

-- VERMILYE --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

In his will, Abraham Vermillie of Yonkers, mentioned children Abraham, Isaac, Jeremiah, Sarah (wife of Tunis Dolson), Rebecca (wife of Peter Bussing), Rachel (wife of Charles Vincent), and Hannah (wife of Jeckomiah Odell). Witnesses: Charles Warner, Edward Smith, Roger Barton. Dated 3 May 1730, probated 23 April 1734 (Westchester Co., Liber 12, p. 162). The houses left to his daughters were where Hanover Square is now; the houses were demolished in 1819 when Hanover Square was opened.

In her will, she wrote: ...May 23, 1730. I, Altie Vermillie, of Yonkers, in Westchester County, widow, being in health. I leave to my eldest son Abraham, £25, and one bed and furniture; "which said bed is my own proper lodging bed." I leave all the rest of my estate to my children, Abraham, Isaac, Johanes, Rebecca, wife of Peter Bussing, Rachel, wife of Charles Vincent, Hannah, wife of Johanes Odell, and to the children of my daughter Sarah, deceased, wife of Tunis Dolsen. I appoint my sons, Isaac and Johanes, and my son-in-law, Peter Bussing, executors. Witnesses, Charles Warner, Edward Smith, Roger Barton. Proved, April 23, 1734.

Isaac Vermilye came to America, with his wife Jacomyntje Jacobs, and four children, all over 20 years of age, in the ship, "The Purmerland Church", Oct. 12, 1662. He settled at Harlem, NY. He was appointed to acommand a military company in 1663 and later served two terms as magistrate.

He bought a morgen (about 2.10 acres) of Lot 5 at Van Keulen's Hook; he probably purchased it of his son-in-law Jan Montagne. Here he built a house, planted fruit trees and here he made his home. This occupied a spot nearly central of the block between 1st and 2nd Avenue and 122nd and 123rd Streets. He did not farm it, no doubt having some other calling suited to his advanced years perhaps with his son in the Brewery. He was still living Aug. 29, 1676. Observing that on the death of Jean Le Comte, in 1675, there was paid Isaac Vermilye for the burial 12f, we conclude that he held the office of Clerk for the French residents of Harlem.<sup>1</sup>

On 29 Aug 1676 he witnessed the will of Aert Pietersen Buys and wife, Jenneke Cornelis, of Fordham.
