres." My son Garret is to have 208 acres, with the buildings and orchards, and my son Gores is to have 202 acres, with the buildings thereon, where he now liveth. I leave to my son Abraham my second Purchase in Rumbout Precinct, lying on the south side of Fish kill or creek, except 10 acres of wood land joining the farm which formerly belonged to Nathaniel Yeomans. I leave to my son John the said 10 acres of wood land, and also my third Purchase in Rumbout Precinct. I leave to my son Isaac my improvements in Philips Manor which I now hold under Hon. Col. Frederick Philipse. I leave to my 5 sons all my right in the store house and land, being 1/20 of the buildings and 12 acres of land, and they shall pay to my grandson Abraham, son of my son Jacob, deceased, £100 when he is of age, And they shall pay to my two daughters, Catharine, wife of Jacob Byse, and Engeltie, each £100 for their portion and legacy. I leave to my son Isaac 2/3 of all my grain, and my weaver's loom. I leave to my two daughters "the bed and bedding that I had in my first wife's life." I make my sons, Garret and Isaac, and my neighbor, William Davis, executors. Witnesses, Abraham Adriance, Dirck Hegeman, John Clements, "both of Dutchess County." Proved in Duchess County, January 15, 1770.

He was listed in the 1930 Federal Census, New Jersey, Bergen Co., Ramsey, West of RR, (Ancestry p. 18 of 32), taken 14 April 1930, living on Oak Street, Dwelling 239, Family 237 -- Storms, William H., Head, Ownmed property valued at $6,300, age 41, Single, b. NJ, his oarents b. NJ, Laborer, Odd Jobs; Catherine, Mother, age 69, Wd., age at first marriage 29, b. NJ, her parents b. NJ

From The Daily Home News, Monday afternoon, 23 July 1934: Rejected Suitor Sets Fire To Barn With Old Gas; Critically Burned -- RAMSEY, July 23, William Storms, 43 year old Oak Street farmer, proposed marriage to his sweetheart for the second time today, was refused and then started out on a suicide plan -----, he told police. It was from a bed in the Good Samaritan Hospital that Storms related his story. He was taken there so critically burned that he may not live, after fire had swept a barn at his farm. Storms first said he had burned trying to save his horses from the burning building, but later changed his story. This morning Chief of Police Voss quoted the injued man as saying he had proposed marriage to Jennie Quackenbush, 45. She refused him last night, and again when he appeared today. The refusal decided him on suicide, Storms allegedly revealed. First he withdrew $2,400 in savings from a local bank and stuffed it in a sweater pocket. From a hiding place on the farm he added another $1,200 to the money, then taking a shot gun, went to the barn there to shoot his prized horses before turning the gun on himself, Chief Voss said. Storms shot one horse, but the flash of flame from the muzzle of the old shotgun was so fierce that it ignited hay and in a few minutes the entire barn was a mass of flames. The farmer, his clothing ablaze with flames that consumed the $3,600 in his sweater pocket, staggered to safety and collapsed, to be found later by the first person to reach the fire.
