

-- VANDERVOORT --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolution of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

In his will, he wrote: I, Peter Vandervoort, of Brookland, in Kings County, being sick. My wife is to live in one of the rooms of my house where I now live, and the leanto, and the use of the kitchen with my son Michael, while she remains my widow, I likewise give unto my wife Metye, "in whom I am well pleased," 1/2 of the income of my farm where I now live. She paying 1/2 of the smith work and taxes. And she is to have 1/3 of the income of the place where my son Cornelius lives, she paying 1/3 of the charges, I also leave her 2 beds, 4 of the best cows, and so much of the household goods as she shall have occasion for. Also fire wood and my old negro wench "Hannah" and my negro man "Peet." If my wife marries, she is to have 1 bed, 1 cupboard, 6 chairs, and so much household goods as my executors shall think proper. I leave to my oldest son, Michael, £5 for his birthright. I also leave him all the farm where I now live, bounded west by the road that leads to the Ferry, north by Jacobus Lefferts, east by Volkert Rapalye, south by Leffert Lefferts. Also two Lots of wood land, No. 25 and 32. No. 25 is between Jacobus De Bevoys and Jacobus Lefferts, the east end by William Howard, and the west end by the New South road. The Lot 32 is between Cornelius Van de Hoof and Hendrick Suydam, the west end by Lambert Suydam, and the east end by "the Tomars road," Also the salt meadow on the Point. And 1/2 my right of meadow "called the Brenhel's Ise Valye," which now belongs to me, And he is to pay to my daughter Elizabeth, wife of Johanes Gerrittse, or to her children, and to my daughter Mettie, wife of Nicholas Bloom, £400 between them. I leave to my son Cornelius all the farm where he liveth, bounded north by Lefferts and John Lott, east by John Lott, south by the wood Lots, west by the road that leads to Flatbush. Also a wood Lot No. 10, bounded west by widow Suydam, north by John Lott, east by Michael Beagan, and south by the Flatbush Lots. Also 1/2 of a lot of salt meadow in the Flatbush meadows, bounded west by widow Lefferts, east by John Lott, south by the bay, north by wood land. Also 1/2 the salt meadow in the Brookland meadows, And he shall pay to my daughter Cristina, wife of Isaac Johnson, £200. I leave to my sons Peter and Powell my house and lot in New York. "My son Peter is to have the front end of the lot down to the well, so as to take in 1/2 the well: and my son Powell is to have the other end with 1/2 the well. And my executors shall build a house for Powell on his end of the lot, or he is to have £400 in stead." I leave to my sons Michael and Cornelius my 6 horses and my wagons and farming implements. I leave all the rest of my movables to all my children. If my wife after her marriage should happen to be in want of money, for subsistence, I order my children to pay her £10 yearly. I make my sons Michael and Cornelius and my sons-in-law, Johanes Gerrittse and Isaac Johnson, executors.
