

-- WHITMAN --

The family groups represented in this collection may not be complete, because information was entered bit by bit as I found it or happened upon it; I have not done any systematic research on these families. Because they do not compose whole family genealogies, these listings are arranged differently from most genealogical records or histories. Each listing is a family group, and is arranged and filed alphabetically under the name of the head of the family.

Names are generally in alphabetical order (disregarding spelling variations and middle names), then in approx. chronological order. The first sorting is by surname (mixing together any and all spelling variations), then by given name, then by approximate birthdate (when known) in approximate chronological order. For easier reference, surnames in headings are grouped together under the most common spelling usage that evolved in this geographical location, regardless of individualistic spellings in the records themselves. Cross references are used in most cases where surname spellings substantially vary.

Within the quoted records, the individual spellings have been (mostly) retained because they sometimes provide clues (although in general—but with exceptions—they seem to largely reflect the record keeper's particular orthography and not always, at this early period, any special family preference). Those interested can see the variety and evolvement of a particular name's spelling and the interesting and sometimes amusing attempts at phonetic reproduction. Keep in mind that before names and spellings were standardized, records reflected the individualistic whim of the particular recorder (often two different spellings of the same name within the same document). In addition, all records were handwritten, and sometimes deciphering a handwritten name in early records can be quite challenging! So expect to search under all possibilities of spelling (for both surnames and given names).

Given names are grouped together without regard for middle initials or middle names. Because middle names and/or initials are sometimes used, sometimes not used in various records, it seemed simplest to arrange entries as if the middle names or initials did not exist. Usually all variations of a given name are grouped together as though spelled one way: Jan, Johannes, John, etc. are all grouped as one (but also look under the other forms).

Sources and references are included with each "family" grouping, but may or may not include sources that are cited (or are obvious, such as baptismal records, etc.) within the narrative or listing itself.

As with any compiled genealogical record, researchers should regard this information as leads and clues, and should verify all data with independent research.

I welcome, and would be grateful for, any additions or corrections, especially with source citations.

d. May 1842 Venango Co., PA m.

Anna Margaretha Gagin
dau. of
b. 1755
d. 24 March 1849 Venango Co., PA

Jacob Whitman served in the Revolutionary War. In his Revolutionary War Pension Files Index -- "On August 24, 1836, appeared in the court of Common Pleas, Venango County, Pa., Jacob Whitman, age about 88. At the time of the commencement of the Revolution he lived in the county of Northumberland, Pa. on the Susquehanna River, about 12 miles below a place called Isle of Que. In 1775 he enrolled in a company of Militia for the protection of the frontiers. He was first called out in the fall of 1775. His company rendezvoused at Isle of Que under Capt. Casper Reed, marched up the west branch of the Susquehanna to a place where Williamsport now stands. They remained there 2 months encamped, for the purpose of watching the Indians and guarding frontier settlements. Major Jonas Yocum and Col. Husterman occasionally were present. After 2 or 3 months they were dismissed and went home. Sept. 1776 or October, they rendezvoused at Isle of Que under the same Captain and marched in the direction of Frelingsport. Whitman took sick after 3 weeks and hired a substitute to go in his stead. He returned home. In the fall of 1777, they rendezvoused at Isle of Que, with the same Captain, and marched to Sunbury where they were under the command of Col. Heartley. Whitman acted as Company Deputy Quartermaster for the troops. The Quartermaster's name was Henry Crooker. They were dismissed after 2 months and returned home. They were called out in the spring, 1778 and remained at Isle of Que to protect against Indians. They went up the north branch of the Susquehanna 60 miles to Nescopeck Creek, then up the creek to Sugar Loaf, then down Scotch Valley on Callamisa Creek to Roaring Creek, across the mountain to Mahonoy Creek. They came home, but the company was not dismissed. Due to danger from the Indians, the settlement families were sent down the river. Whitman's wife and child went to Lancaster County; some of the other families went to Berks County. Whitman and his company went with the families to guard against Indians. The company returned and acted as scouts for more than six months. Whitman was born in Lancaster County, Pa., 1748. He could produce no record of his birth. After the Revolution he moved to Big Island on the west branch of the Susquehanna, then to Bald Eagle Creek, then to Venango County in 1800, where he remained. County Sheriff Samuel Hays and Clergyman William Connelly both swore that they had known Whitman more than 34 years and believed him to be 88 years old. Power of Attorney for ascertaining whether any increase or arrears of Pension are due the Widow or Heirs of Revolutionary Pensioners. September 21, 1852, Venango County, appeared William Whitman, age 57, son of Jacob Whitman. Jacob died May, 1842. His wife, Margaret, died March 24, 1849. Their place and date of marriage unknown. They were residents of Venango County about 55 years. William Whitman resides in Venango County. The name Isaac Whitman is written on the back of this power of attorney, but what that name signifies is not known. Jacob Whitman was born in Durlach, Lancaster Co., Pa. 1748 on the old homestead, seven miles north of Lancaster, son of Johannes, grandson of Matthias. He died in 1842. Jacob Whitman arrived in Venango County, Pa. in 1800 with his wife, Margaret, and family--John, Jacob Jr., Elizabeth, Jonathan and William. Jacob took up 429 acres on French Creek near David Mead, near the settlement of Utica, Pa. This tract of land was surveyed June 30, 1802. Jacob Whitman, Jr. died not long after their settlement; his will recorded in will book Vol 1 page 16 at Venango County, Pa., dated 18 Jul 1809 but was not recorded until 18 Jul 1843. "Jacob Whitman, Jr of Sugar Creek Township--to my father Jacob Whitman, silver watch and rifle--to my mother, Margaret, black mare--brother, Jonathan." Jacob Whitman and his sons were boatmen on the Susquehanna River (John and Jacob, Jr.) and were engaged in the same occupation upon their arrival in Venango County, transporting goods on French Creek.¹

Abstract of Will dated, 2 June 1759, proved, 18 June 1759. 'I, Zebulon Whitman, of Huntington, in Suffolk County, being now sick. All debts to be paid by executors, and they may sell part of my outlands. I leave to my wife Phebe all household goods and two cows, a horse and my riding chair, and the use of 1/3 all real and personal estate during her widowhood. I leave to my daughter Margaret £75 when of age. I leave to my sons, Isaiah and Jarvis Whitman, all the rest of my estate, real and personal. I make my friends, John Whitman and Joshua Wood, executors. Witnesses, Isaac Powell, Eliphalet Whitman, Nathaniel Whitman, Robert Jarvis.

Family tradition says he died about 1760 from the effects of a wound he received at the Battle of Quebec in 1759. (Source: Whitman, Scott Winfield, unpublished manuscripts and diaries, 1880-1909.)²
