

-- SWART --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

The probate proceeding surrounding the estate of Johannes Swart can be neatly explained. What it demonstrates is that Rebecca Smock, the second wife and widow of Johannes Swart, was a woman of sensitivity. She defers to her step-son Jacobus in the administration of the estate of his father.

In the NYC Ref Ch record of their marriage banns, they were: Willem Helhaeckis, j.m. Van Gravesant, en Tryntje Boelen, j.d. Van N. Yorke, beyde woonende alhier.

He was living with his wife in "Smits Vallye" in 1686, according to Dominie Selyns' list of NYC Ref Ch members.

In his will, he wrote: "...this 15 day of May, 1691, I, William Helleker, of the Smiths Valey, in the city of New York, ship carpenter, being sick, and weak." I leave to my wife Katharine, all my estate, both real and personal, during her life, in case she remains unmarried. She bringing up my children in a decent Christian manner. If she marry again then she is to have one half and the other half to the children. My son, Jacob Helleker, is to have £3, in addition to his share. Makes his wife executor, and Boelen Rudolph, his father-in-law, assistant. Witnesses, Clement Ellsworth, Jacobus Colyer, William Huddlestone. Proved before John Bridges, October 1, 1702. [NOTE.--"The Smith Valey," or "Vly," so frequently mentioned in early deeds, was the present Pearl street, between Wall street and Fulton street. Shortly after the accession of Queen Anne, it was named Queen street, and held that name till after the revolution. The house of William Helleker was on the north side of the street, a little east of Maiden lane.--W. S. P.]

Whereas, William Helleker, lately deceased, leaving behind him a will, declaring his wife Katharine sole executrix, which said Katharine has lately died, since the decease of her husband, and without proving the said will, Therefore Jacob Boelen, silversmith, and Dirck Ten Eyck, cordwainer, uncles and guardians of Katharine, Maritse, and Aphia, children of said William Helliker, by Katharine, his wife, deceased, are made administrators, during the minority of the children, October 1, 1702. Inventory of estate of William Heleker. Taken by Jacob Boelen and Dirck Ten Eyck, administrators. Total amount, £122.
