

-- VAN VOORHEES --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

Van Voorhees

Steven Coerte, the common ancestor of the Voorhees family in this country, emigrated in 1660 with wife and 7 children from Ruinen in Drenthe, and from in front of the hamlet of Hees near said locality, hence the name, and settled in Flatlands; b. 1600; m. 1st, in Europe, -?-; m. 2nd in 1677, Willempie Roelofse Seubering; d. about Feb 16, 1684. Bought Nov. 29, 1660, of Cornelis Dircksen Hoogland, 9 morgens of corn-land, 7 of wood-land, 10 of plain-land, and 5 of salt-meadows, making in all 31 morgens, in Flatlands for 3000gl.; also the house and house-plot lying the village of "Amesfoort en bergen," with the brewery and all the brewing apparatus, kettle-house, and casks, with the appurtenances, as per p. 37 of Lib. B of Flatlands rec. His name appears on the ass. roll of Flaylands of 1675 and '83; as a mag. in 1664; and on patent of 1667. Issue — Hendrickjen Stevense of Holland, m. Jan Kiers; Mergin Stevense of Holland, m. 1st -?- Roelefse, m. 2nd R Emmelt Willemse; Coert Stevense of Flatlands, b. 1637; Lucas Stevense, b. 1650; Jan Stevense, b. 1652; Albert Stevense; Aaltje Stevense, m. Barent Juriaanse; Jannetje Stevense, m. 1st Jan Martense Schenck, m. 2nd Alexander Sympson; Hendrickje Stevense, m. 1st Jan Kierstede, m. 2d Albert Albertse Terhunen; and Abraham Voorhees. Signed his name "Steven Koerten" and at times "Steven Koerts." — Bergen, Teunis G., Register in Alphabetical Order of the Early Settlers of Kings County, Long Island, NY, 1881, p. 380

The surname Voorhees is Dutch and originated in the province of Drenthe, the Netherlands. Commencing many years before the Reformation and culminating in the early 19th century, there were three farms in the hamlet of Hees, near Ruinen (now part of greater Ruinen): Achterhees, or, the farm after Hees; Voorhees, or the farm before Hees; and Middlehees, or the farm in the middle of the other two. The three farms formed a continuous strip and still are operating farms today although the original distinction is not used. Steven Coerts (or Coerten) van Voorhees, or Steven Coerts from the Farm of Voorhees, emigrated with his family to New Netherland in April 1660 on de Bonte Koe. The Dutch in Drenthe, and certainly Steven's family, utilized the old patronymic naming system. While there have been other Dutch by name of Coert or Coerts that emigrated to America into the 19th century, the key with respect to the Voorhees family is the that the family originated in Drenthe and can be traced to the Farm of Voorhees. Steven Coerts is the sole progenitor of the Van Voorhees family in America. Around the end of the 17th century and start of the 18th century in the American Colonies the family accepted the surname system and adopted the family name of van Voorhees after the locative used "back home." Almost coincidentally with this, the name started to change and there are now at least 34-37 different ways of spelling Voorhees. Relative to the original patronymic, there are some Stevenson's who can trace their heritage to Steven Coerts van Voorhees. Please visit the web site of the Van Voorhees Association for further information: <<http://www.vanvoorhees.org>> You might wish to purchase our research book into the family in Drenthe, "Through a Dutch Door." Purchase instructions are on the web site. Our new 1,065 page genealogy covering the first six generations in this country will be available this coming summer.--- Manning Voorhees, April 2000

In his will, he wrote: ...I, Abraham Voorhees, of Flatbush, in Kings County, yeoman, being in a weak and sickly condition. All debts and funeral expenses are to be paid by my executors. "Whereas I am ordered by my father, Cornelius Voorhees, in his will to pay divers legacies, which amount to £700, my executors are to sell lands and personal property to pay the same." I leave to my wife Sarah 1/3 of my estate, so long as she continues my widow, and also 2 horses for her own use, and the use of all my lands until my only son Cornelius shall be of age. If she marries, she shall live on my farm till my son is of age, and then he shall pay her £200. I leave to my two daughters, Hailite and Anntie, each £100 when 18. And my son shall pay to each of them £25 of household goods on the day of their marriage, and until they marry they shall remain on my farm. I leave to my son Cornelius all the rest of my lands and estate. I make my brother, Daniel Voorhees, of Oyster Bay, and Rem Remsen, of Bedford, in Kings County, executors. Dated July 11, 1752. Abraham was a cartman and they lived in NYC after marriage, residing on Ludlow Street, #50 Christie Street and #535 Grand Street. In 1831 Abraham purchased land on both sides of Spring Valley Road running west to the Sprout Brook, in present Paramus, NJ, containing in all about 92 acres, by deeds from Daniel H. Banta and Henry G. Banta. The homestead stood on the west side of the road, and he farmed there until his death.

Abraham Voorhis, 63, farmer, and his wife, Mary, 61, were listed in the 1860 Federal Census, living in New Barbadoes Township (Hackensack P.O.), Bergen County, NJ. They were listed immediately after Lucas A. Voorhis, 40, farmer, and his wife, Salome, 40, and their children, George H., 18; and Abraham, 3.

Abraham's will, dated 20 Nov 1862, left a legacy of $2000 to dau. Jane, subject to payment of an annuity of $25 to her mother. Wife Mary was given the remainder of the personal estate, furniture, stock, farming utensils, etc., and a lot of 4 acres on the east side of the road, opposite the homestead. She also was given maintenance and support from the remainder of the real estate during widowhood. Thereafter, the homestead and 20 acres, plus half the woodland, were devised to son Lucas, and the rest of the farm and woodland to grandson Abraham, son of Lucas.

Maria later lived with dau. Jane at #230 Washington Avenue, Dumont, NJ, where she d. 14 June 1892, aged 93 years.

In the (1) record of their marriage and banns, they were: Albert Stephensz, young man from Ruinen in Drenthe, with Jelletje Reiniers Wizzel-penning, young landy from Middelburg [Newtown, present-day Elmhurst, Queens]; both residing at Amersfort.

He immigrated with his parents in 1660 and is listed in many records as Albert Coerten. Albert appears on the assessment rolls of Flatlands in 1683. He received a patent for a tract of land near Kinderkamack, north of Hackensack, NJ, dated 27 April 1696. The land is described as 75 acres on the Hackensack River between David Akarman, formerly Jacques Larue, and John Berrie. This deed is listed in book E. of East Jersey deeds as published in Documents Relating to the Colonial History of the State of New Jersey, Vol. XXI, pg. 243.¹

Albert Stevense (Van Voorhees) lived at Flatlands, L.I. and later at Hackensack. He was on the assessment rolls of Flatlands in 1683, and in 1686 he obtained a patent for a large tract of land on the western side of the Hackensack River. He was one of the organizers of the First Dutch Church of Hackensack, and was one of its first Elders. "Albert Stevense Voorhys and his wife, Jelletie Reyniers Wisselpenninck" were members of the Hackensack Church in 1686.

My executors are to sell the rest of my movable estate at vendue or private sale, and the money to be paid to my daughter Anne. I leave all my wearing apparell to my brothers, Albert and Zacheus. If my daughter Anne dies without issue, the estate is to be sold and the money paid as follows: To my sister Jannettie, wife of Wilhelmus Van Brunt, £400; To Annettie, daughter of my brother, Coert Voorhees, £100, and the rest to Isaac, Coert, Albert, and Peter, the sons of my brother, Albert Voorhees, And to Coert and Johanes, sons of my brother, Zacheus Voorhees. I make my brother Albert and my friend, Rutgert Van Brunt, Esq., executors. Witnesses, David Brower, Adrian Van Brunt, Simon Boerum. Proved, December 14, 1769, in New York, before Goldsbrow Banyer.

In his will, he wrote: ...I, Cornelius Voorhees, of Flatlands, in Kings County, being sick, "and considering that it behoveth every man to set his worldly estate in such order before he departheth that no Strife or Debate may arise." I order all debts to be paid. I leave to my wife Marytie a cupboard and all linnen and woolen cloth, and 3 beds with their furniture, and all the movable goods she brought to my estate, and a horse and chair. I leave to my daughter Cateryntie my Dutch Bible and silver brother-in-law, Wilhelmus Stootoff, my wearing apparell. My executors are to sell all my real estate at publick vendue, and the rest of my movable estate, and after paying debts, one-third of the money is to be paid to my wife and the rest to my daughters, Cateryntie and Sarah. If my daughters marry before they are of age, they are to have £60, "to enable them to set out for housekeep." I make my father-in-law, Downe Ditmars, and my brother-in-law, Wilhelmus Stootoff, Jr., and my uncles, Abraham and Dirck Remsen, executors. Dated April 1, 1768. d. 1 Aug 1921 Deerland, Hamilton Co., NY

In the death of Jacob Voorhis, which occurred on August 1, 1921, at Deerland, Hamilton County, N. Y., from heart failure, The Holland Society has lost another genial Dutchman, whose kindly humor and good fellowship will be greatly missed. A son of John Voorhis and Jane Alyea, he was a descendant of Stephen Coerte Van Voorhees, 1 who came to this country in April, 1660, in the ship "De Bonte Koe," and settled at Flatlands, Long Island. Mr. Voorhis traced his ancestry through Albert Stevense Van Voorhees, who moved to Hackensack, New Jersey about 1685, and was one of the organizers and an elder of the first Dutch Church at that place. For many years Jacob Voorhis was associated with his father in the stone business at Greenwich, Connecticut, and New York City, retiring in 1910.¹

He lived at Flatbush, L.I., NY.

In the (1) marriage banns, they were: Jan Stephensz, young man from Ruinen in Drenthe, residing in Amersdort, with Cornelia Reiniers Wizzelpenning, young lady from Flushing, also residing at Amersfort.

In the (2) banns & marriage record, they were: Jan Stephensz, widower of Cornelia Reijniers Wizzelpenning, with Femmetje Aukes, young lady from Brooklyn; both residing in N. Amersfort.

His will was probated 20 Nov 1735. In it, he wrote: ...January 3, 1723. I, John Stephenson, of Flatlands, in Kings County, "being very well, and in good health." I leave to my wife Femittye all houses, lands, and meadows in Flatlands, during her life. And after her decease they are to be sold and the proceeds to be divided among my eleven children: Stephen, Auken, Willemppe, John, Roeloff, Magdalena, Lucas, Albert, Abraham, Femittie, and Jacobus. All my personal property to my wife for life and then to my children. My eldest son Stephen is to have 20 shillings more than his share for his birth right. I make my wife executor. Witnesses, William Kowenhoven, Dirck Amerman, S. Gerrits. Proved before Richard Stillwell, in Kings County, November 20, 1735.

John Stevensen, of Kings County, by his will, dated June 3, 1723, made his wife [Jannette?], executor, and she is since deceased, Letters of administration are granted his eldest son, Stephen Johnson, of Oyster Bay, farmer, May 12, 1746

John A. Van Voorhis was a cartman in Brooklyn, N.Y.

At the time of the 1860 Federal Census, John A. Van Voorhis and his family were living in a three-family dwelling in the 2nd District of the 7th Ward, Brooklyn, Kings Co., N.Y.

In the 1870 Federal Census, 21st Ward, Brooklyn, Kings Co., NY, the family is listed on p. 403 (stamped p. 445), taken 2 Sep 1870, dwelling #1925, family #3323: John VanVoorhis, 52, M, W, Cartman, value real estate $1,000; value pers. estate $600; b. NJ; eligible to vote; [Van Voorhis], Ann, 54, F, W; Keeps house, b. NJ; [Van Voorhis], Kate, 22, F, W, Dress Maker, b. NY; [Van Voorhis], Ella, 19, F, W.; "no occupation", b. NY.

In an 1872 Brooklyn Directory, John A. Van Voorhis, carman, was listed as having a business address at 140 Front, N.Y. [New York City?] and a home address at 253 Van Buren [Brooklyn].⁴ In an 1874-75 Brooklyn directory, Charles Wardell is listed at 253 Van Buren, so it seems that by this time, Van Voorhis daughter Eliza Catherine and her husband (Charles Wardell) and their children were living with the Van Voorhis family. Number 253 Van Buren Street in 1872 was between Bedford and Nostrand.
