

-- SUYDAM --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Suydam, Hendrick Reyke (Heyndryck; Rycke; Rycker; Rijcken)

Hendrick Reyke [Suydam] m. 1666
d. 1701 Freehold, Monmouth Co., NJ

Ite Jacobs (Ida)

Henrick Rycke, the immigrant, came to New Netherland, March 1663, on "The Rose Tree", possibly from Zutphen, Netherlands, or Zuydt Dam (South Dam), an unknown location. He was a resident (patentee, 1669) of Flatbush since 1663, but had first settled in Smit's Vly, near present Peck's Slip, as a blacksmith (house and land, 1638). He sold his house and property to Dirck Van der Cleef/Cliff, for whom Cliff St was named. On Feb 5, 1667/8, he bought of Simon Hansen Van Noostrant a Bouwery in Midwout for 3300 gl. In 1677, he lived on Maiden Lane at the East River. In 1678, he went to Flatbush, where, on Apr, 1679, he joined Flatbush DRC. 1687, Oath of Allegiance.

On 18 Feb 1677 John/Johannes Smeados [Smeedis], of the City of New York, Mariner, for 2900 guilders, conveyed to Henry Ricken of the same City, Blacksmith, all that house and grounds with the Orchard and peece of Pasture ground and a Broad Alley toward the Water-side...in a certain Place called the Smith's Fly between the houses and Lotts of Jacob Hollabek and Henry Lamberts Moll and Backward to the Shoemakers' Pasture... Witnessed by Francois Rombout, Dirck Vander Cliyffe. Rycken sold this land on 11 Aug 1681 to Dirck Van Der Cliff, merchant of New York. This deed was witnessed by John Colier, John Jnians, and John West.

Hendrick Rycken was one of the twenty-six Patentees of the town of Flatbush. The Patent was granted by Lieut.-Governor Dongan in 1685. The territory extended eastward to the Jamaica line; Brooklyn, Flatlands, Gravesend, and Jamaica Bay were the boundaries in the other directions. It included all of New Lots, which afterwards became a separate town.

A list of the names of the residents "off fflackbush" who took the oath of allegiance to "King James the 2d of Great Britain, &c, from the 26th to the 30th day of September in the 3d year of his Maytsh Raigne Annoque Domine, 1687." The third name in this list is "hendrick Rijken 24 jeare" in this country.

"The census of King's County "about 1698" represents Hendrick Ryke living at Flatbush, his wife still living and three children at home. At that time he was the owner of three slaves. The children were the three girls, Gertrude, of the feeble mind, Jannetje, now sixteen years of age, and Ida, named after her mother. Ida married Jan Aertsen, and Jannetje married Tunis Rapalje."

His will was signed and witnessed on the 13th of December, 1689. In it, he wrote: I Henry Ryke of Kings County upon Long Island in the Dominion of New England...after directing a decent burial, mentioned eldest son Jacob Rycke twelve shillings in lew of his double portion in consideration of severall benefitts already received out of my estate. Mentioned "my daughter Geertruda a double portion in consideration yt she is defective & simple in mind; mentioned wife Yda all my goods houses lands slaves & all other moveables of linen wooling household stufte actions & credits none excepted dureing her life time to do therwth as wth her owne goods, without any contradiction but she is hereby lyable & bound to aliment & maintaine my children all ready gotten or wch in the future may come to their age or wedlock & to cause their learning for an art or trade to live by...If wife Ida remarries, she to get 1/2 the estate, the remainder to the children. Names children Jacob, Hendrike, Rycke, Yda, Geertruda & Jannetje & all others that may come. Makes provisions for tutors/guardians for underage children. Witnessed by Eglebert Lott, Johanes Van Ekleen, P. D. Lanoy.

John Nanfan Esqr. Lieut. Governr. & Comandr. in Chief of the province of New York on 26 June 1704 granted administration of the estate to Yda Rycke widow relict & executrix.

About 1710, Hendrick's sons assumed the surname Suydam ("Suydam, meaning "South of the Dam").

In it, he wrote: ...I, John Suydam, of the township of Brookland, Kings County, being in perfect health, mind and memory, not knowing when it shall please the Lord to put an end to my existence here and that it behooveth every man to settle his worldly estate in such a manner that no strife may arise after his decease. The use and income of my whole estate, real and personal, I bequeath to my widow (not named) during the time of her widowhood. As to my deceased son Rike I have in his lifetime given him his full portion therefore I make nothing to his children now. At the decease of my widow I devise all my estate, real and personal, to my sons, Vernandt, Hendrick and Ryniar, and my daughter Maria, share and share alike.
