

-- VAN PELT --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

John Van Pelt was Captain of a sloop that sailed from New York to North Carolina 1732-1735 iaccording to records of Albemarle County and Chowan County at Edenton, NC, "John Van Pelt Master of Sloop Mary, Sept. 26, 1755."

In his will, he wrote:I John van Pelt of the City of New York, marriner, being in perfect health and of sound mind, memory, and understanding, thanks be to Almighty God for the same, and calling to remembrance the uncertainty of this life, do make, constitute, ordain, and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, revoking and annulling by those present all and every will and wills heretofore by me made and declared, either by word or in writing, and this only to be my last will and testament, and first being heartily sorry for my sins past most in humbly desiring forgiveness of the same, I commit my soul to Almighty God, trusting to be saved through the merits of Jesus Christ and my body to the earth to be buried in a Christian-like manner, where it shall please my executors hereinafter named _____ appoint and as to the set- tling of the temporal estate as it has pleased God to bestow upon me, I do order, give, and dispose of the same in manner and form following (that is to say). Item I will and order that my just debts and legacies and fines or all charges be first paid and satisfied within convenient time after my decease. Item I give and bequeath unto my son John the sum of five pounds current money of New York in full of his claim or pretense of being my eldest son or heir at law and as a barr forever to the same. Item I give and bequeath unto my said son John all that my plantation in Bertie Precinct commonly known and distinguished by the name of John Swang's plantation to him and his heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath unto my son Daniel all that my plantation in Bertie Precinct commonly known by the name of Chinckapin nearby and John Wilson's plantation unto him and his heirs forever. Item I give and bequeath to my daughters Mary and Elshe all those my five lots of land in Bath Town to be equally divided between them and to their heirs forever. Item All the rest of my estate both real and personal whatsoever and wheresoever I give and bequeath unto my said sons and daughters to be equally divided amongst them share and share alike to them and their and every of their heirs forever. Item It is my will notwithstanding the bequests as aforesaid so bequeathed that my dear and well beloved wife Mary van Pelt shall have, hold, occupy, possess, and enjoy all the rents, issues, and profits of all and _____ my estate both real and personal whatsoever and wheresoever during her natural life if she so long remains my widow, and further, it is my will and desire that no division be made of my real and personal estate during her widowhood but lie and remain under the command of my said wife Mary whilst sole. And Lastly, I the said John van Pelt have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal in New York this 22nd day of November in the eighth year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George II of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King Defender of the Faith in 1734. Item I so nominate, constitute, and appoint my said loving wife Mary and my said sons John and Daniel executors of this my last will and testament and that the same may be duly and truly be performed. Signed, sealed, published and declared by the testator in the presence of us: John van Pelt (SEAL) Andrew Moor, John Pratt, Henry Demeyer. The will was proven before North Carolina Governor Gabriel Johnston 17 June 1748 according to a reference to North Carolina Wills, Vol. XXXII, page 56. I found the will under North Carolina Wills 1665-1900, Abstracts of Wills 1690-1760, page 386. On page 526 is noted that the recorded copy is the original will.

In his will, he wrote: ...I, John Van Pelt, of Staten Island, being sick. "All my real and personal estate is to be sold out of hand, or at Publick Sale, by my executors." I leave to my wife Altye £50, and my best bed and furniture; and for her better support during her life or widowhood as much as my executors shall judge sufficient. I leave to my grandson, John Van Tuyl, son of my daughter Mary, 1/2 of what remains; and he is to pay to my grandson, Van Pelt Symonsen, £50. The other 1/2 I leave to the children of my daughter, Sarah Van Pelt, deceased, when they are of age, viz., Altye Symonsen, Van Pelt Symonsen, Akert, Marytie, Elizabeth, Symon, Johanes, and Evert. I make my son-in-law, Evert Byvanck, and my cousin, Dirck Lef-ferts, both of New York, executors. Dated November 11, 1761. Witnesses, Joseph Rolph, Lawrence Rolph, Abraham Rolph. Proved, March 22, 1762.

Gertrude Jans (Van Lent; van's Gravenweert)

(widow of Jan Otter/Otto [Van Tuyll])

He was a peddler, perhaps a soldier, and a fisherman. He emigrated with his brother, Mattys, and their families, on The Rose Tree, embarking from the Netherlands on 15 March 1663. They both were from the village of Over Pelt in the Prince Bishopric of Liege (now in Belgium) which was then an area of the Spanish Netherlands, but is today in the Belgian province of Limburg. In Europe their family used the surname Lanen. Their father's name was Jan. So the two brothers were called "Teunis Janszen Lanen van Pelt" and "Mattys Janszen Lanen van Pelt." They were noted on records of the voyage as "Theunis Jansen from the country of Liege, wife and six children, 18, 16, 14, 9, 7 and 2 years old" and Mattys was noted as "Thys Jansen, from the country of Liege, and four children, 17, 15, 12 and 11 years old."

Teunis purchased land in New Utrecht between 1675 and 1684. "Teunis Jansen Laenen van Peelt" is the full manner in which the supposed elder of the two brothers signed his name to documents. He came with children aged 19, 16, 14, 9, 7 and 2 years of age.

His children took the surname Van Pelt.

On 20 April 1684, a child, Margarita, aged about 11 years, purchased as a servant at 10 years, without parents, was bp. at Utrecht, Flatbush Ref Ch (witness: Grietje Jans wife of Teunis Pelt, Purchaser).

In an oath of Allegiance taken in 1687, Teunis and his sons Anthony and Wouter were listed as having lived in New York for 24 years, and Teunis's son Aert was listed as native born.

On 11 Dec 1700, John Van Pelt and his wife Maria, Anthony Van Pelt and his wife Magdalena, Hendrick Van Pelt and his wife Annetje, Wouter Van Pelt and his wife Maria and Jochem Gulick and his wife Jacomyntje [Van Pelt] deeded land in New Utrecht, Kings County, NY to Aert Van Pelt.

 Magdalena Joosten

He removed from New Utrecht to Staten Island about 1719.

In his will, he wrote: ...June 25, 1765. I, Tunis Van Pelt, of Richmond County. I leave to my eldest son Anthony £5 and a fowling-piece that I bought for him, and all my wheelwright tools. All the rest of my estate, real and personal, to be sold at public vendue by my executors. From the proceeds I leave 1/8 to my grandsons, Francis and John Foy, children of my daughter Mary, deceased, and of this £10 is to be paid to their father, my son-in-law, John Foy. All the rest of my estate I leave to my sons, Anthony, Peter, John, Joseph, Tunis, Jacob, and Benjamin, and I make them executors with my trusty friend, Benjamin Seaman. Witnesses, Lewis Dubois, Lewis Grondain, Richard Messereau. Proved, March 25, 1766.
