

-- VAN WART, VAN WERT --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

In the Tarrytown Ref Ch record of their marriage, they were: Isack Van Weert, j.m., and Rachel Storm, j.d. Both b. and l. in Philipsburgh.

On his tombstone: "Here rests the mortal remains of Isaac VanWart, an Elder of the Greenburgh Church, who died on the 23rd day of May 1828, in the 69th year of his age. On the 23rd of September 1780 Isaac VanWart accompanied by John Paulding and David Williams, all farmers of the County of Westchester, intercepted Major Andre on his return from the American line in the character of a Spy; and notwithstanding the large bribe offered them for his release, Nobly disdaining to sacrifice their Country for Gold, secured and carried him to the Commanding Officer of the district whereby the dangerous and traitorous conspiracy Arnold was brought to light, the insidious designs of the Enemy baffled, the American Army saved and our beloved Country, now free and independent, rescued from most imminent peril."

Jochem Wouterse arrived in New Amsterdam on the ship 'Faith' in 1660. It is believed that he was born c. 1637. He and Syntje Jans [Snedeker] have 3 children baptised in the DRC between 1679 and 1686. Jochem has 7 other children credited to him. However; no documentation has been found to verify that their mother was, indeed, Syntje (and in some cases, nothing to verify that they were children of Jochem other than conjecture or process of elimination by previous researchers). Jochem and Styntje appear as members of the DRC as early as 1676 and are not seen in the records again after 1716. Because he arrived alone and not much past the age of majority, it leaves the impression that all his children (and marriages) were events that occurred in New Amsterdam.²

They lived at Flatbush by 1680, and between 1680 and 1688 they moved to Tarrytown, where he was an elder of the Philipsburgh Church (near Tarrytown, NY) from 1699 to 1701.

Catharina Storm

In the m. record they are "Willem Van Weert, j.m., b. in Phillips Burgh, and Catharina Zie, j.d., b. at Mespadt, Langh Eylandt. Both l. in Phillips Burgh."

In his will, he wrote: ...November 29, 1771. I, William Van Wert, of the Manor of Philipsburgh, in Westchester County, "being low and weak in body." In the first place all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid. "I will and do order that after my decease, my wife, Catharine Van Wert, shall remain and stay on my improvements with my son, Jacobus Van Wert, and she is to have all the movable estate during her widowhood, except £15 which I give to my well beloved son, Jacob Van Wert. "My wife shall draw a share of the benefits of my farm, so long as she is able to take care of it with the negro. But if she becomes unable, then my son Jacobus shall provide for her a sufficient maintainance." After the death or marriage of my wife, my sons, Jacobus and William, shall have my improvements with the consent of Frederick Philipse, now Lord of the Manor, and they shall pay to my son Jacob £15. All the rest of my movables after the death of my wife are to go to my 6 children, Jacob, William, Jacobus, Belitie, wife of David Davids, Susanah, wife of Wolvert Coppar, and Catrina, wife of Jacobus Davids. I make my sons, Jacob and William, executors. Witnesses, Jacob Van Wert, Jacob Bryse, William Davids. Proved, August 4, 1772.
