

-- TERHUNE, J-Z --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with citations.

Jacob built a saw mill, pond and dam on the Musquapsink Brook, west of Pascack Road, in present Washington Township, Bergen Co., NJ, which he sold in 1839 to James D. Van Horn, together with 16 acres of land. Van Horn then changed the operation into a grist mill.

Jacob Terhune is listed in the 1850 Federal Census, Washington Twp., dwelling 983, family 1085. He is listed as a farmer, with real estate valued at $5,000. Listed living with him were his son Albert J. Terhune and Albert's wife, Hester.

Their homestead at what is now 156 Ell Road in Hillsdale was left to dau. Caroline and remained in possession of Hopper descendants until 1905.

Harry Rouclere (the magician) was the stage name of John Terhune. He grew up and went to school in Saddle River, Bergen Co., NJ. He learned his first sleight of hand tricks in Saddle River from a travelling magician who stopped for a week or two at the hotel just east of John DeBaun's store, run by Abe Terhune (John/Harry's father).<sup>4</sup>

After his father retired as a hotel keeper, John H. Terhune (Harry Rouclere) ran the hotel as the Rouclere House in Ridgewood, located on the northwest corner of Ridgewood and Maple Avenues. He was also manager of the Ridgewood Opera House.<sup>2</sup>

Harry Rouclere (1866 - 1942) was a successful magician by himself and with the mentalism act of Rouclere and Mildred (Mildred, his wife). A young Rouclere joined a circus with a trained dog at the age of nine, became a juggler with the team of Nelsonia and Rouclere before turning to magic. With his own show he toured the country. Most of his illusions were of his own invention. After his marriage to Miss Mildred May they formed the team of Mildred and Rouclere (also called the Mildred Novelty Company), a mind reading act which they named "Mildredism". On May 22nd 1892, they produced for the first time, a new version of mind reading, called "Psychnotism." Mildred is seemingly hypnotised by Rouclere while seated on a chair on the stage. Rouclere goes among the audience and requests a member to tell him in an undertone, what he wants her to do. Rouclere does not speak to her and Mildred's eyes are closed. Harry Rouclere was one of the early members of the Society of American Magicians, holding number 196. He was also one of the first aviators and airplane owners. Rouclere took over his father's hotel in Ridgewooe when he retired and entertained many friends there. The SAM Assembly No, 25 in Paterson, NJ, was named after him while he was still alive. Rouclere died the day after finding out about the death of his old friend Elmer Ransom.

- Harold Rouclere (Harold Rouclere Terhune), b. 1901 NJ; m. 1030-1932, Beatrice E. -?-. Harold Rouclere was a radio engineer. He lived at 302-E3 Highstreet, Radburn, NJ. In 1935 he worked in Newark. Harold Rouclere graduated from Ridgewood High School in 1922, and attended RPI. Harold Rouclere moved before 1937 away from Radburn, as there was no longer an entry in the directory.<sup>3</sup>

Barbara Terhune has suggested the possibility that the (first) wife of Roeloff Jansen Terhune was actually Marike Gerretse Van Voorhees, dau. of Gerret Coerten Van Voorhees and Willemptje Pieters Luyster.<sup>3</sup>

By deed dated June 10, 1711, Roeloff Terhuynen and Marike his wife, and Albert Terhuynen and Aetkie his wife, after reciting that there was a certain message, - describing the one by the Strom Kill in substantially the same language as the language of the deed from Coert Stevense the patentee and Marretje to Gerrit Coerte - and other property, describing it, 'with the rights and priveleges of commons within said townshp, said message containing' about 168 acres, and reciting that the land described was late in the possession of Gerret Coerte, late of Flatlands, deceased, and was bequeathed by him 'to his six children in equal proportions,' with other recitals, conveyed to 'Coert Van Voorhuys' two equal sixth shares in the lands and rights of common mentioned in the recitals. (Liber 3 of Conveyances, p. 230.)<sup>4</sup>

Roelof Terhunnen & wife Matje Voorhees witnessed the baptism 8 March 1752 Flatlands Ref Ch, of Roelof, son of Albert Terhunnen.<sup>3</sup>

In his will, he wrote: In the Name of God, Amen, February 20, 1753. I, Roelof Terhune, of Gravesend, in Kings County, being very sick. After payment of debts and funeral charges I leave to my son Gerritt "my Great Selver Kop, and my keenen sword, and my leder britses, and the selver botten hoels," "I give to his son Roeloff a Gun. I give to that child of my son Albert, named Roelof, my Gun and my Great Bybel," "I leave to my son Albertus all that farm where I now live, and the meadow that lies in the Flatlands meadows. And he shall pay to my daughters, Willimentie, Marya, Hyntie, Alice, and Margaret, each £150, within one year after my wife's decease, in yearly payments, I leave to my son Gerritt £200, out of that piece of land in Flatbush bounded by Bernardus Ryder, or Johannes Lott, and so by the highway. The surplus of the money to my children, and to the children of my daughter Ante, deceased, named Roelof, Johannes, and Marya. Marya shall have out of it £60, and Johannes shall have £40, and Roelof shall have £20. "And it is my will that my son Albertus shall have as many farmers' tools as my son Gerritt had of me." I leave to my wife Wyntie £5, out of my movable estate, and a bed and bedstead with its furniture, "and if my wife shall stay with my son Albertus, he shall keep her well and give her £10 a year." But if she has no mind to stay with him, he shall pay her £16 a year. I make my two sons and "son-in-law, Jooster ye Younger," executors, and they shall sell the lot of land above mentioned, and use the interest for the use of my wife, But if she is not in want my executors shall pay "to my poer sister Ieroeb, recluse [recluse ?], £3 8s 7d yearly during her life, but when the payments are done, my children shall pay to my poer sister Ierrebrey (?)." My movable estate to be divided 6 weeks after my decease. Witnesses, Jan Vanderveer, Engelbert Lott, Benjamin Ryder. Proved in New York, April 30, 1761.
